CONGRESS CLOSING.

Expects to End Long Session Today.

Record for Legislation Has Seldom, If Ever, Been Equaled.

Many Instances of Success in Bills for Which President Vouched.

Railroad Law Revision, Separate Statehood and Postal Bank Lead.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Notwithstanding the fact that action on many important measures was delayed by conflicts between insurgents and regular Republican factions in both branches, and that the Democratic minority was an active force, Congress is expected to conclude its long session tomorrow with a record for legislation that seldom, if ever, has been equaled.

In the matter of movements, for which President Taft stood sponsor, there were many instances of success. Chief in the list of legislation for which the administration contended were the following:

Striking revision of the railroad laws, including the creation of a commerce court.

Admitting Arizona and New Mexico to Statehood.

Authorizing the establishment of postal savings banks.

Giving the President unlimited authority to withdraw public lands for conservation purposes.

Providing for publicity of campaign contributions.

Authorizing the issue of $20,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness to complete reclamation projects.

Creating a Bureau of Mines.

Extending the activities of the tariff board, and appropriating $250,000 for its use.

Looking to the suppression of the white slave traffic.

Creating a commission to consider economies in the administration of the Federal government.

Authorizing the entry of surface coal lands.

Providing a tariff system for the Philippines.

Legislation that ultimately is expected to give prohibition to the Hawaiian Islands.

OTHER MEASURES.

Opposed to the foregoing formidable list of legislation obtained was a comparatively small number of measures that had had administration support but failed of passage. There were measures for a ship subsidy; anti-injunction; for new forms of government in Alaska, and on the Panama Canal Zone; a Bureau of Health; increased postage rates for second class matter; the Appalachian forest reserve, and the increase of the engineering corps of the army.

Not the least conspicuous acts of Congress were the strenuous measures taken by the House to change the method of conducting its business, so that less power might be reposed in the Speaker, and the organization of which he was the natural leader.

The Speaker was removed from the Committee on Rules which he had previously been credited with dominating, and a new rule was adopted to prevent the pigeonholing of bills by committees when they were approved by a majority of the House.

The enormous demand for legislation imposed upon Congress is shown by the fact that since the beginning of the present Congress 27,000 bills have been introduced in the House and 9000 in the Senate, in addition to hundreds of resolutions.

UNPARALLELED RECORD.

This record, as far as the number of bills is concerned, is without a parallel.

More time was consumed by the railroad bill, than all other subjects of legislation. This measure not only creates a Commerce Court, but embodies power for a committee to inquire into stock and bond issues of railroads, extends the provision of the interstate commerce act to telegraph and telephone companies, and gives the Interstate Commerce Commission power to suspend increases in rates until the commission shall have found the proposed increase reasonable.

An act was passed to compel railroads to furnish to the commission reports on accidents.

Under the withdrawal act, the President was given almost unlimited power to withhold lands from settlement and to conserve water power.

On the other hand, the act providing for the agricultural entry will open to settlement at least 60,000,000 acres, but will reserve to the government the right to the coal.

CONSERVATION.

By providing for the opening of a portion of the Pine Ridge and the Rosebud Indian reservations in South Dakota, and the Fort Berthold reservation in North Dakota, more than 2,000,000 acres of agricultural lands will be available for homestead settlement. The sum of $150,000 was ap-

Theater Star Says Her Husband Had Better Come to Her If He Wants to Keep His Wife—She Won't Believe the Rumors About Him Are True.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "If Mr. Zeigfeld wants to keep his wife he'd better come to Paris."

With this threat, which, in spite of the smile accompanying it, was plainly seriously meant, Anna Held gave warning to her husband, Florence Zeigfeld, that she is tired of living alone. Separation rumors have been flying thick ever since Anna Held came alone from New York—even for some months before—but there is no danger of separation or divorce if Florence will only not put business before the neglect of his wife. Otherwise, however, Anna says she must take some action, as existence as at present is intolerable.

"There's no one you love more than you do your husband?" your correspondent had the temerity to ask.

"No," drawled Anna, "but I am tired of work and I want to play, and, like my song, I must have some one to play with. I've had offers from noblemen who supposed I was unmarried, because I am living alone. I can't go out because it does not look right without my husband, and I can't receive attentions from men, so my life is not happy.

"Zeigfeld is a fine, splendid fellow. I know him. There's no truth in those rumors about another woman. He isn't that kind. He wouldn't get in trouble with a number two before he was through with a number one, but he works too hard.

"I've made lots of money; now I want to rest. I've worked hard and I've earned the right to enjoy myself. I love Paris, because it's my home. I want to live over here at least for some time, and not think of a theater, but just enjoy myself, but I can't do this alone. I'm serious. You can tell Mr. Zeigfeld he'd better come to Paris."

Anna is now having a good time here, despite her assertions, but she plainly shows she is tired.

"FARMERS' WIVES TESTIFY.

Bleached Flour Made Excellent Bread, They Said—Jurors Sample Their Baking.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

KANSAS CITY, June 24.—Bleaching of flour by the use of nitro peroxide does not injure the product, was the evidence given in the bleached flour case in the Federal Court here today by witnesses summoned by millers using such a process.

Testimony by the ultimate consumer was given in the bleached flour trial today, when the wives of three farmers living near Green Castle, Mo., testified that they had bought and used some of the flour from the shipment seized by the government in this case, and that the bread made from the flour was excellent. The witnesses brought to the courtroom bread they had made from the flour, and sliced it that the jurors might eat it. Several of the jurors tasted the bread.

O. M. Frierd of Hannibal, Mo., and Justin R. Soden of Emporia, Kan., millers, testified that they used Alsop bleaching process in their mills, and that it did not injure flour.

That the Alsop bleaching process tended to make noticeable imperfections and impurities in flour was testified by W. C. Dunn, a miller of Independence, Mo. Bleaching, he added, would make superior flour lighter and inferior flour darker.

Effort to Stifle Objections to Paying Snug Fortune to Indians' Lawyers.

General Deficiency Bill Held Up; Sensation Created in Both Houses.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—Senator Gore of Oklahoma disclosed in the Senate today what he interpreted as an effort to bribe him in connection with legislation affecting the fortune in attorneys' fees claimed by J. F. McMurray of Oklahoma for services rendered to the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations in land and townsite cases.

The charge created a sensation in the Senate, which later extended to the House. The House in consequence sent back to conference the General Deficiency Bill, which carried an item relating to contracts between the Indians and their attorneys.

As the result of the denouement, Senator Gore finally involved a member of the Senate Committee on Indian Affairs, a member of the House Committee on Indian Affairs, two former Senators—one from Nebraska and the other from Kansas, but whose names were not made public in debate.

In response to a suggestion by Senator Bailey that he should name the Senate members of the Indian Affairs Committee, Mr. Gore demurred, but declared he would welcome an investigation, so the whole matter might be brought out.

INVESTIGATION IMPROBABLE.

It is not probable that an investigation will be ordered.

Mr. Gore was compelled to address the Senate three times before that body was fully aroused to the seriousness of the charges he made. His first effort was in connection with the adoption of the conference report on the deficiency bill, which had been presented by Senator Hale.

As passed by the Senate, that measure contains an amendment that would nullify contracts made by the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations and by individual members of the tribes with their attorneys unless the contracts are approved by Congress.

This provision was in accordance with a resolution introduced by Mr. Gore on May 4 last. It was designed to prevent Mr. McMurray from obtaining fees which it is said would aggregate $3,000,000 and which Mr. Gore complained had not been earned by the attorney.

The conference report had been adopted by the Senate when Mr. Gore entered the chamber. He said he had been informed the Senate had receded from the amendment requiring the approval by Congress of tribal agreements, but Mr. Hale explained the matter had been properly safeguarded.

IMPROPER INFLUENCE CHARGED.

Mr. Gore accepted the explanation, but said if the contracts were to be recognized, Mr. McMurray would receive $3,000,000. It was in this connection that he first declared that improper influence had been exerted by a representative of McMurray in an effort to defeat the provision requiring Congressional action on the contracts.

Characterizing McMurray's claims as having been "conceived in corruption and brought forth in eruption," Mr. Gore said he had been approached by an outsider who desired to interest him in the McMurray claims.

Later, Mr. Gore examined the provision as agreed upon as in conference. He lost no time in returning to the Senate chamber where he moved to reconsider the vote by which the resolution was adopted. He was informed the report had passed from the Senate. Mr. Gore then moved to recall the report, but Mr. Gallinger moved to lay this on the table, which was done.

Addressing the Senate on a question of personal privilege, Mr. Gore amplified his charges that corrupt methods had been attempted to defeat the Senate provision concerning the Indian contracts.

IMPLICATES CONGRESSMAN.

Mr. Gore explained that on May 4, last, he had offered a resolution similar in terms to the amendment he had placed in the deficiency bill in the Senate and that it had been referred to the Indian Committee.

On the following day Senator Hughes had been directed to make a favorable report on the resolution, he said.

"On May 6," declared Mr. Gore, "a man came to me with an improper suggestion. He was a representative of Mr. McMurray, a resident of my home town, and had been my friend in a time of need.

"He assured me it would be to my financial interest if I could call on the Colorado Senator, and advise him not to report the resolution. There was a suggestion that $25,000 or $50,000 would be available if the contracts were not prohibited.

"I am informed that a similar proposition was made yesterday to a member of the House of Representatives of Oklahoma, who yesterday created a sensation in both branches of Congress by openly declaring an attempt had been made to bribe him.

Senator Gore,

these contracts," and declared that a large lobby was maintained in Washington. He said he felt in honor bound to continue these efforts to "prevent this steal from those defenseless Indians in Oklahoma."

"CORRUPTION ATTEMPTED."

He declared if the contracts were ever carried into effect it might be "done with the full knowledge that whether or not there had actually been corruption, it had been attempted."

Learning the House had not yet acted upon the conference report, Mr. Gore hastened to the other chamber where he told friends of the efforts alleged to have been made to corrupt the members.

When the conference report was brought up in the House, Mr. Murphy of Missouri called attention to the situation. He declared an attorney had been lobbying in the capital for a long time in the interest of legislation that would validate his contracts with Indians.

"Name the attorney," demanded sev- [illegible]

The attorney was said to be seated in the gallery at the time.

The House almost unanimously rejected the conference agreement. When the action of the House was reported to the Senate, Mr. Hale moved the Senate further insist upon its amendments to the bill, and asked for a further conference.

GORE TO FRONT AGAIN.

Mr. Gore reëntered the chamber at this juncture and obtained recognition, reiterating his protest against the provision inserted in conference.

Another sensation was created when he declared the "friend in need" had told him during the conversation on May 6, that a member of this Senate, a member of the Indian Affairs Committee, and a member of the House Indian Affairs Committee, were interested in this contract.

Mr. Gore said he had just seen Mr. Tawney, one of the House conferees, and had asked him who suggested the provision that was substituted for the original Senate amendment.

"And Mr. Tawney named the very same Representative who was mentioned to me on May 6 as being interested in these contracts," exclaimed the Oklahoma Senator.

"I understand that this member of the House and Mr. McMurray practically live together in the same hotel in this city."

Senators looked aghast at the disclosure made by the Oklahoma member.

CHARGES PILE UP.

The charges which had been mild at first, piled up in such an alarming manner that even the rush of the last days of the session was not sufficient to minimize the general interest displayed.

The Senate chamber was filled when Senator Bailey, the first to give vent to his feelings, exclaimed:

"I think the Senator from Oklahoma owes it to himself and to the Senate to give the name of the Senator who was represented to him as being interested in these contracts."

Mr. Gore declined, however, to mention any names, but said he believed there should be an investigation of the Gary, Ind., Mayor and Judge Has Perplexing Problem to Solve and the Woman's Testimony Only Adds to Confusion—Anyway, She's Her Husband's Sister-in-Law.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GARY (Ind.) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mayor Thomas E. Knotts, who is also city judge, must decide which of two brothers is the rightful possessor of a wife which both claim. After hearing the case all this afternoon he adjourned court at sunset and went into retirement until morning, when he expects to decide whether the woman in the case is Mrs. C. S. or Mrs. J. W. McClellan, who is her husband's sister-in-law whichever way it ends.

In Gary she had been living as Mrs. C. S. McClellan. Today J. W. McClellan of Madison, Wis., came to visit his brother, and when he discovered the status of affairs a fight started. Both brothers landed into court, and when Mayor Knotts heard their testimony he sent for Mrs. McClellan to get her side of the case.

Both brothers produced marriage certificates showing her to be the wife of each. According to her story, she married J. W. and then discovered that he had been previously divorced and married her before the time limit was up.

Considering that she was not married at all, she says that she was then united to C. S. in Chicago and came to Gary to live.

In the meantime Mayor Knotts is studying the marriage laws of Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin in order to see which of the brothers is the rightful husband, as both claim her.

TWELVE MORE DEATHS FROM STIFLING HEAT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Twelve more victims today succumbed to the heat wave, which has slain more than fifty persons in Chicago alone. Cool breezes off the lake tempered the heat in the city, but in the suburbs it was stifling. Three of today's victims died in hospitals, having been overcome previously.

Mrs. Lucy Laschiacca, a young Italian woman, was driven insane by the heat. Running through the streets, screaming that her head hurt, she jumped into the river from the Chicago and Alton Railway docks and was drowned in the sight of many spectators.

Louis Sepleton, made insane by the heat, of which he had been complaining for several days, hanged himself this morning. Other victims today:

WILLIAM SCHUDDER.
JACOB LARSON.
A. BINACO.
AUGUSTA K. MEYER.
GEORGE RONDEZ.
TONY TRACHARICO.
FRANK P. ZACKI.

Deaths of five children are directly attributable to the heat. There were numerous prostrations, notwithstanding the cooler temperature, and some of these are certain to terminate fatally. Forecasters say the heat wave is not yet broken and that at least two days more of high temperatures without rain are in sight.

The grain markets advanced sharply today on the continued drought and hot weather in the great Northwestern wheat States. Experts in the fields say immense damage has already been done and that if rains

The San Francisco witof traffic handled over a certain piece of road as compared to any other piece. I could not seggregate the Tehachepi Mountains from any other part of the road. Of course we would take it into consideration in making rates, but it would be a general survey of the conditions. I will not say that I never met a man who could do it, but if there is any one could he would be a dandy."

Mr. Luce destroyed one of the traditions of California transportation circles when he voiced an objection to calling the book of tariff schedules "the Bible."

"I have read the Bible," he said, "and I find nothing there referring to railroad rates. I very much prefer to have this book referred to as the Southern Pacific freight tariff schedule. That is what it is."

The hearing was adjourned this afternoon until Monday morning to allow one of the Stockton representatives to return home and attend a funeral. The case has lengthened considerably beyond the anticipation of those concerned, largely through the attempts of San Francisco to annex Los Angeles county.

The statement may sound extravagant, but it is a fact that San Francisco jobbers would be able to sell in Los Angeles county by absorbing a small differential if their petition was to be granted.

French Province Asiatics in Ambush Capture Him After Desperate Fight. In Failing Health from Long Exposure and Torture, Victim Recites Experiences That Read Like Fiction.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

LYONS (France) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Ferocious banditti, who torture prisoners held for ransom, are not yet extinct, as some modern writers have complained. A thrilling tale of torture, twenty days of captivity and death momentarily expected has just been brought from Anam, Asia, by Henri Voisin, who has returned here to regain his health, shattered as the result of his terrible experience.

M. Voisin, who is employed by a French construction company, was captured nearly a year ago by a bandit and chieftain named Detham, who for years has committed deeds of violence in the French protectorate and is still uncaptured. Voisin is the only white man who has ever escaped from his clutches.

"I was journeying to Hanoi to inspect some works," M. Voisin said today, "and was riding in a 'push' cart, when suddenly the coolies propelling the conveyance fled. I grasped my revolver when I saw about thirty armed Anamites with leveled guns. They fired and I answered with my revolver, retaining one bullet as a last resort. The battle was short. I was felled with two blows from a rifle butt and bound, Anamite fashion, with my elbows behind my back, the thong being then passed around my neck.

"There were hundreds of peaceful natives working in the fields nearby, but they did not interfere. I was led to a gate screened with vines, then through a dense bamboo thicket and finally to a mud-walled fort within which fifty armed men were seated in a circle around Chief Detham.

"The latter's head, eyebrows, eyelashes and face were shaven. He wore khaki clothes and a broad belt of buffalo skin. I noticed a frail little woman, who was Detham's third wife. She seemed miserable and I pitied her, but before I left the fort she had demanded my head twenty times.

"When the banditti found that I was neither an official nor a soldier they consented to hold me for ransom, but until the negotiations were finished, they threatened to put me to death and inflicted indescribable tortures upon me. The mere thought of my terrible experience makes me feel faint."

Since Voisin was ransomed, a number of banditi, including the leader's blood-thirsty wife, have been captured and sent in chains to the French military prison on the Island of Cayenne.

U. S. NOT FREE COUNTRY.

Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont Thinks England Has More Liberty Because Few Men Make Laws.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

NEW YORK, June 24.—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont will spend the summer in a study of the woman's suffrage movement in England, with a view to enlarging her activities here. She will sail on Wednesday to be gone until September.

"I expect to meet Dr. Anna Shaw in England," she said in a farewell interview published here today, "and together we will make a thorough study of the suffrage associations there. We will learn the ways of the conservatives and the militants and then we will adopt in our own work here the methods over there that we think are best suited to the cause in America. The suffrage bill has already been introduced in England and there seems little doubt now of its passage. If the English women do win, then we will know that their victory is due in a large measure to their methods and that is why we are so anxious to give them a closer study, and bring them back with us.

"The men make it easier for women in England, while the men here make it harder. All they have to do in England is to win over a handful of men who are in power while we have to convert hundreds to make any headway. Now, which is the freer country? I do not consider this a free country."

DALZELL IS NOMINEE.

Court Orders That Ballot Boxes Be Not Opened—Black Will Be Independent Candidate.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

PITTSBURGH, June 24.—In an order handed down by Judge Josiah Cohen today, the Commissioners of Allegheny county are permanently restrained from opening the ballot boxes in the Thirtieth Congress district and recounting the vote cast in sixty-six precincts contested by Dr. Robert J. Black and twenty-three precincts contested by John Dalzell, both of whom, with Clarence V. Tiers, were candidates for the Republican nomination of the district in the primaries of June 4.

Unless attorneys for Dr. Black appeal to the higher courts, the votes announced by the County Commissioners shortly after the primary, now stands, and Congressman Dalzell received the nomination. Dalzell claimed the Congressional nomination over Black by 197 votes, and Black contested, alleging fraud.

It is stated that Dr. Black will run

Democrats Over-Confident on Subject of Tariff.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] If God is on the side of the heaviest batallions or, as in this case, on the side of the heaviest artillery, there may be some difficulty in making the choice when the Republican and Democratic committees send their big guns to the front in the coming congressional campaign.

NATIONAL FIGURES.

If present promise is fulfilled, these men are to lift up their voices on behalf of Republican candidates for Congress and for the Senate before November comes: William Howard Taft, James A. Sherman, Philander Chase Knox, Charles Nagel, Joseph G. Cannon, Sereno E. Payne, Henry Cabot Lodge and Theodore E. Burton.

The Democratic list of speakers contains these names: William Jennings Bryan, Judge Harmon, William J. Gaynor, Thomas R. Marshall, Champ Clark and Joseph W. Folk.

It finally appears that the President virtually has about made up his mind to do what he can for the party in what he thinks is to be a time of trouble, and in October he will speak in the Middle West.

DEMOCRATIC THUNDER.

The Democrats are going to send their speakers everywhere. No standpat or insurgent community will be walled in securely enough to escape the Democratic intruder. There are three or four Presidential nomination possibilities on the Democratic list, and each one will speak for the party while perhaps not forgetting that in speaking for it he is speaking for himself.

Only a month ago the Democratic leaders in Congress were so certain of victory next November that they made preparation to conduct the campaign on tariff lines only, with a diversion now and then into the field of general legislation. The Republicans by burying their differences for a time and by showing their disposition to carry out the pledges of the Republican platform have made the Democratic task harder, although no one knows it better than the Democrats themselves. There is no overconfidence visible today in the democratic camp.

WAR MUNITIONS FOR MADRIZ.

Estrada Complains to Washington That Steamer Leaving New Orleans Carries Supplies.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—It was reported here today that a large armed vessel, carrying munitions of war for the Madriz government in Nicaragua, sailed from New Orleans yesterday and that the Estrada insurgent representatives have appealed to the United States to send a warship after her.

It is being alleged here today by representatives of the Estrada faction in Nicaragua that the steamer Columbia, which cleared yesterday from New Orleans for Blue Fields, carried a large qantity of munitions of war for the Madriz army and also three large high-speed gasoline launches equipped with machine guns.

These launches, these men assert, were marked "J. I." and were to be unloaded at Pearl Lagoon on the east coast near Blue Fields. They say the mark "J. I." consigns the launches to Julian Irias, whom Madriz has appointed a plenary commissioner over the east half of Nicaragua.

A protest will be addressed to the State Department by Estrada's representatives and it was added that commercial interests on the east coast, which are fearful of the operation of the launches, will join in it.

TO REFORM DIVORCE LAWS.

Iowa Bar Association Favors an Act to Lessen Number of Decrees Secured by Default.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DES MOINES (Iowa) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Divorce decrees by default may not be had for the asking in the future if the Iowa Bar Association can influence the next Legislature to amend the Iowa divorce laws.

Upon motion of Judge Horace E. Deemer of the Iowa Supreme bench, speaking for the Law Reform Committee, the association, at its meeting today, unanimously adopted a resolution which suggests that the Legislature pass an act requiring the State to be represented by an attorney in every case, where a decree may be taken by default.

This attorney is to cross-examine the witnesses and to introduce testimony in order that the court may pass upon the defendant's side of the case as well as that of the party suing for the decree.

In this manner it is proposed to put a stop to "framed up" divorce proceedings, where it is previously arranged that the defendants absent themselves from the trial.

A majority of all the divorces secured in Iowa are secured through default.

MURDER THEORY ADVANCED.

Friends of New Mexico Trader Instigate Further Investigation of His Death.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SANTA FE (N. M.) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That Richard Wetherill, a wealthy Indian trader of Pueblo Bonito, was murdered in cold blood and not shot in a quarrel, is the belief of some of his friends, and an investigation will probably be held without difficulty, as the Indian charged with the shooting has given up to Superintendent Shelton at Shiprock agency. There is no confirmation of the report that he was murdered and then scalped.

Wetherill discovered the Mancos ruins in Colorado and sent many valuable prehistoric curios to the Smithsonian Institution. He owned the finest collection in the world of Balletta blankets, and refused $1200 for one blanket a few years ago. He was reported years ago to have obtained

New Jersey Road Men Declare Oiled Roads and Benzine Buggies Are Efficacious.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

ORANGE (N. J.) June 24.—Reports of the State Highway Commissioners declare that oiling of roads to lay the dust has had a marked effect on the famous Jersey mosquitoes, at least, in this section of the State, driving them away from the residential districts and confining them to tracts where the roads are not treated frequently with oil. The smoke and gases from passing automobiles also have their effect, it is said, reinforcing the fumes from the oiled roads.

MONUMENTS PROPOSED.

Congressmen Introduce Measures for Appropriations to Commemorate Patriots and Events.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—It is proposed to appropriate $10,000 to erect a monument to the memory of Hiram Cronk, said to be the last survivor of the war of 1812, who died in New York in May, 1905, at the age of 105 years. A bill providing for such an appropriation has been introduced by Mr. Law of New York.

Representative Poindexter has introduced a bill to erect a monument near Rosalia, Wash., to commemorate the spot where the United States and hostile Indians fought on May 17, 1858.

Another bill provides for the marking of the graves of four young women who were held as prisoners of war in Kansas City in 1863, and who, on August 13 of that year, were killed by the collapse of the building in which they were confined. The names of the women are given as Josephine Anderson, Mrs. Whitsett, Mrs. Van Diver and Mrs. Kerr. Their bodies were buried in Kansas City and elsewhere in Jackson county.

The bills have been referred to committees.

EARLE'S MARRIAGE STANDS.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Supreme Court Justice Fitzgerald has signed an order refusing to indorse the referee's report recommending annulment of the marriage between Ferdinand Pinney Earle and his "affinity" wife, Julia Kuttner Earle. Mrs. Earle asked for annulment on the ground that Earle was not divorced from his first wife when he married her.

Judge Hears Testimony in Assault Case and Then Says "Discharged."

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] When J. Traversi, proprietor of the Colbo Hotel, caught John Bartel in his pantry sucking eggs, last night, he gave Bartel a fine beating and Bartel caused his arrest. In the police court today Traversi recited how he found Bartel in his pantry gobbling raw eggs as fast as he could break the shells. The visitor, he said, had made away with a dozen when he was discovered. Traversi demanded payment at the market price. Bartel refused to pay and made as if he would fight. Then Traversi did a few fancy tricks with his fists. The egg-sucker made no denial. "Discharged," said Judge Anderson.

GOLD BY EXPRESS AGAIN.

Rate Reduced for Alaska Miners on Par With Postal Charges. Mail Clerks Pleased.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA (Wash.) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] All arriving Alaska steamships are now bringing gold shipments. Practically all the bullion this year will be brought down by the Alaska-Pacific Express Company, instead of under registered mail.

The miners, two years ago, discovered that they could send gold through the United States and Canadian mails as registered matter, at a cost of about $1.65 per $1000 value, and it was not long before the express companies' business in gold shipments had practically disappeared.

The work of the mail clerks was made correspondingly onerous, some of the steamship pursers, who act as mail clerks, growing prematurely gray-headed. The mail sacks full of gold bricks had to be piled on the floors of their staterooms and the danger of having a few ingots abstracted gave the pursers many sleepless trips. This year the express company has reduced its rate on gold to a par with the postal rate, and hereafter most of the bullion will be taken charge of by the express company

TAX ON SPRECKELS'S ESTATE.

State's Inheritance Assessment Will Be Tidy Sum—Dispute Over Sale in Honolulu.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That the State will receive about $275,000 as an inheritance tax from the Claus Spreckels estate was shown by figures presented to Superior Judge Coffey today by the State appraisers, but there is still doubt whether a tax will be paid on $75,000 realized from the sale of property in Honolulu to William G. Irwin.

The heirs assert this sum is not subject to tax, but Treasurer McDougald, who acts as the State's collecting agent in this matter, thinks it is. Judge Coffey reserved his decision.

Hartlief F. Peart, representing McDougald and the Inheritance Tax Department of California, called Claus A. Spreckels to the stand to give details regarding some of the property going to make up the total of $3,565,000 belonging to the estate.

It appeared $120,000 was spent in rehabilitating the Spreckels mansion on Van Ness avenue, which was gutted by the big fire.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The Mammoth Copper Company of Maine cannot operate its smelter at Kennet, Shasta county, without using zinc oxide to destroy the obnoxious fumes. This was the decision rendered today by Judge Morrow of the United States Circuit Court, in lieu of the injunction brought against the smelter applied for by the citizens of Kennet.

Judge Morrow ruled that the smelting company must admit a committee of three citizens at any time they choose to inspect the smelter, and that a similar committee from the copper company must be permitted to examine the crops about Kennet to ascertain the damage done by the fumes. It was stipulated today that this decision will in no wise affect the suits now pending against the company. These suits involve a large sum of money. The complaint recites that all of the country for miles around Kennet has been practically denuded of living vegetation by the fumes of the smelter.

Escaped Gas Ignited by Smoker Explodes and Imperils Lives of Dwellers in Wreck.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

OAKLAND, June 24.—A gas explosion which occurred in a flat building at No. 1453 Broadway, a few minutes past noon today imperiled the lives of a score of dwellers and damaged property to the extent of nearly $2000. A plumber who was at work on some leaky pipes, is believed to have set off the gas by lighting a match.

J. Nathanson, residing in the lower apartments at No. 1455 State street had noticed that the pipes were leaking and that the rooms and halls were filled with gas. The explosion tore away plaster on the walls, and ceiling and wrecked doors and window panes, while furnishings were ruined by débris.

Mrs. Ella Canfield and two daughters, Ella and Hazel were in the apartments at No. 1553. When the explosion occurred they were thrown from their feet receiving slight bruises and nearly suffocated by the fumes.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In response to a call issued by the State Horticultural Commissioner, county horticultural commissioners from all over the State met here this morning for a two days' conference. The Governor attended and made an address.

J. P. Dargitz, manager of the California Almond Growers' Exchange, and one of the largest growers of fruit in the Northern San Joaquin, moved that the conference extend a vote of thanks to the Governor for stopping the Jeffries-Johnson fight in California. The vote of thanks carried with everybody on their feet.

Gov. Gillett responded with half a dozen words saying that he had performed his duty as he saw it, and let the matter drop, assuring the fruit men, however, that it was very kind of them to show the concern and appreciation of his action.

Among the commissioners present from the south are: E. O. Essing, Ventura; B. V. Sharp, Kings; Roy K. Bishop, Orange; C. A. Maul, Kern; W. E. Wilson, Imperial; S. A. Pease, San Bernardino; R. F. Cundiff, Riverside. The following were also delegates from the south: E. W. Holmes, Supervisor, Riverside; James Mills, citrus grower of Riverside, and S. P. Horton, Supervisor of San Bernardino.

URGES INCREASED INTEREST.

J. W. Jeffrey, chairman, spoke of the lack of interest manifested by many boards of Supervisors toward the work of the Horticultural Commission, even in localities where fruit raising was the chief occupation of the people. Two southern counties, he said, had appropriated $30,000 and $100, respectively, for proper inspection by the Horticultural Commissioner. This fact demonstrated the necessity for a more harmonious coöperation between the two bodies. Discussion on this subject was invited and many delegates voiced their localities. All were agreed that the county Supervisors acted in a spirit of harmony with the commissioners and that extra financial assistance was given in cases where special inspection was necessary to protect orchards.

The representatives from San Bernardino and Riverside counties informed the conference that politics had been successfully eliminated by the Supervisors in appointing commissioners, inasmuch as they had appointed men whose political affiliations differed from their own. Attention was called to the movement to induce the next Legislature to appropriate $100,000 for the use of the State Horticultural Commissioner and the conference pledged itself to the project.

IDENTIFIES BROTHER'S BODY.

Spokane Young Man, Who Recognizes Victim of Portland Trunk Murder, Wires Aged Parents.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

PORTLAND (Or.) June 24.—Walter Johnson of Spokane arrived here late yesterday from Twin Falls, Idaho, and identified the body of William A. Johnson, victim of the Union Depot trunk murder, as that of his brother.

The dead man, it appears, came to Spokane after selling his farm near Lansford, N. D., to see his brother Walter. Walter was absent from the city on his vacation, and was at Twin Falls, when he learned through an Associated Press dispatch from Spokane that the victim was probably his brother. The Johnsons' aged parents live near Lansford, and Walter Johnson has telegraphed them the news of their son's tragic end.

Walter Johnson stated that he will contest the ownership of the $1900 which the Kersh woman says Johnson gave to her on the day of the murder.

PUBLIC CORDIALLY INVITED.

Fraternity Friends of Groom Circulate Wedding Invites on Bills and Draw Mob.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA (Wash.) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Because college fraternity friends of Bert N. Hansen distributed hand bills inviting the public to Mr. Hansen's wedding last night with Miss Margaret Hickey, the bride's home on South Junett street was surrounded by an unruly mob of the "hoi polloi." The hand bills had announced that free lunch would be distributed.

It required a concerted rush of Sigma Alpha Epsilon friends, attired in evening clothes, to disperse the crowd. Hansen and his bride took the joke good-naturedly, intimating that they will have their fun when some of their engaged college friends get married later in the year.

WIRELESS STATION PASSES.

Walla Walla Operator Gets Instructions by Mail to Dismantle Plant There—Doesn't Pay.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

TACOMA (Wash.) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A Walla Walla telegram says that instructions to pack up and ship all the outfit, except the house and mast, were received there this morning by Operator Titus of the United Wireless Company. Thus passes the Walla Walla wireless station. The instructions, by the way, came by mail, not via wireless.

Few messages have been sent out by this station and the reason given for discontinuance is that the station did not pay. Several other stations in the Northwest have winked out, including Spokane, North Yakima, Wenatchee, Eugene, and Salem.

The station at the Dalles is to be dismantled in short time, according to the Walla Walla dispatches.

DECISION IN BOND CASE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

AUSTIN (Tex.) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After hearing arguments of several days on demurrers in the case of the Crocker estate of San Francisco and Thomas Hubbard of New York against the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway, a Southern Pacific property, for a foreclosure on second mortgage bonds of the road, for the alleged non-payment of interest, Federal Judge T. S. Maxey yesterday sustained the general demurrer of the defense to the amended bill of complaint of the plaintiffs.

He gave the plaintiffs until August 1 to further amend, and, should they not do so by that time, the case stands dismissed. It was sought in the case to make the Southern Pacific liable on these old bonds of the San Antonio-El Paso division of the road, and by its action today the Federal court upholds the railroad company. About $3,000,000 in bonds and interest was involved in the case.

Contracts for building various other buildings to comprise the Western Pacific shops will be let in order as fast as plans, which are now being drawn, are completed.

The tract of land donated by the city to the Western Pacific for its shops is 1000 feet by 4000 feet.

YUBA CITY, June 24.—Sutter county is a dry territory, but it is reported the County Supervisors propose to disregard the mandate which excludes saloons from the county and grant a license to the men who are planning upon the erection of a new hotel in this city. TTLE HOPE FOR RIVER AID.

ernational Importance of Colorado Chief Pillar.

nmittee Thinks Valley Folk Should Aid.

ifornia Members Face a Hard Proposition.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ASHINGTON, June 24.—[Exclusive patch.] Prospect for getting an ap riation from Congress to meet con ons arising from the Colorado River ing its banks, is very poor, and ing is likely to be done at this ses . Senator Flint has received very encouragement that the Appro tions Committee will make any re on it. He says the end of the ion is so near at hand that action he matter is unlikely.

ongressman Smith was unable to any hearing today before the entire mittee on Appropriations in the se, but he discussed the matter several members of the commit and they intimated that they ght it desirable to have fuller in mation on the subject before taking on.

enator Flint says that there seems be a feeling among the Senators there should be some coöperation the part of the people in the Im ial Valley.

they would get together, he says, submit a proposition to meet part he expense, as in the case of Sac nto River improvements, Congress ght then act. He says that some of Senators have expressed the opin that the government is under no igation in this case. They do not k it is a thing for which help can demanded as a right.

n the House there seems to be an ression that the only reason why gress should act, if at all, is because obligations arising out of the inter ional character of the Colorado er. While both Flint and Smith working for action, they both ad that they have little hope of secur any.

THE "DEMON RIVER."

ILLY CANARD DISPOSED OF.

L. HOLABIRD'S STATEMENT AS TO IMPERIAL VALLEY.

fficers of California-Mexico Land nd Cattle Company and Colorado iver Land Company Stamp on icious [illegible] Foolish Falsehood. hat Is Needed to Insure Safety.

ol. W. H. Holabird, receiver of the lifornia Development Company made statement in this city yesterday, re rding the threatened calamity in Im rial Valley, where the "Demon Riv " is again on a rampage.

His statement effectually sets forth plain conditions and dangers. He o disposes of a vicious and foolish wspaper canard regarding an al ed conspiracy on the part of the lifornia-Mexico Land and Cattle mpany to manufacture a drought, to end of accomplishing the purchase the California Development Com ny.

A statement as to this canard, circu ed for purposes unknown, was also ued by the officers of the California- xico Land and Cattle Company and Colorado River Land Company. e latter statement was in response an inquiry from the editor of the perial Valley Press, and was as fol ws:

"All reports from whatever source t California-Mexico Land and Cat Company is seeking either the pur ase or control of California Devel ment Company or of its Mexican mpany are without foundation. We peat, would not take properties as t with accompanying responsibili s in face of existing flood menace. here is and has been no movement, ther secret or open, in the direction acquirement by us. No conspiracy any sort exists. This company not sponsible for either droughts or ods; not trying to enrich its owners the calamity process or to impover h settlers in any way. Not respon ble for impending danger, but threat ed by it also and would be greatest ngle sufferer from it. Charges circu ted are false, vicious and unspeak ly foolish. We are supporting pend legislation to relieve Imperial set rs, who should not be deceived by ablished falsehoods and folly.

"CALIFORNIA-MEXICO LAND ND CATTLE COMPANY, by Harry andler, president."

"The above statement is fully con rred in.

INTERVIEW WITH HOLABIRD.

Col. Holabird, when seen by a Times porter yesterday regarding the dan rs of flood and slander that threat the Imperial Valley, said:

"I am the cause of the present agi ion regarding the water supply in perial Valley.

"I deemed it wise and proper to l the Imperial water companies that e grade of the river was such as to use the scouring of the channel to dangerous depth, and the time to ild the levee was between now and t spring.

"I also told the water companies t the intake canal at our heading eded prompt dredging, and that I eded at least $35,000 to do this rk."

Col. Holabird was asked what ac n, if any, has been taken toward paring for and meeting this crisis.

"I have ordered a dredge machine ich will be in action the first week July, and I confidently expect to n out the intake canal before the nning of the low water season, the floor of the river becomes w that the surface of the water wer than our heading.

"What is the present condition?" the reporter.

e present the floor of the river is feet lower than the sill of our . When the heading was built was several feet below the the river, showing the need of tion in turning the river to

Heading and the Mexican company had been sold to the California-Mexico Land and Cattle Company, or to any one else for that matter, it's false, and a more malicious lie could hardly have been invented than the story told by the Standard.

"As receiver, I voted the stock of the Mexican company at the recent annual election. That corporation could not be sold without my knowledge, and to my knowledge it never has been sold.

"As to the Heading, a fool should know better."

Col. Holabird then added:

"I am expecting the court will sustain me in the purchase of a dredger, as I felt it to be dangerous to delay until the court ordered.

"As to delivery of water, I have delivered more water with less friction than ever before in the history of the company, excepting a short period last spring, when the low river channel and a sand bar interfered with our intake.

"What is needed now is calm but concentrated effort to induce the United States government to do its duty. Sensational stories, wicked lies, do injury rather than help accomplish this.

"I expect to send a surveying party out at once to survey the needed levee and closing of Bee River. If the people will aid the receiver by concert of action they will not depreciate the value of their lands and they will have all the water they need for this year's crop."

In reply to a final question, Col. Holabird vigorously asserted that the Southern Pacific company has made no attempt to dictate to him as receiver, in any way. He alone is in control, subject to the court's order.

"If this situation is dealt with promptly and with hearty concentrated action, it may come out all right.

"If this thing is allowed to drag until next spring, God knows what will be the fate of the valley."

FOREST BILL UP.

WILL PROBABLY NOT PASS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The conflict over the Appalachian and White Mountain Forest Reservation Bill was resumed today in the Senate. The feeling prevailed that its chances for passage at this session were slight, but it apparently was the intention to keep it before the Senate to serve as a "stop gap" for objectionable legislation. Included in the ranks of those objecting to the passage of the bill were Messrs. Burton, Bailey, Hughes, Clay and Paynter. Senator Newlands originally was included in the list, but he had been won over to the measure by a promise to accept as an amendment his "coöperation and coördination" amendment.

FOREST FIRE BEYOND CONTROL.

Flames in Ontario Destroy Millions of Dollars' Worth of Timber and Property.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ST. PAUL (Minn.) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Fort Williams, Ont. timber berth, forty-one miles in extent, owned by F. Weyochauser Company of St. Paul, has been totally destroyed by flames which have passed almost beyond control between Atinokan and Ft. Francis, along the border.

The loss is placed at more than a million and a half. Forest fires swept the adjoining property owned by the J. D. McArthur people, burning the camp and mills and many miles of lumber and their loss will be even greater than that of Weyochauser. Despite the fact that hundreds of men have battled the flames for hours, the strong wind has carried the fire further into the forest country.

Both companies employ in the neighborhood of 600 men. The fire is in a strip about fifteen miles wide.

He will sail on Saturday on the Campania for Switzerland, and plans to put in a few weeks climbing the Alps as soon as his period of convalescence is over.

SIXTY-FIRST CONGRESS.

DIFFERENCES RECONCILED.

House Conferees Win Way for Provision.

Concession Modified at Suggestion of President.

Certificates to Complete Irrigation Projects.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The House conferees today won their fight for the House provision in the bill authorizing the issuance of $20,000,000 in certificates of indebtedness for the completion of existing reclamation projects, on which it is proposed to spend the money as raised.

They made the concession, however, that the provision be modified so that the power of approving projects rest upon the President alone.

The House provision would have required the approval of the army engineers.

The Senate opposed turning over to army engineers the work of examining and approving projects, on the ground that many of the projects had been developed to a point where they must be continued according to the original plans, or all of the money already invested would be lost.

An effort to reconcile the differences was made at the White House today, when the President had the conferees to luncheon. He proposed that the question of having the projects examined by the army engineers be left to the discretion of the Executive and the Senate conferees were willing to accept this suggestion.

The matter was not settled, however, until after another conference at the Capitol, and the agreement resulted only after still further concessions by the Senate conferees.

After considerable debate, the Senate accepted the conference report.

FORTUNE GOES WITH HUSBAND.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

MILWAUKEE, June 24.—That she gets $100,000 if she wins a husband, and only the income from that amount if she remains a spinster, is the odd provision for Miss Alma Nauman, formerly of Milwaukee, in the $500,000 will of Mrs. Henrietta Friend, who died recently in Germany. The first trace was found in the records of the municipal court, which showed that he was sentenced on May 28 to serve sixty days for disorderly conduct. Mayor Busse will be asked to pardon the prisoner, whose health has been restored and who was much elated at the news of the radical change in his fortune.

BRIBERY CASE GOES TO JURY.

LATE LAST NIGHT NO VERDICT HAD BEEN REACHED.

In Lee O'Neil Browne Trial Judge Instructs That, to Find Guilty, Jury Must Be Certain Beyond Reasonable Doubt White Received Pay in Chicago for Vote for Lorimer.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, June 24.—It has been many years since an Illinois jury has been called upon to consider a verdict of greater political importance than the one which, this afternoon, retired to consider the charge of bribery against Lee O'Neil Browne, leader of the Democratic minority of the Illinois House of Representatives.

In instructing the jury Judge McSurely said the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice might be considered, but it should be received with great caution.

Should the jury believe that any of the State's witnesses testified because of promises of immunity from prosecution, this should enter into the consideration of the case.

To find Browne guilty, the court said, the evidence must establish, beyond a reasonable doubt, that on July 16, 1909, Browne gave Representative White, in the Briggs House in Chicago, the sum of $850 in consideration of having voted for William Lorimer, pursuant to a corrupt agreement.

States Attorney Wayman occupied the greater part of the day in making the closing argument for the State.

Receiving no report from the jury of a probable verdict tonight, Judge McSurely, at 10 o'clock, left for his home after issuing instructions that the verdict, if reached, shall be sealed and returned in court tomorrow morning.

NEW YORK, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] It became known today that the M. Raoul Pellisser who obtained a marriage license at the City Hall yesterday and was married a few minutes later, is a well-known artist, descendant of a famous French family, and that he awaited only a decree of divorce to wed a second time.

His bride is Edna Dillenbeck Ganong of No. 423 West Twentieth street. She is 28 years old and was born in Brooklyn. Pellisser divorced his first wife in Philadelphia, charging desertion.

Dispatches from Philadelphia today state that Pellisser's family is one of the best known in France, that it is prominent socially, and that the artist's father was at one time the French Ambassador to England and was a Marshal in the Crimean War.

BOW-WOW CLEW.

DOG AND CAT BETRAY HIM.

BRISCOE'S ARREST DUE TO HIS LITTLE MENAGERIE.

Man Wanted on Charge of Obtaining Money by False Pretenses Makes Mistake of Taking His Domestic Animals on Journey East to His Sorrow.

Walter F. Briscoe, who is in custody in Rochester, N. Y., on charges of having obtained money under false pretenses in this city, can trace his arrest to the fondness of himself and his wife for their dog and Angora cat.

When the Briscoe family decided that their health would be better in an eastern climate, they felt loath to leave their pets behind. The animals were put in cages and transferred to an automobile. With their master and mistress they proceeded to Pomona. From that point the dog and cat were shipped and Mr. and Mrs. Briscoe took a passenger train.

Persons who alleged that they had been duped by Briscoe made complaint on Tuesday. As soon as the warrant was given to Under-Sheriff Brain he sent descriptions of the fugitives throughout the county. He also mentioned the fact that Briscoe had taken his wife, dog and cat with him.

Constable F. O. Slanker of Pomona, receiving the descriptions, began to make inquiries. The first clew he found was that a dog and cat had been shipped on Friday by a man and woman to F. C. Lord, Rochester, N. Y. Following this bit of information, he connected up the Briscoes. He learned that Lord was the maiden name of Mrs. Briscoe, also that the couple had bought tickets, under the names of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Blake.

The constable communicated with the Sheriff's office and Brain wired Chief of Police J. M. Quigley of Rochester. The tip proved a good one and word was received Thursday night that the arrest had been made.

Deputy Sheriff Walter Lips will leave for the East to bring back Briscoe as soon as requisition papers can be obtained: Chief Quigley telegraphed Sheriff Hammel that the prisoner had told him he would make a fight against being brought away from Rochester.

STORY OF CASH LOAN IS POSER.

Bankrupt's Wife Seeks Asset Pro Rata.

Loaned from Dot She Wore to New Home.

Affinity in Sequel Mate Adds Is Climax.

Declaring that she traveled across the western half of the continent in a tourist sleeper with $10,000 worn as a sort of lingerie underwaist, pretty Mrs. H. C. Wurlitzer, wife of a bankrupt butcher, created a sensation in the office of the referee in bankruptcy late yesterday afternoon. She was trying to prove that she loaned her husband $9500 since they were married, and therefore is entitled to a share in the distribution of his estate.

The hearing was suspended in order to give other creditors time to recover their breath, which was nearly taken away when the young wife made her astonishing declaration. An effort will be made to ascertain the truth or falsity of Mrs. Wurlitzer's statement. As the butcher shop and fixtures have a cash value of $6000 or more, if her claim is allowed, the wife will get something like $2500 as her share.

The little German woman narrated her story with charming naivette. She said she lived in Cincinnati, with her parents and brothers and sisters. She had been engaged to marry Wurlitzer for some time. He left home to try his fortune in California. After a long time he wrote for her to come to Los Angeles to be married.

SUM WAS WEDDING PRESENT.

"A week or ten days before I left home, my grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Hartlieb, sent for me," said Mrs. Wurlitzer, in the course of her examination before Referee Helm. "She told me she intended to make me the same wedding present she did my married sister. She went to her bedroom and pulled out a lot of money. It was in the feather bed, I had seen the money in the tick about six years before that. I counted it with her. There was $8000 in bills and $2000 in gold."

Mrs. Wurlitzer then described how she and her grandmother fashioned dainty muslin bags in which to place the money, and how she strapped the bags to her person. "I sewed the gold across my breast," she said, "and fastened the paper money about my waist. I kept the money on me until I got to my new home in Los Angeles. My father and mother knew about the present."

STORY IS UNSHAKEN.

Despite exhaustive cross-examination by Attorney W. T. Craig, who represented the trustee in bankruptcy, the witness stuck to her story. She said she came here in a tourist sleeping car and did not disrobe on the train. When she reached her Los Angeles home she said she concealed the money in a mattress.

"I didn't tell my husband about the money," she continued. "He came to me in July or August, 1909, and said he needed some money. He was surprised to know that I could help him. I gave him $2000 in gold first. In September he asked me for more money. I gave him $2000 in paper money. He asked me where I kept it and I told him it was in the bed. He never went to the bed to look for any more."

With the utmost coolness the witness told how she went back to her hoard time after time until hed had almost exhausted her wedding gift. She declared she loaned her husband $9500 in all.

Wurlitzer testified that he had borrowed the various amounts from his wife as she had stated. But there was a discrepancy between the two statements. He said he told her he needed the money for his business. He said that he used $4000 to bribe Miss Mamie Henderson.

His story was in a way just as remarkable as that told by his wife. He said he used the first $2000 to pay a note held by his brother. The next dip into his wife's mattress was to pay his partner, he declared. He said $1000 was used for satisfying small creditors.

In accounting for the disappearance of the remaining $4000, he said that he had the misfortune to meet Miss Henderson at the Bristol. He was somewhat smitten with her charms and confessed that he went further than he ought to.

With many blushes the honest-looking young German said he met Miss Henderson several times after that at the Imperial and other downtown cafés.

The time he passed her the lump sum of $4000 in greenbacks was after leaving the Bristol one evening, he testified. "I was afraid she would tell my wife," he said. "I never dared to tell my wife what I did with that money. The girl went East. I have never heard from her since."

According to a dispatch from Cincinnati, a Mrs. Margaret Hartlieb, who formerly lived at Freeman and Carey avenue, was taken to an insane asylum. She received a small pension from the government, but was not supposed to be in affluent circumstances.

LAWYERS ARE PUZZLED.

The father and mother admitted that they heard that Mrs. Wurlitzer's grandmother had given her a wedding present of money, but they stated they did not know the amount. Both seemed surprised to learn that their daughter said she had gotten $10,000.

Wurlitzer opened a fine butcher shop on South Main street, near Ninth. It did a daily cash business of approximately $300. The man's credit was good and the wholesale houses gave him all the meat he wanted.

He suddenly filed a voluntary bankruptcy petition in the United States District Court. His stated liabilities were $19,500, of which $9500 was represented by the claim of his wife. His books do not show any transaction of this nature.

Both husband and wife make a good appearance on the witness stand. They seem nice young Germans, neat in personal appearance and perfectly frank in telling their stories.

The case has proved one of the greatest puzzles that has come before the learned referee for some time. Even the somewhat cynical counsel for the Wholesalers' Board of Trade is staggered by the unusual combination of circumstances. Naturally the creditors would like to see the claim which represents a large part of the estate, disallowed. There will be another hearing June 30. The Wurlitzers want to return East. They say they are without resources unless the court allows the claim.

whole matter, in the course of which he might make the disclosures.

It is known Mr. Gore mentioned to some of his colleagues the names of persons involved in his charges, but said he did not care to have them appear in debate for the reason that they should be brought out in a Congressional inquiry.

The bill was then returned to conference.

Mr. Gore had prepared a resolution providing for an investigation, but withheld it on assurance being given by Mr. Hale that the interests of the Indians would be properly safeguarded.

LAWYERS' BIG SLICE.

It was brought out in the speech by Representative Murphy that the McMurray firm would receive 10 per cent. of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws under terms of their contracts with the Indians in the event these contracts were approved.

According to Representative Madden of Illinois, and Carter of Oklahoma, there are 450,000 acres of coal lands in Oklahoma worth $160,000,000, of which the attorneys would get $16,000,000 under the existing contracts. Mr. Carter said a similar contract had been disapproved by President Roosevelt and that now "they had come to President Taft and he and the Secretary of the Interior had refused to approve it."

"This is one of the biggest steals ever attempted to be put through Congress," said Mr. Murphy.

NAMES TWO MEN.

After naming Mr. McMurray as the man who had been trying to put the alleged scheme through he said McMurray had been ably assisted by Cecil Lyon.

"These gentlemen," continued Mr. Murphy, "have traveled over the Indian Territory and procured contracts from the individual Indians. You are giving to these men who are holding these contracts from $3,000,000 to $16,000,000 and presumably more, and they have done nothing for it that is worth a single dollar."

Mr. Gore contends the conference provision is "ten thousand times worse" than existing laws which require the approval of tribal contracts by the President and the Secretary of the Interior, but gives them no authority over individual contracts.

Mr. Murphy, who was once an attorney for the Creek Indians, tonight figured at $20,860,000 the ultimate amount that would accrue to McMurray and those associated with him, under the 10 per cent. contract. This, said Mr. Murphy, is under the Geological Survey estimate and is exclusive of the percentage they would get from the lands reserved from allotment.

MILLIONS OFFERED FOR INDIAN LANDS.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

McALESTER (Okla.) June 24.—The firm of McMurray, Mansfield & Cornish, of which J. F. McMurray was a member, was dissolved about a year ago. Since that time Mr. McMurray has devoted himself largely to Indian law practice. He was a candidate for Delegate to the last Republican National Convention, but was defeated in the State convention.

During the Constitutional Convention a commission was appointed by W. H. Murray, president of the convention, with authority to purchase the segregated coal lands by the State. The hearing was continued several times, and at that time there were informal offers of $10,000,000 for the lands.

About a year ago the Choctaw Council, presided over by Green McCurtain, chief of the Choctaws, adopted a resolution offering to sell the tribal property, which consisted in part of the coal lands, to the government for $60,000,000.

Melvin Cornish, former partner of McMurray, is in Manitou, Colo., and George Mansfield, another member of the old firm, is in Rogers, Ark.

M'MURRAY DECLARES CHARGES ARE FALSE.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—J. F. McMurray of Oklahoma, declared here tonight that the charges made in the Senate yesterday by Senator Gore, reflecting upon him in connection with his work in the Choctaw and Chickasaw land and townsite cases, were absolutely false.

OHNSON ON BATTLEFIELD.

g Black Appears as Happy as a Child.

orgets All Care and Sorrow in a Week's Time.

oming Fight Will Probably Be His Last One.

BY JACK LONDON.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

RENO, June 24.—[Exclusive Dis itch.] Bag and baggage, bull pup, ss viols and phonograph, Jack John n stepped off the train at Reno today be greeted by fully as large a crowd met Jeff when he arrived. Whirled ay in an automobile to Rick's re rt he appeared unperturbed and ppy despite the fact that his train s three hours late and that it was a iday. His voice was just as jovial, handshake as hearty, his smile as zzling as when I last saw him in ustralia.

Commenting on the fact he an unced that he was feeling much tter and stronger than a year and a f ago in the Antipodes. In shirt eves, his shoulder muscles and bi ps bulge knottily like Jeffries. He, o, is every inch a big man, but they e vastly different types of men. Un r all his large garniture of fighting rength, Johnson is happy-go-lucky temperament, as light and care free a child. He is easily amused. He ves more in the moment and joy and rrow are swift passing moods with m. He is not capable of seriously djusting his action to remote ends. Though fresh arrived from an irri ting railroad journey fraught by xations delays, his face was placid d lineless. Nor was there the hint a sign of care and worry such as uld be expected from his disagree ents with his manager, from the rupt shift of training quarters at e eleventh hour and from joy rides terrupted by rude police. This uality, differing so widely in the two en, cannot be over-emphasized if one to get an adequate comprehension the fight when it takes place. They y that Johnson cannot hold a grudge. he man who does him a real or ncied injury today is received heart by him a week hence and this is because a moment of life at a time good enough for him. He cannot old on to more than the moment, be a moment of fierce hate or joyful iendship.

HOW THEY AFFECT ONE.

Possibly a good conception of this ifference between the two men may gained from my own feelings about em. If Johnson should rush upon me anger and with full intent to do e bodily injury I feel that all I ould have to do would be to smile d hold out my hand, whereupon his and would grip mine and he, too, would mile. On the contrary I am certain, Jeff rushed at me in wrath, that if did not die of fright there and then should bite my veins and howl in aniacal terror.

The illustration may seem far etched, but it is just the way I feel nd it serves to show the essential dif rence in the characters of the men. eff is a fighter, Johnson is a boxer. eff is more primitive, more ferocious, ore terror-inspiring. He has the tem erament of a fighter. Old Mother Na ure in him is still red of fang and law. He is more a Germanic tribes an and warrior of 2000 years ago than civilized man of the twentieth cen ry with the civilized trade of boiler aker, and he has bridged the gap by rning pugilist and becoming the ightiest walloper of men in all the rld.

Another thing, despite Jeff's primi iveness, he is more disciplined than he other man, vastly more disciplined, as instance the rigid adjustment of ction to a remote end when he began year and a half ago and faithfully arried through the heroic course of raining that put him in the superb ondition he is in today. Johnson, mas tered by the moment could make no uch an adjustment. He would forget ll about that remote end a year and half away. The passing moments would tantalize him into pursuit of im mediate and momentary ends.

JOHNSON'S LAST FIGHT.

It is safe to predict that if Johnson, at his present age, leaves the ring for two years, he can never possibly come back again. And by the same token, down in the heart of him, this fight does not mean to Johnson what it does to Jeff. If Johnson loses the fight, he won't be worried much. If Jeff loses it it will almost break his heart. Under that dark and somber seriousness that characterizes him there is a race pride of which he is intensely self-conscious. Then, too, there is the pride in himself as a man and as a subduer of men.

Leaving out the world he has pledged himself to win this fight, and that pledge he voiced to the world, when, after stating that he was re fraining from agreeing to fight John son until he could make certain that he was able to defeat him, he an nounced his certitude and signed the articles. Of one thing I am certain, the loss of any half dozen of his other fights would be less of a blow to Jeff than the loss of this coming fight with Johnson.

Jeffries's erratic selection of times for training and sparring is the de pair of the fight fans and newspaper cribes. The whisper passes around that he is going to do things about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Long ere the ime the electric cars running to his quarters are packed and jammed and nothing happens. The rumor spreads that Jeff will be out and hard at it at peep of day. The first cars out to Moana Springs are crowded, and even before the first car runs a string of automobiles has sneaked in the same direction.

The hours pass. Nothing happens. Everybody waits until at last, weary and hungry, the return is made to own for something to eat, and lo! it rns out that that particular portion the day was selected by Jeff for rk. But no one can blame him. It his fight and his training, not their's, he knows what he wants and en he wants it a whole lot better they do, and right here is the difference between the white champion the black is manifested again. hnson is more willing to please the [illegible] Jeff does not care a red cent [illegible] public. The fight is a week [illegible] Jeff remembers that, and tantalizing and immediate moment, and Johnson succumbs.

Incorrect Entry List Beats Los Angeles Country Club Out of Golf Trophy.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

WASHINGTON, June 24.—By the disqualifications of the Los Angeles Country Club announced here today, the Tom Morris memorial trophy goes to the Oakmont club of Pittsburgh. This statement was made by Charles F. Willard, secretary of the Western Golf Association.

Los Angeles turned in the lowest score, but was disqualified because the name of A. H. Braly, who played on its team, was not included in the final entry sent in by President Frank Griffith. The disqualification came after an unanimous mail vote by the directors of the Western Golf Association.

NORTHERN SPORTS READY.

SIX TRAINS ENGAGED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Six special trains of five cars each will leave this city for Reno, Nev., two days before the Jeffries-Johnson fight in that city, and besides there will be many special cars attached to the regular trains, the exact number of which is not known at this time. This announcement was made by the officials of the Southern Pacific today.

According to orders on hand at this point, there will be one special train from Salt Lake, one from Denver, one from Birmingham and one from New Orleans. Two special cars will leave St. Louis with passengers for the fight, and one will start from Ogden. It is expected that Chicago will send two special trains.

Nearly all of the specials have San Francisco as their objective point.

HOODOO MAN AFTER JACK.

PECULIAR OCCURRENCES ON TRIP

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

RENO (Nev.) June 24.—If Jack Johnson is a superstitious negro he may regard with apprehension certain peculiar facts connected with his arrival in Reno today.

When Jack left San Francisco last night it was an undertaker who said the final words to the champion to speed him on his way. "Twenty-three" was the date of his departure. Early this morning in the snowsheds near Truckee, Jack's train was delayed by a freight car's derailment in "tunnel 13," and when the champion and his party finally detrained here it was just thirteen minutes past 1 o'clock, three hours after 10 a.m., the hour scheduled for his arrival and which figures another "13." To round out this "noodoo" combination he settled down in his training quarters here on a Friday.

Johnson did not follow out his plan to begin training operations this afternoon and in view of sinister "dope" that was discussed on all sides, no one blamed him.

Out at Jeffries's camp Bob Armstrong opined that the "charm" hanging over the champion was complete and that if he moved around freely he would be sure to step on and demolish the collapsible chicken coops brought up for Johnson from San Francisco.

Reno gave the negro a hearty reception. There was a big crowd at the station and no one had anything but the friendliest greetings for the giant who is to defend his title against the former champion.

No time was lost by Tom Flanagan in whisking Johnson and his party to the camp prepared for him at a roadhouse three miles southwest of this city. Jack, after a hasty glance around, said he was well pleased and complimented Flanagan on his choice of the location.

LITTLE A DEAD ONE.

One of the first statements given out by Johnson following his arrival was a denial of the report that he had reappointed George Little as his manager.

"Flanagan," he said, "is the man who is looking after my business interests and he will continue to do so until after the fight. There has been no change in my relations with Little and I want to emphasize the fact I've completely severed all connection with him."

Asked regarding the settlement he was reported to have made with Little, Johnson produced a legal document dated June 22, which he said was an agreement drawn up between himself and Little, whereby Johnson promises to pay Little the sum of $16,500 to secure a release from Little of all claims the deposed manager may have against the champion.

One of the stipulations made in the agreement is that Johnson is to turn over to Little a diamond brooch valued at $2000, upon Little's payment to him of "an additional $1000."

Al Kaufman accompanied Johnson to Reno, and will continue to act as his chief sparring partner.

A boxing platform has been put up near the camp, and the champion is expected to use it tomorrow. He lounged about his quarters all afternoon, chatting with numerous visitors and supervising the unpacking of his baggage and training paraphernalia.

Jim Jeffries topped off a hard day's work with a road run late this afternoon. He donned the boxing gloves for the first time here this morning, but scarcely struck a blow in the five rounds sparred with Bob Armstrong and his brother Jack, as fast footwork on the slippery floor of the outdoor platform was thought dangerous. In the final round with Jack Jeffries he invited him to swing to the jaw just as hard as he could. The big fellow protruded his chin, and Jack tried two lusty right swings, both of which bounced off Jeffries's face without having the slightest effect. On the third try, Jeffries ducked, and the punch landed over his left eye, which member is likely to be a trifle discolored tomorrow.

JEFF FOOLS CROWD.

A crowd of almost 1000 persons gathered at the camp in the afternoon hoping to see more boxing, but Jeffries decided on a road jaunt. He went about six miles in a broiling hot sun, walking briskly when not indulging in short sprints at top speed.

Jeffries received news today of his automobile, which is being brought up from San Francisco. On account of an outdoor ring, which will be constructed immediately.

In view of continued talk of possible interference by the State authorities, Promoter Rickard has been much reassured by the receipt from Ely of the following telegram late today from Governor Dickerson:

"Prize fights are licensed under the laws of this State. My duties are to enforce laws, not to make them. There will be no interference from the Governor's office if the requirements of the law are complied with. This decision is irrevocable. You may use this telegram as you see fit.

[Signed] D. S. DICKERSON, Lieutenant and acting governor of Nevada."

Little work was done on the arena today other than hauling lumber to the site and digging postholes. Rickard apparently is not greatly concerned over the lack of progress made in that direction. He is resting on the assurance of his contractor, that if necessary, the arena can be erected in four days.

It is reported that John L. Sullivan will make another call at Jeffries' Camp tomorrow as a result of efforts now making to bring the two famous fighters together.

William Muldoon, at one time Sullivan's trainer and who has come to Reno to see the big fight, had a long talk with Jeffries today, following which he stated Jeffries was not entirely in sympathy with the rebuff of Sullivan received from Corbett at Moana Springs yesterday. According to Muldoon, Jeff will accord John L. a friendly reception if the veteran calls again.

ROPED IN.

ATTELL AHEAD BY LONG LEAD.

SO FIGHTER IS SAVED FROM A DRAW WITH MORAN.

Straight Boxing and Clean Hitting at Naud Junction Last Night and the Fans Seemed to Like It—Trace of Bad Blood Between Englishman and Hebrew.

Abe Attell beat Owen Moran, ten rounds, close decision.

Frankie Sullivan beat Jeff O'Connell, six rounds, snappy battle.

Young McGovern stopped Berryl Hatton, second round.

Battling Chico beat Jimmy Austin, six rounds, boxing only.

It was straight boxing, and clean hitting at Naud Junction last night, and the fans seemed to like it. At any event it was a far better exhibition than has been put up by Uncle Tom's bean eaters for some time.

There is no doubt of one thing. The District Attorney can have little to say in regard to the class of contests staged last night.

As for the men themselves, and their performances, Abe Attell is still the cleverest man in the ring today. With Moran he has a foeman worthy of his glove, and, but for the long lead that he obtained in the early rounds of the fight, would have been forced to content himself with, at least, a draw.

There has been a trace—of course, just a trace—of bad blood between the men for some time. An Englishman and a Hebrew, somehow, get on each others nerves, and stay there.

In the battle last night trouble started in the fourth round, and Eyton was talking to the men as the gong sounded. In the eighth Moran slipped to the floor, and Attell started to help him up. Moran pushed away the gloves and swung for Attell's jaw as he came to his feet, but the shifty champion was not in that immediate neighborhood when the blow arrived.

With the exception of the little family trouble between the two boys the bout was one of the fastest and cleverest ever seen in the Naud Junction ring, and, on Attell's part, comes close to the performance on that Fourth of July afternoon long ago, when Abe and Frankie Neil met in the same ring.

In the first round Attell showed his cleverness and at the tap of the gong retired to his corner without having his hair mussed. The second and third rounds were about even, with little damage done on either side, but with Attell's whips touching up the Irish in Moran's name.

The fourth round was Attell's, and it was here that Moran began to show his temper. Attell's blows were full of steam and ginger, and in the fifth period he showed no let up to the stinging blows that continually peppered the Englishman's nose and cheekbone.

In the sixth, Moran took the honors and whipped one over to Attell's jaw that worried Abe more than he cared to show. The Englishman grinned until Attell walked into him, and the gong sounded with the men waiting at the ropes and Eyton cautioning Moran against letting his temper get away with him.

The seventh and eighth were Attell's periods, but with little damage done.

In the ninth and tenth Moran began to pick up speed. He butted a bit and otherwise misbehaved himself, and was roundly booed at the end of the period. Throughout the round he let Abe have fully as much as he took himself. His blows were mostly swings, and Abe covered well.

In the tenth, Moran found an opening or two and made good use of them.

There was no damage done to either lad during the mixup and Attell's decision was earned wholly on points. The boys should go to Nevada and be given a complete workout over the long route.

The Sullivan-O'Connell go was the best bout on the card, from the standpoint of the fans, and Sullivan earned his decision by clean straight hitting. Be it said for O'Connell, however, that no gamer man has ever shied his castor through the ropes in McCarey's ring.

From the first Sullivan was the aggressor. He is the proud possessor of a good right hand and knows how to use it. His covering was the best part of his work, and O'Connell had a mighty hard time to find an opening in his crossed arms, for every one of Sullivan's blows left him completely protected.

In the second round O'Connell took some of the worst punishment that has been administered in a local ring, and, what is more, took it smiling. At one time he was back on the ropes apparently out, for he had been eating punishment, but he came back grinning, as if nothing had happened.

In the third round he put up a strong battle, but in the fourth was thrown back onto the ropes again. He simply stayed the round on nerve and the ability to stand up under sledge-hammer blows.

The fifth and sixth were fast, with both boys working nicely. Sullivan won by his clean hitting, even outside the two rounds in which O'Connell was almost out.

AT VENICE.

WINNIE MACE SHOWS CLASS.

Youthful Tennis Player Wins Set from McLoughlin.

Northerner Has to Work Hard to Take Match.

May Sutton to Play Today in Exhibition Contest.

Winnie Mace captured a set from Maurice McLoughlin of San Francisco in the best match of the afternoon, at the Venice Country Club tennis tournament yesterday. For the most part the day's play was rather commonplace, the different events being run off well toward the finals without any particularly noticeable reversals of form.

The showing made by Mace was a surprise. McLoughlin took the first set of the match without exertion, 6-1. Winnie then braced, and, by taking advantage of McLoughlin's slump, ran up four games to the northerner's two, and finally landed the set, 7-5. McLoughlin was wild, and seemed to be bothered by the bound of the balls on the hard courts. Mace made most of his winning points on pretty placing. In the third set Winnie ran three games to love before McLoughlin found himself; the San Franciscan then began to land his killing smashes inside the lines, and took six successive games for the set and match.

Other men's singles games showed nothing unusual. In the upper frame Long outclassed his opponents, and will meet Dawson in the semi-finals this morning. McLoughlin disposed of Bacon, John Holmes and Mace in order, and is to meet the winner of the Noble-Young match in the semi-finals.

MISS ALLEN DEFEATED.

In the ladies' singles Miss Alice Scott won from her most formidable opponent, Miss Allen, in straight sets, 6-2, 6-2, and should win the event today without serious opposition.

Only one match of the men's dubles so far played went to three sets—that in which J. Herrell and Kendall beat Weller and Lowry. McLoughlin and Long were easily the stars of the event, and are doped to win by a wide margin in straight sets today. Only three matches in the mixed doubles and two in the consolation singles were played.

The big matches of the tournament come today, on the fattest tennis card that has yet been offered for a single day's play in Southern California this season. Long and McLoughlin will meet in the finals of the men's singles this morning, and the winner is to play Tom Bundy for possession of the Montgomery cup this afternoon. May Sutton is scheduled to play against Winnie Mace in an exhibition match at 2 o'clock. Finals in all the other events are to be played off, if possible, before nightfall.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS.

Results of yesterday's play:

Men's singles—First round: Sheldon beat Dodge by default.

Second round: Johnson beat E. Barker, 6-1, 2-6, 6-4; Long beat Marshall, 6-1, 6-1; Dawson beat Kendall, 6-4, 6-4; W. Horrell beat Sheldon, 6-4, 9-7; John Holmes beat Lewis, 6-4, 6-2; Shook beat Stahl, 7-9, 6-1, 6-3; H. Rogers beat Timmerman, 6-2, 6-4. Noble beat J. Horrell, 6-3, 6-1.

Deposition of West Virginian Says Dead Kansas City Millionaire Wed in New Jersey.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

KANSAS CITY, June 24.—In a deposition supporting the claim of Elmer Swope of Martinsville, W. Va., to the estate of Thomas H. Swope, John C. Henry, an old soldier, formerly of New Jersey, said today that Col. Swope was known in his boyhood as Peter Moss Swope, and that he married in New Jersey or Pennsylvania about 1861.

Col. Swope's relatives here deny that he was ever married. He was known as a bachelor during his long residence here. Henry declared Col. Swope told him in 1879 of his marriage to a Miss Carroll. Henry said Col. Swope left his wife just before a son was born to them. Henry, who is 68 years old, said he was employed as a carpenter by Col. Swope in 1879, and that an intimate acquaintance developed between them because they were both soldiers in the Civil War.

TWIN CITIES AUTO RACES.

SPECTACULAR EVENTS ARE ARRANGED FOR TODAY.

Glenn Curtiss and Barney Oldfield to Star, the One in the Air and the Other on the Automobile Speedway. Records May Be Broken—Harreun Wins in Marmon.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ST. PAUL, June 24.—The third day of the Twin Cities automobile and aviation meet promises to be one of the most exciting.

Ben Keracher and Barney Oldfield will try to lower more track records, the latter going after the four-mile circular track record in his Benz car, which has broken two world's records since the present meet began. There will be a number of match races in addition to the speed trials.

Glenn H. Curtiss is anxious to try for new records in his aëroplane. Atmospheric conditions have been unfavorable for the last two days, but it is hoped he will be able to make a satisfactory flight tomorrow afternoon. Curtiss remained in the air for fifteen minutes yesterday.

Barney Oldfield, in his 200-horsepower Benz, again lowered the mile automobile record for a circular track at the Twin City aviation meet this afternoon. Oldfield drove the mile in 2-5 seconds better than his record of yesterday.

Oldfield will try to lower the four-mile record tomorrow afternoon.

Ray Harroun, in a Marmon, won the five-mile free-for-all handicap race, with Oldfield in a Knox, second. The time was 4:50 1-5.

A ten-mile match race between J. M. McLane, in a Buick stock car, and Ray Harroun, in a Marmon, was won, by the latter, time, 11:02 2-5.

Glen H. Curtiss made a fifteen-minute exhibition flight in his aëroplane. J. C. Mars, in attempting a flight in a Curtiss machine, ran into a fence and his machine was badly damaged.

Berry Signs Player.

Manager Henry Berry announced yesterday that he had bought Second Baseman Eddie Hallinan from the defunct Stockton State League team, and had ordered him to report at once. Berry would not say that he intended to displace any of his regular players, but thinks a good infielder can be used by the local team. Frank Chance was after Hallinan.

Hasty to Return.

Hap Hogan has recalled Hasty from the State League, and it is possible he may replace Brown. It is understood that Hogan is thinking of releasing one of his pitchers.

PERFECT SCORE LOST IN MIRE.

THREE POINTS CLIPPED FROM CHALMERS RECORD.

Bolger's Car Skids in the Mud and Fender Iron Is Broken—Cino and Glide Are Penalized and Dai Lewis Says That Glidden Is the Fiercest Ever.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WICHITA, June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Tonight there remains no perfect score in the glidden tour. Bill Bolger's Chalmers "3" skidded in some heavy mud which followed a shower and when the skid was over one of the fender irons was broken. Bolger loses three points for wiring up the broken member. But he still leads all of the cars in the hardest endurance contests in the history of automobiling.

Even Dai Lewis, who laid out the long grind and who has repeatedly denied that the test was over-severe, today acknowledged that nothing like the present Glidden tour was ever before held.

"The cars in this run have traversed roads never intended for any other locomotive means than mules or oxen. That so many cars are still on the course and making the runs each day more than anything else proves the triumph of American automobile building. More cars are still in the running than I ever expected would reach Dallas."

But two other cars besides Chalmers "3" suffered penalties during the 216-mile run from Oklahoma City to Wichita. The Cino "15" lost seven points for repairing a spring and the Glide "10" broke the rear axle and axle housing. No penalty has been announced on the last named car since it did not report in tonight.

The day's run was a decided improvement in the way of roads, the going being over a boulevard, as compared with the roads the Gliddenites had to traverse in the opening days of the run.

GOLF IN SCOTLAND.

Four-Time Title Holder Again Wins the Open Championship Played at St. Andrews.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

ST. ANDREWS (Scotland) June 24.—The open golf championship tournament was concluded today with a victory for James Braid, titleholder of 1901, 1905, 1906 and 1908. Braid's aggregate score in the four rounds was 299. Aleck Herd was second with a score of 303 and G. Duncan third with 304. D. J. Ross of Massachusetts and Willie Smith of Mexico were the only Trans-Atlantic competitors.

Both were well up at the finish, Ross having a score of 309.

Smith, who was the American open champion of 1899, broke the record of the links in the second round yesterday, scoring 71. This feat was duplicated by Duncan in the third round today. The half dozen amateurs competing were never prominent in the play.

TWO RECORDS SMASHED.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

NASHVILLE (Tenn.) June 24.—Two records for the Golf and Country Club course were smashed in the first flight matches of the invitation tournament at the club today, when Champion Charles E. Evans of Chicago lowered the course record from 75 to 71, making the first half in 39 and the second in 32. Heyburn of Louisville, in his match with Webb of this city reduced the first half record from 39 to 37.

WRONG COURSE.

YOUNG GENIUS IN JAIL CELL.

Sierra Madre Boy Plunges in Wild Finance.

Obtains Money on Check That Is Worthless.

Quick Arrest Prevents Flight to Chicago.

Fred B. Hatfield, the 21-year-old son of a Sierra Madre physician, took a wild flight into frenzied finance and spent money like a millionaire for a few hours, yesterday. He now occupies a cell at the County Jail with a felony charge hanging over him.

Fred B. Hatfield, who was arrested yesterday on the charge of forging the name of a Pasadena millionaire.

Forging the name of Albert S. Hoyt, a millionaire rubber manufacturer, who has a home in Pasadena, he is alleged to have procured the wherewithal to purchase clothing and jewelry fit for a dandy, and prepared to flee to Chicago.

He is given credit for having exhibited unusual cleverness in disposing of the check with the millionaire's name attached to it, but made the mistake of stopping in this city to outfit himself. His actions in a clothing store excited the suspicions of the proprietors, and they notified the Sheriff's office. Deputy Sheriff Wright made an investigation and found that the suspect was the young man for whom a warrant had been issued several hours before.

Hatfield is recognized as a mechanical genius and recently has not seemed to appreciate the fact that all methods of obtaining money are not honest. Even when questioned by the officers in the Sheriff's office last night, he did not seem to realize the gravity of the offense charged to him.

SKILLED IN WOODWORK.

The young man is a son of a highly respected physician of the foothill town. He has been employed in doing carpenter work, and has exhibited unusual skill. He has built several unusually fine cabinets, which were the envy of his associates who were more clumsy with the hammer, chisel and saw.

Several weeks ago he quit his regular employment and has engaged himself in doing fine pieces of work, which might be termed "puttering." While they are beautiful, they have no commercial value. In a short time he ran short of money.

Persons residing in the vicinity of his father's residence, which is near the Episcopal Church on Baldwin avenue, say that his home life was not as pleasant as it might have been, and that he did not seek funds from his family on that account.

He began to borrow money. An unusual feature is that he "touched" no one who could not afford to lose what was given him. In a short time he collected more than $150 under various pretexts. He said that he was going to Oregon to take a position; that he had a board bill to meet and that he had an invention which he wished to patent.

Shortly after the First National Bank of Sierra Madre opened yesterday, Hatfield entered the institution and presented a check for $450 drawn on the First National Bank of Pasadena. The name of Albert S. Hoyt was attached as the drawer. Hatfield deposited the instrument.

Cashier H. G. Flint immediately telephoned to the Pasadena bank and inquired as to the credit of Hoyt. He was told that the manufacturer's check was good for a large amount.

Hatfield is thought to have learned that Hoyt had a large amount of money on deposit at Pasadena and that the rubber man had gone to Japan, while Mrs. Hoyt for a time lived as a neighbor to his parents.

A short time later, the young man returned to the bank and presented a check for $275 which was drawn on his own account. Relying on the assurances as to Hoyt's financial condition, the instrument was honored and the carpenter was given the cash.

BOLTS FOR CAR.

Hatfield bolted for a car which was just leaving the village. As soon as he arrived in the city, he proceeded to "blow" himself. He bought several articles of jewelry, a trunk and a complete outfit for himself. In some places he gave checks on the Sierra Madre bank and in others he paid cash.

He made the largest purchase at the Harris & Frank store. He told the salesman that he would call for the articles. About half an hour later a messenger with a note from Hatfield entered the store and demanded the purchases. The note directed that the boy should be allowed to take the goods. This excited the suspicions of the clothiers and they telephoned to the Sheriff. The messenger was detained until Deputy Sheriff Wright could arrive to follow him. The boy delivered the bundles to Hatfield on Seventh street near Olive street. Wright then took the carpenter into custody.

As soon as the Hoyt check was received at the Sierra Madre bank it was sent to the Pasadena institution to clear. The latter officials pronounced it a forgery. Hatfield's check had already been cashed before this information was learned by the Sierra Madre bankers.

When Cashier Flint learned of the deception, he immediately came to this city and swore to a complaint charging Hatfield with forgery.

When taken in custody, Hatfield had about $140 with him. This amount will be kept as evidence against him and

FIRST FEMALE JURY.

Fire Causes Exodus of Males from Colorado Town and Judge Impanels Women.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.]

HAHN'S PEAK (Colo.) June 24.—What is believed to be the first jury of women that has ever sat in a court of record in the United States, was assembled in the county court Wednesday by Judge Morning to decide upon the sanity of Elizabeth Hutchinson. Hahn's Peak, the seat of Routt county, was almost wiped out by a recent fire, and when the Hutchinson case was called the court discovered there were not enough eligible men in the town to make up the necessary jury of six. He accordingly summoned for jury service Miss Maud Keller, Mrs. M. Q. Starr, Miss Mary Creswell, Miss Kate Pulley, Miss Emma McCormick and Mrs. Alice Ryan. They were duly sworn, heard the evidence, and brought in a verdict of insanity.

UNDELIVERED TELEGRAMS.

Undelivered messages are at the Western Union office, No. 605 South Spring street, for Mrs. Julia Easton, C. W. Eccleston, F. G. Mitchell, F. N. Baggs, C. Solomon, Jr., W. B. Gregory, Mrs. W. W. JURY FOR WOMAN.

In the Police Court yesterday Justice Frederickson gave a six-month suspended jail sentence to John Montgomery on a vagrancy charge. A woman who gave the name of Blanche Montgomery and posed as his wife, was also arraigned under the same charge, but she entered a plea of not guilty and demanded a jury trial, which was set for July 8.

"Mother uld better rest, during this [illegible] and that is the right way to look at it, too. Both Stella and Sterling won musical scholarships last year, the girl for the piano and the boy for the violin.

Hulda Larsen,

lytechnic High School girl, who nts a business scholarship.

Howard Collins of Pomona called yesterday and made the acquaintance of several of the old and the new, contestants. He made an extremely good impression and report says that he is backed for the contest by the best business men of the beautiful foothill city. Howard has had some business experience in his father's store in Kansas, whence the family came, about a year ago, and he has also been in a popular drug store in Pomona, for several months. It is young Collins's intention to continue to work in the store a part of each day, but he will find time to reach every part of the territory in his vicinity and will undoubtedly make a great canvass, as he is bright, business-like and energetic. Pomona is a city which is proud of the efforts of any of its citizens and will do all that is possible to "boost" for young Collins.

Chester Stevenson of 542 South Hill street came in the very first hour after the close of Los Angeles Military Academy, which he attends, and enrolled for the avowed purpose of trying to secure a scholarship in that institution. Chester has most perfect manners and an engaging address, and there is little fear that he will be able to approach favorably anyone whom he feels inclined to ask for assistance in the campaign. He already has the military bearing. He and his mother, Mrs. J. H. Lowe, have lived in Los Angeles about five years, having come here from Malden, Mass., a town so near to Boston that it would scarcely be poetic license to call Chester a Bostonian. He is fifteen, or will be, next month, and it is hoped that his birthday gift may be a "shower" of credits in the contest.

Hulda Larsen is a Polytechnic High School girl, who yesterday entered the contest. She is a B-10, and lives at No. 643 South Soto streee. Hulda is a Los Angeles "native daughter," having lived all her life on Boyle Heights. She attends the Boyle Heights Methodist Church. Her father, H. P. Larsen, is a carpenter, and is a member of the A.O.U.W. and the Fraternal Aid. Hulda's long suit at school is in the commercial department, where she is especially proficient in bookkeeping and penmanship. She wants a business scholarship; and she looks as though she might get what she wants. She does not say much, but is one of the kind, if we are good at guessing, who "pegs right along." She is fifteen.

Gladys E. Bagnall has musical talent, it is believed, and she wishes to attain a musical scholarship. She is a Native Daughter of the Golden West, also, having lived in Los Angeles all her life. About a year ago she fell from a swing and injured her spine, so that, although not an invalid, she is unable to work hard; and on this account her friends will make an especial effort in her behalf. She did not think it possible to compete; in fact, until her friends suggested that they would help. Sidney Grant and family, at 949 South Broadway, will receive coupons for Miss Gladys, and will do all in their power to help; and any who so desire may mail coupons or subscriptions to her or to The Times in her name. Her home is at the Alberton apartments, No. 1700 Griffith avenue. "Why," said Gladys, upon visiting headquarters and learning of the plans for meeting and for the fun along the way, during the contest, "I did not know there would be anything but dry business and hard work. I had not thought that we would all meet and enjoy each other's company and really have some good times. I supposed it was just a cold matter of business." Gladys is a charming girl; just diffident enough to be [illegible] of a subscription. The Pearl of Norwalk is busy, if she is shy.

Santa Paula comes to the front with a candidate, Benjamin D. Small, son of Rev. W. F. Small, the Universalist clergyman of that place. He is highly indorsed and has had something to do with contests before, so is a distinct addition to the formidable ones of the contest list. Benjamin was born in Maine thirteen years ago. He is fond of the water, and wishes to secure the necessary education to go to Annapolis. More will be heard of him later.

A neighbor contestant is Miss Mary Roland of Ventura. She is said to be bright and good looking, well and favorably known in her vicinity, and is encouraged by the confidence of her friends that she will surely win. She rides a wheel and will cover the country where she is well known, and may invade some other territory to the surprise of other contestants. We shall hope to hear more regarding Miss Roland later, and to have her photograph.

Today the campaign will open with a rush. The results will be printed in The Times Sunday morning; then the interest will begin, and will not flag during the entire campaign, but will wax greater as time goes on. It will be a "long pull, a strong pull, and a pull all together," for the greatest scholarship contest ever put through.

Young people are always interesting, but it really seems as though those whose acquaintance we have thus far made in this competition are exceptionally bright, intelligent and full of enthusiasm. They are in earnest about securing an education, and the prizes are well worth the time and energy which they intend to put into the attempt to secure them.

CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) June 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Pi Eta spread in Henenway gymnasium was the chief social event of the Harvard Class Day. ADVICE FROM FORMER MANAGER OF CONTEST.

Mrs. George Makes Happy Little Them a Few Things About How to The ma Few Things About How to Go at It—Value of System—The True "Scholarship Spirit."

LOS ANGELES, June 24.

Dear Boys and Girls: As the one-time mother of the scholarship I am always a little bit envious of the one who takes my place in your regard, and every time the vacation begins and there is another race to be run, I feel like putting my finger in the pie and telling the young people what I should like to have them remember, and a few of the golden rules which led to success in the year of happy memory—1908—when I was scholarship manager. (You see, I am a bit conceited about it.)

A shining light in the newspaper world whom I met in Washington, D.C., last winter, had one question to ask me in regard to the newspapers of Los Angeles, and that was about The Times Scholarship Contest. "How do those children manage to do so much business? What is the secret. I've always wanted to know about it," he inquired most earnestly.

"The secret is found in three words," I replied. "The scholarship spirit." And then I explained to him what I meant by the scholarship spirit which every boy and girl in the decade of Times scholarship contests has had in a marked degree if he or she has made good.

In thinking it over, it seems to me the spirit that has animated so many of these youthful aspirants has been born of a great desire for the highest good in life, the best in educational opportunities. The boy who wants a business education generally wants it very much, is willing to work and strive, and bear rebuffs to secure it, and he realizes that such an equipment is more to him than money—it is his sword with which he is to open this old oyster of a world. The money prize at the top of the list is dear in his eyes because it will make the way of his education easier, will smooth many obstacles out of his path, and enable him to obtain what he wants in a shorter time.

So he has the scholarship spirit, it shines in his eyes, and it is the light of a great purpose.

The girl who wants a musical education and comes to The Times to earn it, is always a girl who cannot get it without an effort on her own part. California is the home of music, and the love of it is early born in the heart of children of the Golden West. The unwritten harmonies which many of these children hear bring a great desire for expression, to be able to tell in music what they cannot tell in words. When this desire is so great that it cannot be denied the boy or girl will face the world of business and fight for the opportunity. Behind the effort is a purpose, and that purpose, when it is steadfast and unwavering, not to be discouraged by hot days and untoward happenings, creates the scholarship spirit.

1908 might have had the great and inestimable privilege which is to be given to the children of 1910—that of naming the particular scholarship which they want, and thereby having it placed on the list to be awarded at the end of the race. I have found that nothing helps so much as a definite goal.

"I want this scholarship, and I am going to stand high enough in the list to get it"—that is the spirit which I like to see, because it is the spirit which succeeds.

The scholarship spirit is not a cringing spirit. The one who possesses it knows how to ask for subscriptions in a polite manner, but with the inward conviction that the person subscribing will get even more than his money's worth in the livest, freshest news of the world. He knows that he is offering a good sound business proposition, and is proud to be the representative of a great daily paper.

There is an old saying that "He who is slow to wrath is better than the mighty, and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city." Now, of course, mothers are always preaching, and this is my one little preachment, if you would succeed you must be able to rule your own spirit.

You must be able to be courteous even in the face of rudeness, and bye and bye you will find that unvarying courtesy will shame the most uncouth spirit.

I remember there was a girl in my year whose smile wouldn't rub off. There usually is a girl of that sort, I am happy to say, and one of her favorite stories was about the "grouchy man."

The "grouchy man" was very, very unpleasant, but this girl just spoke to him so nicely and kept on going by his place with a pleasant word and the smile, and the "grouchy man," without being asked, gave a two years' subscription at the end to place this bright little maid near the top.

"I think I have walked a thousand miles," said a tired lad one hot summer day, "and I haven't a single new subscription." I talked to him, and I found that he was in a haphazard have any system

What the actual saving in dollars and cents means to the Fitzgerald piano club member

¶ The Fitzgerald Piano Club is being organized to buy 5 hundred pianos. The pianos are bought away below what they are actually worth.

¶ To the purchaser who wants a good dependable, trustworthy piano without putting any unnecessary money in a "high-faluting" name or ornamental case, they are worth and would be well-bought at three hundred and seventy-five dollars.

¶ The club members will pay two hundred and seventy-seven dollars and a half apiece for them—the price to include everything—even to the privilege of paying for them at the rate of one dollar and a quarter a week; no interest added.

¶ This is an actual saving of ninety-seven dollars and a half—what does this mean?

¶ It means that a member of the Fitzgerald Piano Club gets as good a piano as his neighbor paid $375 for—and has enough money left on which to take a three weeks' vacation and have over $30 a week to spend.

¶ It means that he can pay for 130 music lessons at 75 cents a lesson or 194 music lessons at 50 cents a lesson on what he saves.

¶ It means that he saves 27 per cent. of the money he has to spend for a piano.

¶ It means that he can take the money he saves ($97.50) and loan it out at 8 per cent. interest and it will earn him $7.80 a year.

¶ This big Fitzgerald Piano Club presents an opportunity to the careful and prudent buyer that cannot be lightly passed. These are the figures. You can ignore them—you can't contradict them.

The actual figures of the Fitzgerald club as a whole

¶ The retail value of these 500 pianos, if sold at their actual worth, is $187,500.

¶ They will sell to the Fitzgerald Piano Club for $138,750.

¶ The minimum saving to the club is $48,750.

¶ It will take 26 solid carloads, or nearly two train loads, to deliver this order.

¶ The freight will amount to over $7,800, or approximately $300 a carload.

¶ The club is given a grand total of 38,500 weeks or 740 years longer in which to pay for their instruments than if each member was to buy independently upon usual terms.

¶ The saving to the club, if placed at interest at 8 per cent., would earn four thousand one hundred dollars a year.

¶ The saving that the club will make in the aggregate would pay one annual dividend of about 5 per cent. on a Million Dollars.

¶ The saving of $97.50 to each Club member would pay almost four months' house rent at the rate of $25 a month. It would pay the first installment on the purchase of a home.

The saving of $97.50 is not all a Fitzgerald Piano Club member gets Extract from a personal statement of Mr. Fitzgerald made a week ago, when this club was first announced.

¶ I have considerable pride in this deal. I consider this one of the most important piano transactions I have ever made. It will save several tens of thousands of dollars of money to the 500 persons who go to form this big club—money they can use to pay for musical instruction, in taking a vacation trip or whatever use they see fit to make of it.

¶ As this big purchase is intended to stand as an enduring advertisement to our house, I can assure you that the piano itself, as far as I know how to make it so, represents the extreme limit of value for the price and liberal conditions under which it is offered.

To all who fill out and return to us the coupon requesting our Club Booklet, we will mail, free of charge, a book of Fifty Old Favorite Songs.

¶ A Fitzgerald piano Club member gets advantages and privileges that piano buyers do not always get.

¶ He gets advantages and privileges that mean as much if not more than the saving of the $97.50—and he gets them in writing. Let us enumerate them.

¶ First. He gets a guarantee for 10 years that guarantees, and he gets it in writing over Fitzgerald Music Co.'s signature.

¶ Second. He gets his money back if he wants it any time within 30 days.

¶ Third. He gets a two years' trial of the piano with the privilege of exchanging it.

¶ Fourth. He gets the privilege of paying as little as One Dollar and a Quarter a week without increasing the cost of the piano above the club price ($277.50.)

¶ Fifth. He is given the privilege of reducing the club price by paying faster than a Dollar and a Quarter a week.

¶ Sixth. He gets his piano tuned twice free.

¶ Seventh. He is given life insurance that provides for the cancellation of all unpaid payments in event of his death during the life of his contract so that the piano will be turned over to his family free of all incumbrances—and he gets this in writing, also.

LOCAL STOCK EXCHANGE.

Summer Quiet Influences Trading and Light Business and Few Changes in Prices Prevail.

Yesterday was another quiet day on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange. Prices in several instances were higher, but the mid-summer dullness seems to have set in. All news from the oil fields is of a bullish nature, but the public is not particularly interested at present.

In the public utility list, Home Telephone Preferred was a point stronger, but sold very light. No other stock showed any change, except Pacific Consolidated. Stone sold at 5.65. This is a point improvement. Bonds and bank stocks were quiet.

In the oil list Associated is again off, selling down as low as 47¾. California Midway remained firm and steady, with no inquiry.

SAN FRANCISCO LIST.

Sensational Rise in Nevada Hills Feature of Northern Exchange—Tonopah Stocks Active.

[Special Service to The Times by B. F. Taylor, No. 112 West Third street.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Nevada Hills was the feature of today's trading, and was in demand from the opening to the close, which was at $2 bid, and no stock offered, a net gain of 56 cents on the day. This stock was also the feature of the New York curb, where it closed 1.81 bid.

Three years ago this summer the owners of the control of Nevada Hills refused 7½ for their holdings. Since that time the stock has sold as low as 48 cents, and the recent flurry is due to the uncovering of rich ore east of the Fault Plane at the 300-foot level. This property was acquired originally from the locators for $5000.

The bears had it all their own way with Goldfield Consolidated, which closed with a net loss of 25 cents, 9.15@9.20. Florence lost 2½; Fraction was up 2, Atlanta sold at 10, closed 10@12. Yellow Tiger was up one to 6 bid, there were no other changes in the Goldfields.

Belmont was up to 357½ bid, a gain of 7½ points in the asked price from yesterday. West End was off 1, Tonopah Mining closed 8⅝ bid. Tonopah Mining has declared a regular quarterly dividend, of 25 cents, and an extra dividend of 15 cents, payable to stockholders of record June 30. This dividend is an increase of 5 cents a share over any previously paid.

There were no changes in the Bullfrogs. Rawhide Queen was the same. Coalition lost 1. Pittsburgh Silver Peak was offered at 78. Round Mountain closed 39@41, a loss of 2 points.

The Comstocks are undeniably weak and out of favor, and ran off from 1 to 5 points.

This exchange closes next week Saturday, for the usual mid-summer holiday, resuming business July 11.

SPECULATORS ARE EXCITED.

WILD RUSH TO BUY CORN, OATS AND WHEAT.

Light Rains All That Puts Brakes on Runaway Market—Sensational Reports of Crop Losses from Experts Causes Wild Fluctuations Ending in Sharp Gain at Close.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHICAGO, June 24.—Wild fluctuations varying almost three cents wound up the day in a net gain of ¾ to 1 cent a bushel in wheat. Experts, traveling in the northwest, issued sensational reports as to prospective crop losses, one authority putting the probable North Dakota product at only about 16 per cent. of the total estimated by the government on June 1. Light but general rains over North and South Dakota, however, with cooler temperatures, halted what threatened to be a runaway market. Excited speculation was also witnessed in corn and oats, where there were final gains of respectively ⅝ to 5-8 to ¾ and 5-8 to 7-8. Hog prices at the close were down 10 to 27. Buying of wheat today was the greatest in volume this week. Northwestern markets at no time during the session were strong relatively as Chicago, a fact attributed here to selling by millers. On the other hand, southwestern exchanges joined in the bull enthusiasm. At the outset the Chicago market backed up a little and then went forward with a rush. The occasion for the opening dip was news of rain during the night in North Dakota, but the moisture except in one county was found to be only sufficient to lay the dust. Later reports said the weather was clear and hot. There came allegations that the northwest wheat country had suffered the heaviest losses in its history. Simultaneously untoward dispatches kept attention somewhat directed upon the poor finish of the winter wheat crop in Western Kansas and Nebraska. Rains today throughout South Dakota and North Dakota occurred just in the nick of time for profit taking on the part of many dealers. September fluctuated between 98¼ and 99 1-8, with last transactions at 98 to 98 1-8, a net rise of exactly 1 cent. Talk of hay shortage was an incentive to buy corn. The September option ranged from 59¾ to 61½ and finished firm at 60¾, a price ⅝@5-8 above last night's figures. The cash market was firm. No. 2, yellow closed at 61@61¼. Limits for September oats price variations proved to be at 39¼ and 40. The close was at 39¾, showing ⅝@7-8 gain for the day. Pork finished 17½ to 27 down, lard, 5 to 7½@10 and ribs, 10.

Cash quotations were as follows: Flour, steady. No. 2 rye, 75. Feed or mixing barley, 48@55; fair to choice malting, 58@64. Flax seed, No. 1 southwestern, 2.08; No. 1 northwestern, 2.12. Timothy seed, 4.65. Clover, 11.50. Mess pork, per bbl., 22.00@22.75. Lard, per 100 lbs., 12.37½. Short ribs, sides, (loose,) 12.12½@12.50; short clear sides (boxed,) 14.00@14.25.

Grain Statistics.

Total clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 127,000 bushels. Exports for the week, as shown by Bradstreet's, were equal to 1,786,000 bushels. New York Cotton Market.

[By Private Wire to E. F. Hutton & Co., Members New York Stock Exchange, No 112 West Third st.]

NEW YORK, June 24.—Hot weather was again the feature in the Southwest today. Three stations in Oklahoma reported temperatures 100 to 104 and three in Southwest Texas reported maximum 104. Twelve in Houston district reported average rainfall, .58 inches, the heaviest of which was reported at Galveston, 2.50 inches. Considerable damage has been done by excessive rains in Georgia, Florida and the Carolinas, and several private correspondents place conditions in South Georgia not better than 70 per cent. and the whole State not more than 75. Bears attempted to raid the market on the early trading, forcing July down about ten points, this leading bulls became active buyers and before the close shorts became nervous and when week-end figures were posted their buying caused a sharp advance. The visible supply American cotton is now less than was carried over at the season's end last year, with ten more weeks before new cotton will be available and about sixteen weeks before cotton from new crop can move in volume.

Logan & Bryan's letter says: "The Journal of Commerce gave fairly favorable accounts of both Georgia and Alabama this morning under their summary of these States is predicted upon something more than their detailed reports which they append their summarized reports from fifty-three points which distinctly bad in thirty-three and from indifferent to eulogistic in twenty points. The summary does not match the reading matter given therewith. The cotton crop might now be described as entering the adolescent stage and without exception it is a late crop and in a great majority of cases it is extremely small. It is a situation well worth watching closely and the weather map should be considered as carefully as the weather in the Northwest wheat area is now being watched. There is the suggestion that the cotton situation has worked into a bad way and has not been yet discovered and an awakening to the situation may come from the cotton States only a short time since the glowing accounts were organized."

Boston Copper Market.

[Furnished by Logan & Bryan, Members New York and Boston Stock Exchanges, Bradbury building.]

BOSTON, June 24.—Copper is quiet at 12¾c, with poor demand. The situation looks so dark that it seems inevitable that some radical move should be made. There are rumors that Morgan will take a hand in consolidating the Amalgamated and Guggenheim interests. Curtailment of the output is the only sane method of putting the metal market in better shape, and this can only be done by an equitable arrangement between the two great copper producing interests in control today of two-thirds of the output of the country. We have no hesitation in advising conservative purchases at this level. Following were closing quotations on the Boston Stock Exchange:

New York Curb Stocks.

[Special Service to The Times by E. F. Hutton & Co., Members New York Stock Exchange, No. 112 West Third street, Los Angeles.]

NEW YORK, June 24.—The curb market was very dull and closed off small fractions. Nevada Hills was the feature, selling up to 181 at the close. Goldfield Consolidated was weak, closed 8 5-16 bid on heavy selling from the West. Copper stocks were generally neglected, but are holding up very well in the face of the action of the inside market and the presumable increase in the surplus. The Boston coppers were weak and irregular, with more stocks offering than for a number of days. While it is true that copper consumers have only about one month's supply of metal in their bins they show no disposition to increase their stock at the present time, believing they will be able to load up considerably cheaper. The outlook for coppers is not overly bright and the tendency of the market is downward. Following is the closing bid and asked quotations:

STATE OF TRADE.

DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.

NEW YORK, June 24.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade tomorrow will say: Business confidence gains in strength as crop prospects improve, and Congress enacts its important bills preparatory to adjournment. Conditions in the iron market are marked by considerable uncertainty. Although stock of pig iron continues to accumulate, reduction in production has not reached the point thought of a while back. New orders received by the leading producers are said to be larger than last month, and only thirty blast furnaces are now announced as idle, compared with thirty-one on June 1. Numerous good orders have been placed for structural material, of which the total for the month is expected to reach at least 150,000 tons. Railroads are asking for bids for a large number of new cars. In the dry goods market a reduction of ¼c a yard in bleached cottons attracted unusual attention because of the announcement that prices would be guaranteed to October. General trading showed some improvement and jobbers are buying in moderate quantities, but the feature of the business, both in woolens and cottons is the increasing curtailment of production at the mills to avoid accumulation of stocks. More favorable weather stimulated interest at the retail counters in summer merchandise and enhanced the trading for next spring. Although trading is below normal in primary markets, it is noteworthy that there is a larger measure of confidence in important quarters. Unsatisfactory conditions continue in the footwear market, New England manufacturers averaging about one-half the volume of their usual business. Encouraging reports were received from the West, business there being relatively much better than in the East. Further weakness characterized the hide market and some of the large western packers are anxious to sell hides ahead into the short-haired summer season at present low prices.

Bradstreet's Review.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say—There has been a little more confidence in ordering from jobbers and wholesalers for fall, but in the northwest there is a disposition to await a clearer view of the crop outlook before calling to the already fairly good business booked for fall in dry goods and clothing. Confirmation of the theory that there is a demand for goods at a price is found in the fairly satisfactory response in the way of orders to the general reductions noted by manufacturers of bleached cottons and gray goods this week. In industrial lines there is little evidence of improvement to be seen. The iron trade is fair, but pig iron is lower, and the trade feeling as to the last half of the year is hardly as optimistic as in the first six months. In cotton goods the movement is still in the direction of curtailment. Collections do not show much improvement. Business failures in the week ended June 23, were 167, against 178 last week; 222 in the same week of 1909; 258 in 1908; 150 in 1907; and 146 in 1906. Business failures in Canada for the week number 26, which contrasts with 21 for last week and 30 in the like week of last year.

FOR RUSSIAN JEWS.

Hirsch Bureau at Galveston Appeals to Local Benevolent Society for Assistance.

Oppression in Russia is driving Hebrews from that country to all parts of the world, anywhere that they may find comparative freedom and an opportunity to better their lot in life.

The Jewish Immigrants' Information Bureau at Galveston, Tex., which operates under the provisions of the Baron De Hirsch Fund for the alleviation of the condition of poor but industrious Hebrews and their families, telegraphed yesterday to A. M. Norton, chairman, and E. F. Gerecht, secretary, of the local Hebrew Benevolent Society, working in coöperation with them, as follows:

"At the advice of Mr. David M. Bressler of New York we ask you to aid us by accepting unskilled men out of the many who have come today to the bureau here as a result of Russian conditions. There are 300 whom we must place. We will pay $10 allowance for each man. As a matter of humanity, allow us the largest possible coöperation."

"We will advise the Galveston people that we cannot aid them at this time because of industrial conditions here," said Mr. Norton. "We do not feel that we can encourage the importation of any unskilled labor at this time. We are taking care of as many industrious Hebrews as we can find employment for, and until the industrial situation in this section improves, we must proceed carefully."

MINER IN TROUBLE.

E. Randolph, a young miner, went too far, it is alleged, when he passed a fictitious check on Town Marshal Frank Crane at Brawley. Deputy Constable J. C. McCartney was started on his trail and Randolph had not been in Los Angeles more than two days when McCartney and Detective McKenzie swooped down upon him and placed him under arrest yesterday afternoon at the Iowa House on Fifth street.

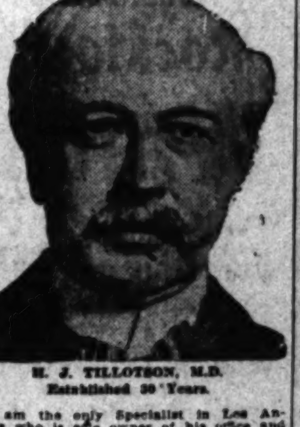
Cured In Five Days
Hernia, Piles and Varicose Veins



H. J. TILLOTSON, M.D.
Established 30 Years.

I am the only Specialist in Los Angeles who is sole owner of his office and equipment, who does not advertise a fictitious name and photograph. I publish my true photograph, correct name, personally conduct my office. I am the longest established, most successful and reliable, as medical credentials and press records prove. I make this statement that you will know you consult a celebrated Specialist, who sees and treats patients personally. I possess skill and experience, acquired in such a way that no other can share, and should not be classed with medical companies. Experience is the safe standard by which judgment may be valued, and it is unwise and expensive to embrace the statements of medical companies. It is impossible for a medical company to attend college. Companies have no diploma or license to practice medicine in California or any other State. Medical companies usually are named after a doctor. A portrait whose personality and identity are indefinite, is selected and published as the legitimate specialist of the office. Hired substitutes ordinary doctors with questionable ability, give consultation, examination and treatment.

A thorough investigation should be made by every ailing person as to the specialist he consults. Duty and destiny to self and those who depend upon you demand the best medical attention. I have the ability and can give you this service. I have always charged a very reasonable fee, so that my services may be obtained by any man who sincerely desires to be cured. I make no misleading statements or unbusinesslike propositions; neither do I desire to be particularly independent, and I would like to have you for a patient, if you will come to me on a strictly professional basis, and the inducements that I offer, which are my ability, and thirty years' successful experience, Time-Saving Treatment and Guarantee of cure of certain Diseases.

NO MONEY REQUIRED TO COMMENCE TREATMENT. Many patients have no confidence in their doctor, because he demands pay before a cure has been effected, and there are many who have been misinformed about their condition, or through unsuccessful treatment have become skeptical and think there is no cure for them. I want an opportunity to treat such cases. It makes no difference about the financial part, as I accept pay for my services as benefits are derived, when I am satisfied the patient is reliable. Health is capital at interest. I will prove my ability to cure you before asking pay for my services.

WRITTEN GUARANTEE.

Dr. Tillotson's Written Guarantee means a cure or no pay for services. I guarantee to cure certain diseases or refund every dollar you have paid me for my services. My services cost you nothing unless I cure your Varicose Veins, Hernia, Piles, Fissures, Ulcerations, or any disease I guarantee to cure. My terms are reasonable and no more than you are willing and able to pay.

Many Cases Permanently Cured in One TREATMENT. Most Time-Saving. Most Natural. Most Safe. No Detention from Occupation, Family or Home. A Radical and Permanent Cure. I Will Give $500 To Any Charity as a Guarantee That Every Statement in This Announcement is True.

I cure rapidly, painlessly and at small expense. I will demonstrate actual results in your case. I will give conclusive evidence of my merit which is obtained and maintained by ability. I invite you to come to my office; I will explain my treatment for Hernia, Piles, Fistula, Varicose Veins, Pelvic, Nervous, Blood, Kidney, Bladder and Rectal Diseases. I will give you free a physical examination; if necessary a microscopical and chemical analysis of secretions to determine existing pathological and bacteriological conditions. Every person should take advantage of this opportunity to learn their true condition. Certainty of cure is what you want.

VARICOSE VEINS

In the cure of Varicose Veins, Rupture and Associate Diseases of the Pelvic Region, I am successful in bringing to bear the curative power of Nature's forces in such a manner as to supplant the old-time, wide-open surgical operations. Once it required several weeks to cure these conditions and the method which some still use is such as to endanger the life of the patient and require a long period of convalescence. Now an absolute cure can be accomplished in a few days and with perfect safety.

TRUSSES SELDOM CURE RUPTURE.

Disregard for existing Hernias has cost many lives. The smallest hernias are the most dangerous to life, because of the increased liability to strangulation. I am aware that a great deal of fraud has been practiced on the public in connection with the alleged cure of Rupture and when I say positively that I cure Rupture, to stay cured, I do not expect any one to accept my statement without investigation of my professional work. My claim to your confidence is based on absolute facts, accomplished results. At a personal consultation, I will make a free examination and can explain every detail of your Hernia and demonstrate to you the curative value of the method I have discovered. I invite the careful investigation of any person who sincerely desires to be cured. I cure Rupture, in selected cases, with perfect safety, and entail no suffering, and do not detain you from occupation under Written Guarantee. Many cases cured to stay cured by one treatment.

PILES, FISTULA, RECTAL DISEASES.

These diseases are very common; most frequently found in persons of middle or advanced age; are exceedingly annoying, often very painful, and sometimes very dangerous, and frequently unfit one for pleasure or occupation. My treatment and success are the result of years of experience; my treatment is kindly applied. I cure Piles without cutting. Some cases are cured by one or more treatments. If I do not cure your Piles, Fistula and other Rectal Diseases, my treatment does not cost you anything. Gentleness in treatment comes from treating many cases, so I guarantee a cure of Piles, Fistula, Fissures, Ulcers and all curable Rectal Diseases.

LIFE'S BLOOD STREAM.

The great clearinghouse of a person's body is the blood stream. Your blood cells are your bank account. Your only defense against disease is by and through blood corpuscles. My blood-making, blood-purifying remedies have been tried and proven. My blood-cell remedies nourish, strengthen and increase the blood cells and nourish the nerve centers. I want to prove to you at my expense that my blood-making, blood-purifying remedies give power to weak brains and life to nerve centers.

KIDNEY AND BLADDER DISEASES.

With these diseases you may have more complications than are presented by any other diseased organs. By my searching illumination of the bladder I determine accurately the diseases and by my microscopical examination and urinalysis I make sure of the condition of the kidneys, thus laying foundations for scientific treatment.—[Announcement Copyrighted.]

BIDS ON BONDS FOR AQUEDUCT.

Insurance Company Would Take Half-Million.

Local Banker Makes Offer for New York Life.

Shows Evident Confidence in Los Angeles.

An unexpected request for the aqueduct bonds of Los Angeles came yesterday when Marco H. Hellman, vice-president of the Merchants' National Bank, tendered the city a proposal on behalf of the New York Life Insurance Company to purchase $500,000 of the great issue.

The offer was brought about through Charles H. Langmuir, agency director of the New York Life, with offices in the Douglas building. He advised the company as to the situation regarding the aqueduct bonds and their value, and the big company wired Mr. Hellman to make the offer.

Charles H. Langmuir, agency director for the New York Life Insurance Company, because of whose report the company made its offer for aqueduct bonds through Marco H. Hellman.

This is the proposal Mr. Hellman sent to City Clerk Lelande yesterday:

"LOS ANGELES, June 23, 1910.

"To the Honorable City Council: Gentlemen: The writer has been authorized by wire to make a bid on behalf of the New York Life Insurance Company for five hundred thousand (500,000) dollars Los Angeles water bonds on a basis to net the company 4½ per cent. per annum, subject, of course, to the opinion of its counsel as to their legality.

"The citizens of Los Angeles should appreciate the fact that the New York Life Insurance Company has the confidence in our city to make this bid and it certainly should have the very close attention of each Councilman.

"Very truly yours,
[Signed]
"MARCO H. HELLMAN."

BROKER AROUSES BANKER.

According to the story, a local broker went into the Merchants' National Bank last Tuesday and talked deprecatingly of the credit of Los Angeles municipal securities, basing his pessimism on the reduction of the supply of funds for the aqueduct by Kountze Bros. and A. B. Leach & Co., who hold the option on the aqueduct bonds, on account of a tight money market in the East.

Mr. Hellman resented the remarks and declared that he could, he believed sell half a million or more of the bonds in forty-eight hours in the New York market if he wanted to. After the broker left, Mr. Hellman decided to "make good."

He visited Mr. Langmuir, who has advised the New York Life as to its Los Angeles investments before, and found him equally confident that the municipal securities were still high in the esteem of Gotham financiers. They discussed the feasibility of asking the company to make an offer.

Nothing further occurred until Mr. Hellman received a telegram from the New York Life direct, Thursday, authorizing him to offer par for $500,000 worth of aqueduct bonds on a basis of 4½ per cent.' return. The forty-eight hours had not quite elapsed when the authority reached Hellman's desk.

As the communication from Mr. Hellman was addressed to the Council no action has been taken on it and none is likely until the Council meets Tuesday. But its contents were at once communicated to Chairman Washburn and the Finance Committee, to City Attorney Hewitt and W. B. Mathews, aqueduct counsel, with the result that a meeting of the aqueduct advisory board, the Mayor and members of the Council was held at the aqueduct offices. The meeting discussed the proposal but it was stated that no course of action was adopted.

The offer of the New York Life followed the telegram of the bond syndicate asserting that it had supplied all the money due from it up to December 1, next, and that it did not understand the demand of the Council that it receive and purchase $816,000 worth of bonds July 31. In effect it means, that, if there is half a million of Los Angeles securities available bearing 4½ per cent. interest the insurance company will be glad to purchase them.

WHAT IT MEANS.

"It means," said Mr. Langmuir, a half ago when it sent $1,000,000 here for investment in mortgage securities. Since that time it has added $750,000 to that investment and is ready now to place half a million more.

"Insurance companies are different from other financial institutions. They have a regular income and are not affected by commercial depression like bankers and bond syndicates which must call in their loans. In this case the New York Life believes that an investment in the bonds of Los Angeles would be safe and fully satisfactory to it on the basis indicated, which, I believe, is the interest rate of the bonds.

"When this company sent $1,000,000 here during the financial depression eighteen months ago it served as a stimulus to other companies to do likewise and since then probably five or six millions have been sent to Los Angeles. It is probable if a big concern like the New York Life, with $600,000,000 of assets, has such abundant faith in the credit of Los Angeles that any other purchaser should have, too."

City Attorney Hewitt declined to discuss the matter further than to say that it was flattering to the credit of the city and strengthening to the aqueduct officials that this unsolicited offer had come. Other aqueduct officials declined to discuss the offer because of the delicacy attached to such financial transactions, but all agreed that it was a high testimonial to the integrity of the city and the Owens River project and meant that, if the bond syndicate cannot handle the bonds, there are others that will. They also thought it a prudent act on the part of Mr. Hellman and Mr. Langmuir at a time when the financial situation had reduced the work on the aqueduct to the minimum basis and that they gave the proper reproach to those who have been deprecating the city's credit because of this reduction.

ATTITUDE OF CITY.

Whether the city may accept the offer or not remains to be decided by the officials. At present the attitude of the city is that the advanced payments by the syndicate, aggregating $3,200,000, do not release it from the obligation to finance the scheme as provided in the option dates. The city holds that these advances have been posterior to all dates a year hence, and that the syndicate must furnish money continuously at the rate of $408,000 a month. If this is not so, the city holds, the syndicate could force a complete cessation of work by its advance payments and cause irreparable injury to the water project.

Holding this attitude, the city could only deliver the bonds bid for by the New York Life, subject to the contract held by Kountze Bros. and A. B. Leach & Co. This syndicate is required to take the bonds at par, one-four of 1 per cent. premium and accrued interest at 4½ per cent. By a sale of $500,000 worth of bonds to the insurance company, the city would sell them minus the premium, which would be $1250 less than it would receive from the syndicate. Whenever the syndicate wanted the bonds taken by the insurance company it could purchase them at the option price, which is $1250 more than the insurance company offers.

In brief, the city would be paying the insurance company $1250 for the use of $500,000 until the syndicate is ready to resume its payments. The law requires the bonds to be sold at not less than par.

This process was used in the investment of the city's sinking funds in aqueduct bonds three weeks ago. The only difference is that the sinking fund paid the premium. The amount purchased then by the sinking fund was $864,000, and whenever the syndicate feels justified in carrying on its option these bonds will be turned over to it on the same terms.

It was admitted by aqueduct officials yesterday that ability to dispose of the bonds to others, subject to the syndicate option, than the New York Life, is promised, but the present course of the city, under the advice of its counsel, is to demand that the syndicate complete its contract by taking bonds at the rate of $408,000 a month. Should there be any forfeiture of the syndicate's contract by the city, then, of course, the bonds would be in the market for all purchasers, with assurance that there would be a good market, as made evident by the proposal of Mr. Hellman for the New York Life.

F. A. Horton,

the 19-year-old moving picture operator, whose pluck in picking up a blazing ribbon of celluloid and closing the door of the operating room of the Art Theater probably averted a disastrous fire.

COOL.

NERVY YOUTH AVERTS PANIC.

PENS UP A BLAZE IN MOVING PICTURE THEATER.

Reel of Celluloid Films Bursts Into Flames, But Operator in Charge Confines Fire to Small Room and Audience Is Dismissed Without Confusion.

The pluck and coolness of F. A. Horton of No. 315 West Third street, a 19-year-old boy, in a room filled with thousands of feet of blazing celluloid films, probably saved lives and certainly averted a disastrous fire yesterday afternoon, when a moving picture film burst into a blaze at the Art Theater, No. 508 South Broadway.

The little theater, which is owned by W. A. Kerr of No. 306 Clay street, was well filled when young Horton began preparations to show a stirring picture story of Sherlock Holmes and his marvelous work. But the ribbon did not roll far enough to give the wonderful detective a chance to light his indispensable pipe. The extremely inflammable film ignited with a flash and the fire raced down into the magazine and followed the ribbon along the floor of the steel-lined asbestos-padded operating room.

But Horton kept his wits. He stopped and bundled the burning ribbon into a safe corner before jumping out of the door and slamming it behind him. The automatic devices closed all other openings of the operating room, and the boy found his way downstairs in a blinding cloud of smoke. Four additional picture reels in as many more magazines caught fire in a twinkling, burning what little woodwork there was in the room and shattering the machine, causing a loss of about $1000. But the fire was confined to the operating room.

The people in the theater showed not the least alarm. They filed out so quietly that Mrs. G. Middlecoff, sister of the proprietor and cashier of the theater, did not know until she saw the boy come down the tiny stairs with scorched hair and burned hands, that the audience was not simply leaving at the end of a programme.

When the firemen arrived a little later the last of the spectators had filed out and stood on the sidewalk watching the fire engines. So orderly had been the vacating of the house that not a single chair had been kicked out of line along the aisle.

Horton, when taken to the Receiving Hospital, was found to have been but slightly hurt about the hand. He said he had been running a picture machine only one week.

Death of Baby Daughter Second Affliction Within Week for Mrs. D. C. McGarvin.

For the second time within a week death has entered the home of Mrs. D. C. McGarvin, this time taking the infant daughter from the family circle of three which a little more than a week ago was unbroken, but of which now there remains only the sorrowing widow and anguished mother. The baby, Marjorie Helen, ten months old, was taken suddenly ill of meningitis on Wednesday, the day after the funeral of her lamented father, and she died at 7:30 o'clock last evening at the home of Robert McGarvin, her grandfather, No. 1230 Norton avenue.

When Mrs. McGarvin returned with the baby last Saturday from San Francisco, she found her husband ill of scarlet fever at the family home, No. 1547 Gramercy place. The house was quarantined, and the wife and daughter were obliged to go to the home of Mr. McGarvin's father. At that time the baby appeared to be in the best of health. When it was seen that Mr. McGarvin's condition was serious, his wife insisted upon attending him, though the baby was not exposed to the contagion.

Prostrated at the sudden death of her husband, Mrs. McGarvin was fighting bravely to bear her burden when the second affliction came upon her last evening.

THE BRANCHES JOIN.

County Supervisor's Man and Clerk in City Hall United at Santa Ana.

An unofficial, but, for the parties concerned, none the less effective union of the city and county forces was effected on Thursday by the marriage of John Wesley Powell, a clerk in the office of the Board of Supervisors, and Mrs. Sadie B. Connelly, clerk of the Supply Committee of the City Hall.

Unknown to their friends the couple secured a furlough from their official duties and slipped away to Santa Ana, where they were united before a justice of the peace. The news did not

"BUCK FOR ME," SAYS DISTRICT ATTORNE

Capt. Fredericks Sees "Boxing Contests" and Decides They Are No Violations of Law Under City Ordinance—Not Impressed.

DIST.-ATTY. FREDERICKS attended his first prize fight last night to make the "investigation" suggested by the Governor.

He decided that all the fights given by Uncle Tom McCarey, last night, conformed to the requirements of the city ordinance. He also decided that prize fighting is a punk show.

His visit was the cause of fevered anxiety on the part of the fight impresarios. They hastily shunted off a newsboy who wanted to sell him a "pink," and between the events came to his seat and explained boxing to him in gentle, refined voices.

Every time the crowd let out a yell of applause or derision, the fight promoters exchanged glances of frozen horror. When the announcer came forward to bawl his usual summons to combat, his voice was soft and tender as a marriage bell.

For moral support, the captain was accompanied by Deputy District-Attorney Ford, Chief Detective Brown, and two officers. They were escorted to their seats by a fair-haired lad with an usher's badge.

If stage settings could have any effect, the fight promoters meant not to have any rude or untoward events.

GREEK CHORUS EFFECT.

Having gracefully seated his charges, the pious usher took up the job that the Greek chorus used to have. He interpreted the fistic events for the visiting censor, addressing his remarks, seemingly to empty air.

"Well," he would say, in a stage whisper, apparently to himself, "Well, that looked hard, but it really didn't hurt a bit."

When one of the boy's noses started bleeding, it stumped him for just a minute; then he whispered hopefully: "Well, the reason that boy's nose bled was because he was so fresh—didn't hurt him at all."

Once he forgot himself, when the fighting grew hot and exciting. He suddenly found himself with his mouth wide open and yelling like a Comanche Indian. He came to and looked around, shocked and startled.

"My!" he said, surveying the captain warily out of the tail of his eye. "My! I never, never rooted so much in my whole life before."

But the captain preserved an attitude of non-committal unexpressiveness.

THEN IT HAPPENED.

The first thing that happened was the announcer. He came out on the platform, and, with a sad and gentle smile down in the direction of the District Attorney, said that the doctor didn't think Mister Paul Sikora was in condition to fight. Oo! how polite!

Two fierce gladiators then crawled through the ropes. They were two skinny little boys with rags around their middles.

"This looks like a violation of the child labor law," said Mr. Ford, sarcastically.

One of the ferocious children was a Mexican lad named Chico. He kept a scared eye on the District Attorney and nearly forgot to fight; so he got a slap in the ear.

"Oh, that didn't hurt," murmured the Greek chorus behind the District Attorney, buoyantly.

"You'd better stop peeping at me," last?" asked the District Attorne ibly bored.

BREAKS A LITTLE LOOS

Just then an old fan broke loose by the ringside. "Well, well, so in the slats, kid. Poke in his Give 'im a haymaker. Now, one in the refrigerator."

The District Attorney turn looked at him in utter astonis with his eyes bulging. He had heard anything like that before.

The fight promoters looked o the obstreperous fan the way the tess does when the waitress pour down the neck of the guest of The blatant song suddenly cease

"Must be an unusual luxury fo young man to have his face wa said some one in the party.

In the next round, the one nose was bleeding gracefully w across his antagonist's chest.

"Well," said Ford, "that's a p esque revenge."

"No damage done," piped th usher, stoutly.

The next fight was between tiful young thing named Berry ton and a rude boy. The r knocked the beautiful young down twice. The fans were ginning to like it fine, when eree, with a shocked look and glance at the District A stopped the bout. Berryl near with chagrin and disappointme cause they wouldn't let him go fight.

"How many more of these th there?" asked the District Att alarm, when the second fight

"Two more," bubbled the ush ously.

DOESN'T MAKE A HIT.

The captain only emitted a groan of despair. Prize wasn't making much of a hi him.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

COMES AGAIN TO HER OWN.

MRS. DR. HERON RESTORED TO LEGAL COMPETENCY.

Woman Committed to State Hospital at Patton Last January is Given a Hearing in Court and Shows Apparent Complete Sanity. Friends Shower Congratulations.

Mrs. Amy A. Heron, who was restored to her mental capacity yesterday by Judge Rives. She alleged she had been "railroaded" to Patton, by her husband, Dr. N. C. Heron.

Mrs. Amy A. Heron, who last January was committed to the State Hospital at Patton, and who was discharged by Dr. E. Scott Blair, medical superintendent, on the 6th inst., was restored to her legal capacity by Judge Rives, yesterday. The application on the part of Mrs. Heron was not opposed by the husband, Dr. N. C. Heron, who was guardian of the woman and upon whose complaint she was originally arraigned.

Mrs. Heron showed every evidence of perfect sanity during the hearing. She alleged that she had been "railroaded" to Patton by her husband in order to take up with another woman, but there was no evidence before the court to substantiate the charge and Dr. Heron did not go to the trouble of contradicting it.

The Herons, previous to the woman's commitment, lived at No. 238 Jefferson street, but after that the property was leased. When Mrs. Heron was ordered released by Superintendent Blair, she went to the home of Mrs. G. L. Dennison, No. 521 Court street, where she has been ever since, not deigning to visit her husband, against whom she seems to be very bitter.

She said that the home is worth about $20,000, that she has been offered and refused $19,000 for the place, and intimated that the principal reason for being restored to her mental capacity is to care for and look out for the property, as she said that the doctor is about to make way with it, although the deed is in their joint name.

At the time of the commitment of Mrs. Heron to Patton, her case was passed upon by Drs. Brainerd and Case, who made an affidavit that in their opinion she was afflicted with alcoholic insanity. Yesterday Drs. Barber and Pepper testified that she was perfectly sane. Mrs. Heron is 65 years of age, and her husband 45.

Mrs. Heron denied that she had ever drank a quart bottle of whisky in a single day, or that she had threatened to kill her husband and Dr. R. W. Ellis, it being alleged by Maj. Donnell, who represented the District Attorney in the matter, that Dr. Russell was absenting himself from the city on account of fear of her. Mrs. Heron said that for years she was afflicted with asthma and that she sometimes took as much as a teaspoonful of liquor in order to relieve the feeling of oppression in her chest which was the usual accompaniment of that disease.

An effort was made on the part of Mrs. Heron's attorney to introduce evidence showing the familiarity of Dr. Heron with a certain other woman by the testimony of a witness hailing from Pomona, but the court would not allow the admission of the evidence. The only question was whether the woman now was in her proper mind. Judge Rives did not think that the petitioner was at this time suffering from any mental ailment and ordered that she be restored to competence.

After the decision of the court, Mrs. Heron was surrounded by a number of women friends who had accompanied her to the hearing, and they each took a turn in kissing and embracing her. She seemed to be beside herself with joy.

HE HAD A WIFE.

NUMBER TWO GETS FREEDOM.

Mary C. Miller, a bright-eyed woman, handsomely gowned, and with the appearance of a woman who would not believe everything told her, was in Judge Hutton's court yesterday, in an action for the annulment of her marriage to Andrew E. Miller. She wanted it on the ground that at the time of their marriage, February 10, 1910, Miller had a wife living.

It appeared that Lettie C. Miller was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from the defendant in March, 1909, and that the final decree was granted in March, 1910, but Andrew had married Mrs. Miller No. 2, in the month previous.

"Before the wedding," said Mrs. Miller, "some of my friends told me that Miller had not been divorced from his first wife a year, but Andrew told me they were jealous of me, and that it was all right."

"Why did you not search the records and ascertain for yourself before you agreed to marry Miller?" asked the court.

"Because I believed him; I know better now," she said, and the fair plaintiff shot a smile at her attorney that indicated her complete satisfaction with her reply.

The judgment roll of the court was introduced in evidence, and the woman's petition was granted. She swept off the witness stand with a manner indicating that it will be a long time before she takes another man's word for anything.

MUST SHOW CAUSE.

WATER RATE SUIT ORDER.

In the action brought by the Union Hollywood Water Company against the city of Los Angeles, Judge Bordwell last night issued an order to show cause, returnable Monday before Judge Hervey in Department Seven.

The defendants are required to show why the court should not issue a temporary injunction restraining the defendants from enforcing the ordinance fixing the water rate; also restraining them from commencing or maintaining any suit or action against the plaintiff based upon the rates fixed by the ordinance.

The litigation grows out of the passage by the City Council of an ordi- afford the stockholders a proper return on their investment, and provide for the annual deterioration of the water plant. The case promises to be hotly contested on both sides. The whole water rate question will be reopened at the hearing.

GOLDEN STREAM.

LOTTERY FACTS IN EVIDENCE.

Some idea of the large returns realized by the sale of lottery tickets, before the government put an embargo on the business of trying to fool the people into the delusion that they could get something for nothing, was shown in the examination of Herman Brunner, yesterday, before Judge Crowe.

The witness had a little diary in which his returns from the sales of lottery tickets from 1898 to 1907, when "it played out," as the old man put it, were recorded. In that time he represented the lotteries conducted at New Orleans, in Honduras, the City of Mexico and Mobile, Ala. The pages were covered with figures but from the mass of questions put to Brunner it was shown that the profits reaped in these years amounted to as much as $60,000 a year. The witness said that he received 20 per cent. of the gross receipts of tickets sold by himself and his sub-agents, the aggregate sales so made in 1904 being in excess of $300,000.

Brunner also testified that his daughter on several occasions attacked him at their Alhambra home, and that he once threw a lamp at her but the missile went wide of the mark. He said that in his years of prosperity he turned all of his money over to his wife, except that he purchased some Kansas City traction stock, a few shares of the Germania Bank, in St. Louis, was a stockholder in the St. Louis Globe, and made a large contribution to the St. Louis exposition.

The hearing was continued for further evidence until next Wednesday.

TEDDY BEAR AND BABY.

BOTH ON WITNESS STAND.

Florence Spencer, who married Harry Spencer in Lincoln, Neb., in 1906, was in Judge Hutton's court yesterday on her petition for divorce. The husband is an advance agent of the Rowe and Norris circus. A bright, handsome baby, the fruit of the union, holding in its chubby arms a huge Teddy bear that it could hardly handle, occupied a seat by the mother and created much comment in the courtroom.

The child, 3 years old, was handsomely dressed and seemed to enjoy the proceedings much more than the mother, who looked disapprovingly at the antics of the baby, but had to give way to a laugh when the little one insisted upon hugging and kissing the bear in full view of the court. The judicial dignity of Judge Hutton had to unbend at the attractive scene.

The husband had simply left the wife and baby and neglected to leave his postoffice address. About everybody voted that the handsome young matron ought to have her marital freedom for the baby's sake, if for no other cause. But she got it on the testimony.

WILL CONTEST.

TEN THOUSAND INVOLVED.

Katharine W. O'Dell filed a petition in the Superior Court yesterday giving notice of her intention to contest the will of J. M. O'Dell of Inglewood, who died May 27, leaving an estate valued at $10,000.

Under the terms of the will the wife was cut off with but $300, and the remainder of the estate was bequeathed to Charles W. O'Dell and Addie O. Chubbock, a brother and sister of the testator, residing at Middleport. The property consists of real estate and personal property, about equal in value.

Unsound mind on the part of the husband, and the practice of fraud and undue influence on the part of the brother and sister, are alleged as reasons for the contest in the petition.

CHILDREN'S ALLOWANCE.

FOUR HUNDRED A MONTH.

The three minor children of Julia Fletcher Barnard, Hilda Fletcher, Julia and Agnes Helena Barnard, were allowed $400 a month for their care and support by Judge Rives, yesterday. This was on petition of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank, through Trust Officer Chandler, guardian of the children.

It was represented that the value of the mother's interest in the estate of her father, the late Stoughton J. Fletcher of Indianapolis, Ind., was $235,000; that $165,000 in addition has been received since the death of Mrs. Barnard, and that the administrator of her estate now has on hand $25,167.77. It was also alleged that the minors are children of culture and refinement and that $400 a month is none too much for their maintenance, education and amusements. The court agreed with the petition and the order was made along that line.

REALTY SALE RULING.

TOMB ESTATE PROCEEDING.

Judge Rives yesterday denied the application of Marie G. Tomb, widow of Thomas B. Tomb, who asked the court to confirm the sale of a certain piec of Hollywood property, purchased in the life-time of her husband. The court held that the proposition as presented was not a sale,

It appeared that on November 18, 1909, Thomas B. Tomb, purchased of Rebecca Gillig, a part of lot No. 17 and all of lot No. 18, in Hollywood, for which he agreed to pay $30,000, giving his note for the amount. Meantime, and before the note became due Tomb died and the family concluded that the property was not worth the $30,000 to the estate. An agreement with Rebecca Gillig that she should return the note for the deed to the land was consummated, and it was to ratify this arrangement that the petition was filed in the Probate Court. The matter will no doubt be presented to the court in the manner indicated by Judge Rives, and the same end reached in that way.

MUSICIAN IN COURT.

ALLEGES BROKEN CONTRACT.

The Al Levy Company was made defendant in an action brought in the Superior Court yesterday by Jacob F. Willey, who, up to March 1 last, was the musical director or concert meister of the orchestra at the Levy Café. Willey asks for judgment for $1096.03, the principal items of alleged damage being $728.57 representing loss of salary, and $351.96 expense he says he incurred in order to replenish his musical library.

It is alleged in the petition that Willey was hired for three months dating from February 14 last, at the rate of $75 a week, and that on March 1, he was discharged, through no fault of his own.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

TO COUNTY JAIL. In Judge Davis's court yesterday J. A. McIntyre, who had pleaded guilty to a charge of assault, was given thirty days in the County Jail.

INJURY CASE. Judge Moss and a jury are hearing the action brought by James Lonnergan for a judgment of $15,164.10 against Charles Stansbury and J. B. Hughes for injuries alleged to have been received. On December 1, 1909, Lonnergan was driving a team belonging to the defendants, and the wagon, is is averred, was not rigged up with a proper brake. In going down a steep hill the horses began to run, and, it being impossible to control the vehicle, the plaintiff was thrown out to the ground and severely injured, it is asserted, through the negligence of the defendants in not having the wagon properly equipped.

HARDY CASE POSTPONED. It was expected that Hal E. Hardy, convicted of the murder of William Moore December 8, would be sentenced in Judge Willis's court yesterday, but on the motion of the prisoner's attorneys the matter went over until Tuesday. There will be no application for his parole, it is understood.

INCORPORATIONS. Articles of incorporation were filed yesterday by The Growers' Fumigation and Supply Company, capital stock, $50,000; incorporators, Fred J. Smith, L. E. Loveland, D. C. Crookshank, W. A. Fox, W. V. Leroy, W. E. Mount, C. C. Warren, Frank L. Palmer and R. L. Fox; subscribed, $9. Silex Concrete Construction Company, capital stock, $50,000; incorporators, P. C. Baker, David L. Hough, Clarence Whipple, H. J. Mack and James Cremer; subscribed, $25.

SMALL ESTATE. By the terms of the will of Charles Baetz, who died in this city May 13, his property, valued at $11,000, goes to the widow, Lizzie Baetz, to be held in trust until the youngest of their six children shall have reached his majority. Then she is to have one-half of the estate, and the other half is to be divided share and share alike among the children.

INFORMATION. An information was filed in Judge Davis's court yesterday against Ralph Burns, charging him with grand larceny. The accused will be arraigned in court this morning.

RECEIVER APPOINTED. Judge Bordwell yesterday appointed B. J. Bradner receiver of the contract to purchase 101,000 shares of the capital stock of the California Midway Oil Company, in the action brought by A. T. Jergins against Sam Schenck and wife.

BATTLE OF EXPERTS. The entire day yesterday in the Gertrude Driggs forgery case was taken up with the cross-examination of Prof. E. K. Isaacs, handwriting expert, who was put through a merciless turn by Attorney Schenck. A day and a half has been so spent with the same witness under a constant fire of critical questioning. The apparent intent of the sharp contention was to shake the evidence of Isaacs, who declared that in his opinion the signature of John J. Charnock to the lease or option had been forged. The case will be resumed Monday.

NO MODIFICATION. Judge Hervey yesterday refused to modify the judgment in the case of Herbert C. Sanger against Sheriff Hammel, on the ground of a lack of jurisdiction. This was an action growing out of the seizure of the yacht Aloha by Sheriff Hammel, on the application of Mrs. C. M. Bell. The interest of Sanger in the boat is now said to be only $2157.40, there being a chattel mortgage on his interest for $1092.60. The judgment against Hammel in the case was for $2250, an amount in excess of the bond that had been given to protect the Sheriff. The court finds that the judgment should have been for less, but rules that he has no power at this time, and in this proceeding, to change the amount found.

CHISEL VERSUS GUN.

Deputy Constable Dave Wilson will testify that the chisel is mightier than the revolver, when it is properly handled. He speaks from experience. The officer went to the establishment of B. Goldenberg, Thursday night, to levy an attachment. The owner of the place greeted him with wild flourishes of a chisel. The constable drew his revolver. Goldenberg was not a bit afraid of the weapon and continued his advance. Wilson returned to his office for assistance and went back to Goldenberg's store after he had been reinforced by Deputy Constable Jack Johnson and a felony warrant. Goldenberg was taken in custody on a charge of an assault with a deadly weapon. He was arraigned before Justice Ling yesterday and his examination was set for July 1. He was released under $1000 bail.

ASKS FOR DAMAGES.

Bernard Woods, 17 years old, yesterday raised the question in Justice Stephens's court as to whether a motorman who runs into a house, standing in the middle of the street, is guilty of negligence. Through his guardian, young Woods alleges that the affirmative is true and on this view bases an action of $299 damages against the Los Angeles Railway Company. The young man was riding on a car at

HOLDS BOUNCER FOR HEARING.

STATUTORY OFFENSE AGAINST GIRL VICTIM CHARGED.

Prosecution of Case by Police Part of an Effort to Break Up Notorious Gang—Expert Dog Evidence, as Given by Catcher, Produces Smiles on the Bench.

David Abrahams, erstwhile bouncer for one of the local skating rinks, was arraigned yesterday before Justice Frederickson, charged with a statutory offense against Mary Spicer, a fourteen-year-old girl. He entered a plea of not guilty. His hearing was set for July 1.

Abrahams was arrested at San Pedro by Patrolmen Bean and Moore of the plain clothes squad at midnight, on the 16th inst., just as he was about to board a boat for the north. He is charged with having taken the girl to a rooming-house at No. 1966 South Main street and there wronged her.

The prosecution of this case by the police is a part of an effort to break up the notorious "Chutes Parrots" gang, an aggregation of rowdies and all 'round villains that held out in the vicinity of Chutes Park and took especial delight in petty hold-ups on the streets and the ruin of girls.

The gang was at one time pretty well broken up and scattered by Patrolmen Jack Walsh and Jack Murphy, who sent several of its members to the penitentiary, ut both Walsh and Murphy are dead. The hoodlums and blackguards found a new lease of life for their gang in the death of these two officers, but their license was soon cut short by the appointment of Patrolman E. L. Oaker to the plain clothes squad with the dance hall and skating rinks as his especial purlieu to look after.

Oaker left the city on the 1st inst. for a two months' vacation, and in a couple of days information reached the ears of the police that some of the old "Chutes Parrots" had learned of his departure and announced that they would "just have a hell of a time for the next two months."

Ed Lynan and Bob Currie, the two men for whom the police are looking in connection with a heinous offense against young girls who were taken out for an automobile ride and betrayed in Santa Monica Cañon, after plying them with drinks and cigarettes, are believed to be members of the "Chutes Parrots" gang.

The favorite haunts of the members of this band of ruffians, the police declare, are the dance halls and skating rinks, where they find many foolish girls who listen to their seductive talks and are easily led astray.

EXPERT DOG EVIDENCE.

CATCHER PRODUCES SMILES.

A big black dog that "bristled like a porcupine and backed away when you tried to catch him," and another dog whose ownership was never ascertained until it had been provided with a muzzle, so disconcerted Dog Catchers M. Du Hoss and Brown that they arrested the owners and L. Renne and John Foley had to pay fines of $10 each, in the Police Court. Brown volunteered as prosecutor and brought several smiles to the face of Justice Frederickson by his explanations of "what you have to look for with a dog that bristles like that and backs off instead of turning and trying to run." Both the black and the other animal, however, were just plain dogs, and on a satisfactory showing that the muzzling ordinance had been disregarded by the owners, the fines were assessed and paid.

ALLEGED TRUNK LOOTERS.

THEY ARE HELD FOR TRIAL.

Fred Fisher and Edgar Beaverson, arrested by detectives and charged with stealing trunks from the local hotels, were given a preliminary examination before Justice Frederickson in the Police Court yesterday afternoon on a charge of grand larceny. They were bound over to the Superior Court under bond of $1500 each, which they were unable to furnish. The detectives have traced and recovered four trunks said to have been stolen by the men, who are declared to have developed a scheme of larceny so ingenious that their arrests never would have been effected but for a slight mistake on their part, although officers had been following express wagons about the city for days.

RESPITE FOR MESSENGER.

DELINQUENCY CASE PHASE.

Charles Spielman, the messenger boy who was arrested several days ago on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor child in the person of Mary Vernon, a seventeen-year-old girl, was not sentenced yesterday in the Police Court, as Justice Frederickson had at first contemplated.

The court directed Spielman to withdraw his plea of guilty and released him on his own recognizance until Tuesday at 10 o'clock, when it is expected the authorities will have come to some understanding about the matter.

Mary Vernon, a fully developed young woman of more than average height, stopped Spielman on the street one night and begged him for something to eat. She was in rags, and he bought her a new outfit of clothes and gave her a home, saying he would marry her. But Mary had escaped from the Detention Home and when she was found in his company, Spielman was arrested. The girl, accompanied by Mrs. J. J. McCracken, one of the probation officers, was in court when the defendant was brought up for sentence, and there was an affectionate meeting between the two while the court conferred with the prosecuting attorney and the probation officer. At the end of the conference, Mary was taken back to the home and Spielman was given his liberty on his word to appear in court Tuesday morning.

VINDICATES HIM.

Jury Finds Sigel E. Skinner Not Guilty of Impersonating a Federal Officer.

Sigel E. Skinner, who was accused by government officials of impersonating a United States officer in the Imperial Valley, was found not guilty by a jury in the Federal Court yesterday afternoon. He said at the close of the case that there had been a scheme to railroad him to jail because he had unearthed frauds in the Imperial Valley. He declared that he had never intimated that he was a special agent of the Department of the Interior.

"On the contrary, I took good care to let persons know I was after land," said he. "When I discovered that dummy entries had been made on certain tracts, I started contests in the land office. I did not go blindfold. I was advised from time to time by my attorneys. I know I angered many persons by my contests, but I never did a criminal act in my life."

Skinner says he will go to the Imperial Valley and improve a piece he has near Holtville. He was seven months in the county jail.

NOT NEAR ASSASSIN.

Dr. Isaac Saylin of El Monte was once a Russian revolutionist, but never was an anarchist. In Russia they agitated for freedom, he says; but in this country they have it. It was stated in the local Township Court, Thursday, and printed yesterday, that Dr. Saylin had been arrested at the time President McKinley was assassinated because he was standing near Czolgosz at the time. The fact is that, the doctor was in Chicago, instead of Buffalo, at the time of the murder, and was only detained by the police for a short period pending the location of Emma Goldman, whom he was believed to have known. Dr. Saylin was until recently head of the Santa Fé hospital service in Albuquerque, N. M., and now has a large practice in El Monte.

TROPICO.

TROPICO, June 24.—Two of Tropico's clever pupils attending the Glendale Union High School, won the highest honors of that institution at the recent graduating exercises. L. Owen Rhodes honored his class as valedictorian and Miss Lillian Ellias as salutarorian. Young Rhodes will continue his studies by entering college shortly. Miss Ellias will enter Stanford for a four years' course.

The Tropico Thursday Afternoon Club will close its work for the year with a picnic at Echo Park Saturday afternoon. The husbands and children of the club members will attend and dinner will be served at 5 o'clock.

EVERYBODY will be interested in Sterling Heilig's article, entitled "The Cheap Trip to Paris," which will appear in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

California regent of the D.A.R., in whose honor a reception was held at Ebell Club yesterday.

WOMEN'S CLUBS.

Mrs. Stilson Honored.

Fresh from social triumphs in the East, Mrs. W. W. Stilson, California Regent for the Daughters of the American Revolution yesterday afternoon received the homage of the State chapters at a brilliant reception given in her honor at the Ebell Clubhouse by the members of Eschscholtzia Chapter. Other honored guests were: Mrs. A. K. Kincaid of Berkeley, State Vice-Regent; Mrs. N. E. Strong of Long Beach, State Historian; Miss Louise Seymour, also a State officer, and Mrs. Martin of Altadena, the new Recording Secretary for the State organization. Visiting regents present were Mrs. F. E. Woodward of Berkeley, Mrs. W. R. Barnes of Hollywood, Miss Alice M. Brooks of Santa Monica, Mrs. Alden of Pasadena, Mrs. Reed of Monrovia, and Mrs. Robinson of Riverside.

In the receiving line with the guests of honor were Mmes. James M. Johnson, Regent of Eschscholtzia; C. C. Cottle, John L. Garner, John V. Peacock, Theodore Davis, John H. Peckham, Arthur Levitt, Leon Hurtt, Allen Aldrich, H. C. Dillon, Enoch Pepper, and Miss Lucy Elcan. Other unbonneted ladies were Mmes. Mary Banning, Henry Gooding, Cameron Erskine Thom, Addie DeB. Mitchell, Henry J. Martin, E. W. Martindale, S. A. Rendall, Grant Goucher, Freeman R. Cady, Harry C. Purdon, Miss Elizabeth Pepper, and Miss Elizabeth Marble.

There was a notable gathering of the clans of this patriotic organization in the flower-decked rooms of the club, where great baskets of Shasta daisies swung in bowers of feathery green ferns, and wild flowers in the colors of the organization adorned the refreshment table.

The difficult task of heading an organization which has been a house divided against itself has fallen into capable and tactful hands, and the happy little address which Mrs. Stilson made yesterday afternoon was received cordially by representatives of both north and south. She spoke of the real work accomplished by the Daughters of the American Revolution, and told many interesting and charming anecdotes of her visit to the fountain-head of the organization at Washington, D. C.

While attending the picturesque sessions of the Continental Congress at the National Capital, Mrs. Stilson was the guest at the home of her distinguished relative, Gen. John W. Foster, formerly Secretary of State. Mrs. Foster is the most prominent ex-Cabinet lady in Washington and a leading hostess. She was at one time President-General of the D.A.R. and brought all of her influence to bear in the recent struggle at the Continental Congress, which resulted in the confirmation of Mrs. Stilson's election as Regent of California.

Mrs. Strong of Long Beach made the deciding speech in the recent congress, which turned the tide in favor of the position taken by Southern California and, referring to the opposition of Mrs. Swift of San Francisco, a Californian remarked, at the conclusion of the session:

"In this case the battle was not to the Swift, but to the Strong."

Among other delightful functions attended by Mrs. Stilson was a reception given by Mrs. J. M. Dickinson, wife of the Secretary of War, to the intimately connected with the life of the Dickinson family, and the Pacific Coast was added in compliment to friends in Seattle and Mrs. Stilson of Los Angeles. Mrs. Robert Lancing, who poured tea on this occasion, is a daughter of Gen. Foster, and her husband is a member of the Newfoundland Arbitration Commission now in session at the Hague.

Mrs. Stilson was present at the launching of the battleship Florida and she had the good fortune to view the inspiring sight from a place of honor reserved for the family of her brother-in-law, Lewis H. Pounds, Commissioner of Public Works for the Borough of Brooklyn.

Friday Morning Club.

The last meeting of the Friday Morning Club for the season was held yesterday. The programme was an enjoyable one, the opening number being the installation of the newly-elected officers and directors of the club, each of whom received an ovation as she ascended the platform.

A clever one-act play, presented by Mrs. Lillian Burkhart Goldsmith, assisted by Miss Evelyn Welding and Mace Greenleaf, entitled "What Every Woman Wants," followed the installation. The play was written especially for Mrs. Goldsmith by Mrs. Madge Clover and Miss Luella Conly.

"Steerage," a sketch, a delicious bit of humor and pathos intermingled, also was given by Mrs. Goldsmith, who impersonated the quaint character of an Irish woman traveling as a steerage passenger on a tramp steamer. Mrs. Goldsmith was assisted in this presentation by Miss Margaret Goetz and Mrs. Charles Farwell Edson, Mrs. E. S. Shank, Miss Helen Tappe, Mrs. John J. Abramson and Vernon Bettin, who gave vocal selections. "Steerage" is from the pen of Ruth Comfort Mitchell. The Helen Tappe orchestra furnished the music.

A daintily-appointed luncheon was the closing feature of the meeting, Mrs O. P. Clark presiding. Shasta daisies, red poppies and American flags were used with pretty effect.

New officers of the club are: Mrs. Oliver P. Clark, president; Mrs. Charles Farwell Edson, first vice-president; Mrs. David C. McCan, second vice-president; Mrs. Jules Kauffman, recording secretary; Mrs. George P. Bugbee, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Garrett, treasurer; Mesdames O. Shepard Barnum, Berthold Baruch, Hugh Harrison, Helen Henderson Steckel and Hampton L. Story, directors.

LONG LEGS WIN.

Deputy Constable, Who Has 'Em Nabs Man Accused of Selling Mortgaged Property.

The long legs of Harvey Bell, one of Constable Rice's deputies, stood him in good stead, Thursday night, when he went to the southeast part of the city to arrest James E. Lavelle. He indulged in a regular marathon race before he accomplished his purpose.

Lavelle left his home with a team and wagon just before Bell arrived. The officer started after him. Lavelle must have had an inkling as to the identity of the officer, for he whipped up his horses. Though Bell was on foot, he was determined to capture the man. The race lasted for nearly a mile, when the wagon broke down. The officer was just getting his second wind, but was pleased that he was able to land his prey without further effort.

Lavelle is charged with having sold mortgaged property. The charge was filed by J. S. Hill in Justice Summerfield's court. The complainant alleges that Lavelle mortgaged five horses, one mule, two wagons and two sets of harness to him for $252.50 and later disposed of the pledges without the knowledge of the mortgagee.

The prisoner was arraigned before the magistrate, yesterday. His bail was fixed at $500 and his hearing was set for next Tuesday.

COTTON GROWS FAST.

Sample Stalks Exhibited by Imperial Valley Grower Show Unusual Maturity.

Joseph R. Loftus came in from Imperial Valley yesterday morning, bringing with him a few cotton stalks from one of the fields which was planted earliest, which shows that the cotton stands at present about four feet high.

It has had its final irrigation and cultivation for this season, and in the parlance of the cotton raiser is now "laid by." This is extraordinary, and indicates that lessons learned from the experiments last year, are being made practical use of this season.

No doubt cotton picking will begin this season by August 15th.

charge of failure to provide for his 2-months-old baby. It was another of those sad stories of youthful folly in which the boy had been led to believe that marriage and immediate separation would right the wrong done. On the representation of Deputy Dist-Atty. McCormick who said that it was all a simple matter of failing to understand natural responsibilities by the defendant, Justice Frederickson released Ernest on his own recognizance until Wednesday, when he must have made some provision for his family.

Easy for Peacemaker.

Police enthusiasm in making an arrest in a disorderly crowd failed yesterday to bring more than a little annoyance upon the head of J. Barrett, a young man charged with disturbing the peace. Barrett, it was brought out by the evidence in the police court, had seen two of his friends fighting and tried to separate them, pulling on one of them so hard that he threw him to the ground. Patrolmen Murray, Sanders and White, who made the arrest, said they heard Barrett telling the fighters to "go to it," but Justice Frederickson thought the invitation to further fighting must have come from one of the crowd, and Barrett was discharged.

Japanese Quartette.

J. Hari, N. Harikawa, R. Kuwamoto and I. Tajaki, a quartette of Japanese arrested March 12, last, by Police Captain Dixon and the old plain-clothes squad on charges of running "blind pigs," were arraigned before Justice Rose yesterday afternoon, a hitch in the City Prosecutor's office having delayed the prosecution. Even at this late date, Deputy Prosecutor Reaves announced that he was not ready to proceed, and the matter went over until July 12, the defendants being again released under cash bails of $100, in each case.

Police Court Notes.

Lillie Trammels, the negress who fired four shots at her husband, George Trammels, at Ceres and Eighth streets on the morning of the 1st inst., lodging one bullet in his head and another in his body, was given a preliminary hearing before Justice Chambers yesterday afternoon and held for the Superior Court in default of bond, fixed at $3000.

Ah Lee, a Chinese arrested by Patrolman Down on a charge of running a lottery game, was arraigned before Justice Frederickson yesterday, and, according to the almost invariable custom of this class of offenders, he entered a plea of guilty. Lee was fined $35, which he paid.

M. A. Dial, the laborite picket, who, in his eagerness to express his sentiments toward a non-union driver of the Maier Brewery Company, shocked a number of people on the streets Thursday night with his foul blatancy, was arraigned in the police court yesterday. But a little of the evidence was enough to convince Justice Frederickson of the man's guilt of disturbing the peace, as charged, and Dial was fined $15, which he paid.

I. R. Rico, a deputy constable charged with keeping the peace at the Union Tool Works, Sixth and Mateo streets, where a number of strikers have been acting the ruffian, was also arraigned yesterday on a charge of battery preferred by William Karlson, a striker, who howled lustily because Rico had slapped his face. The evidence showed that the men had been wrangling for some time before the blow was struck and the court, expressing the opinion that it was probably a case of Rico anticipating an attack by the laborite, fined the deputy $1, the minimum.

A JOB FOR THE GOVERNMENT.

It is an evident fact to every person who understands the question a little bit that only the government is capable of undertaking the control of the Colorado River from Yuma southward. The job is too big for any private person or for any conceivable corporation. Furthermore, it is the duty and interest of the government to undertake this work.

There is no other stream in the United States just similar to the lower Colorado. It resembles more nearly the Po in Italy and the lower Rhine in Holland. For ages the great stream has worked its way, cutting out the Grand Cañon of the Colorado, over 200 miles long, a mile deep and fifteen miles wide in places. This great canal represents only a small part of the silt the stream has washed away and carried down seaward. This has raised the bed of the river continually until it stands far above the land in Imperial county. When it comes down in flood in the summer from the melting of snows in the Rocky Mountains hundreds of miles away, there is always a tendency on the part of the wild stream to work its way through new channels, and very often it overflows the banks it has itself built up. The Salton Sea, covering thousands of acres of land below sea level adjacent to the valley, is the result of an outbreak of the river four years ago.

The government owns a vast quantity of land, mainly on the west side of the river, and it has sold much land to settlers. The government has received the money for this farm property, and the settlers have improved it at great expense and labor.

The valley would have been destroyed a couple of years ago had not the Southern Pacific corporation undertaken the protection of the territory from the ravages of the river. It cost the railroad people something like $1,600,000 to do this work, and but for the efforts made, millions of dollars' worth of property would have been destroyed and the settlers driven from the valley for years to come, if not forever.

The river at the present time is threatening to cut back below the intake through which irrigation water goes for the farm lands in the valley. The situation is very menacing. The settlers are in a state of great perturbation, and it is possible that immediate executive steps may prove necessary, because, if Congressional legislation is awaited, the work may be undertaken too late.

PRINCIPLE AGAINST PREJUDICE.

Few men during the current year have done things to merit better of this republic than Hon. James A. Tawney, Representative from the State of Minnesota and chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means in the House of Representatives. Mr. Tawney is of a type of statesmanship and a public servant not found in every official seat in the country. Fortunately he is not alone in official life, and when men like him become scarce, then the foundations under this republic will be rocking. He lives and guides his public life by principle.

Mr. Tawney comes from a district in Minnesota where "insurgency" is more than prevalent; it is rampant. Now, this conception of politics everywhere goes hand in hand with purely Democratic conceptions on the tariff, being as near like the followers of W. J. Bryan as if they belonged in the same political camp. Their clamor is forever for low tariffs; and no matter how low the schedules were, they would want them still lower. In fact, the ordinary "insurgent" is an average free trader.

Another political conception found very generally if not universally among the "insurgents" is the idea that particular favors should be accorded to the members of the various labor-union organizations of the country. This political sentiment is as rife in Mr. Tawney's district as that which clamors for low tariffs.

Mr. Tawney, when the tariff bill was being considered and put into shape to pass Congress, occupied a position of great power and influence. He used it according to his conscience, broadly enlightened by profound knowledge upon the subject of protection through the tariff. His action was strongly in favor of maintaining, as far as was consistent with the general interests of the people, the producing of ample revenue and the prosperity of our manufacturing industries, protection against imports from abroad. He abstained from putting his ear to the ground with a wire reaching to Winona on the upper Mississippi; but, giving close attention through two wide-open ears to the representations of all really interested in the tariff bill, and with an eye single regarding all the time his oath of office, he guided his course as chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means in direct accordance with the obligations of his oath, with his conception of what was best for the interests of the people as a whole; he forgot the voting strength of the "insurgents" in his own district and the possibility of his being defeated next November when he seeks reëlection to his seat in Congress.

Just on the eve of adjournment Congress is busily engaged in the discussion of the provisions of the sundry civil bill. This carries appropriations of all kinds for the year to come, and one item is the money to be placed under the control of the Department of Justice for the prosecution of persons charged with violation of the anti-trust laws, particularly of the one just passed. A clause in this act originally contained a proviso that none of the money so appropriated should be used against members of labor-union organizations on strike for any purpose, excepting under certain conditions, intended by those who have injected them into the bill to be evaded. The plain purpose of it was to give political judges and prosecuting officers an excuse for not proceeding in case of disturbances in connection with strikes or the lawless action of labor-union organizations, however drastically in restraint of trade these proceedings might be.

Here again Mr. Tawney, regarding his oath of office, the broad proprieties of the case, the fundamental principles of justice, and the general broad interests of nearly all the people of the United States, successfully resisted the retention of this infamously unjust clause and had the bill amended by its elimination. He forgot the large number of labor-union votes in his district, did his duty as he saw it, on principle and not on prejudice; did right and took his chances for reëlection, like the honest, courageous man that he is.

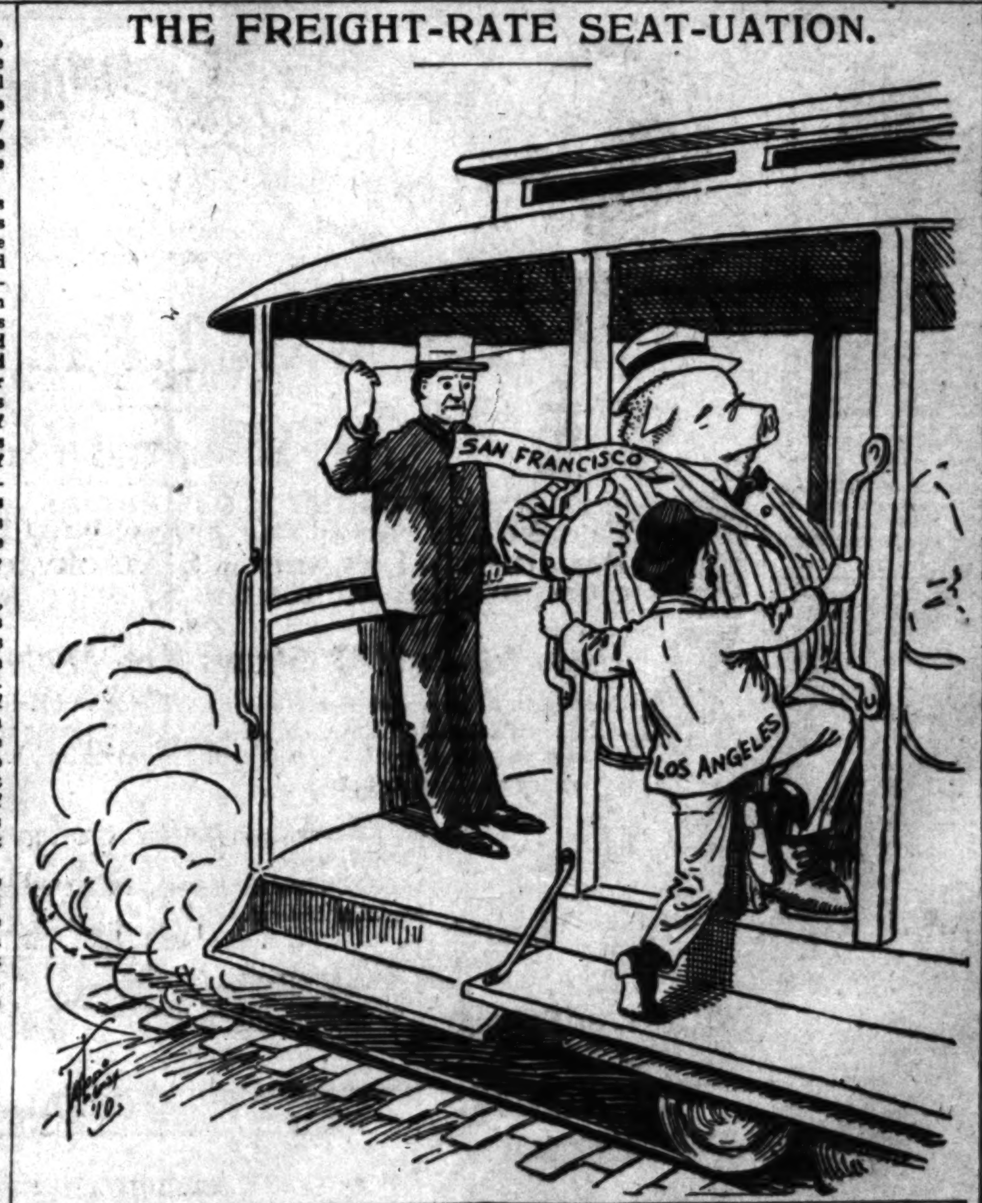
Thus he has given a double impetus to the reactionary influences working against him to defeat his reëlection and has put two clubs in his enemies' hands with which to fight him. Be it noted that the President of the United States and Mr. Tawney stand shoulder to shoulder on the same platform of righteousness in this matter, arraying against one of them as well as the other the malignity of "insurgency" combined with the malignity of labor-unionism.

The people of the United States govern themselves and have just such government as they wish and are worthy of. When election day shall come next November it will be entirely competent for every sovereign citizen of this republic to decide for himself for whom his vote shall be given. If he thinks diaphanous, vague and hazy notions of reform, ethical rather than political, impracticable rather than the contrary, untried rather than proved by experience, are the great issues of the day, he will vote for free traders, either "insurgent" Republicans or straight-out, so-called Democrats, or if he is of that way of thinking, he will vote for some advocate of special privileges to certain people to do with impunity acts for which falsely supposed to control all the votes of the members and to cast them in a bunch wherever the bosses direct them to do it.

If, on the contrary, the citizen believes in the Declaration of Independence, which insists that all men before the eyes of the law and so far as political privileges are concerned are born to absolute equality, and that this equality should be maintained, if he thinks laws should apply to all persons in exactly the same way under the same circumstances, and if it is his opinion that it is better for us in this country to hire our own people to do our work and so keep the money at home (rather than to hire foreigners at lower wages to do our work for us in foreign countries, thus sending our money abroad and impoverishing the country,) then he will vote for men who stand with President Taft, with Speaker Cannon, with Chairman Tawney, with Senator Root and Senator Lodge, with Theodore Roosevelt, and all the other great, unquestioned, distinguished leaders of the Republican party.

"Non-partisanship" may be regarded by certain shallow, hysterical people as great statesmanship. It is really the crookedest, most cowardly, unfairest political device ever invented in America, and everywhere it is tried it is sending to Congress men of prejudice and not of principle, men who don't know what principle is and who care for nothing but simply to get into office.

THE FREIGHT-RATE SEAT-UATION.



Last week's Pacific Outlook devoted a full page (illustrated) to an article explicitly setting forth that Meyer Lissner is a boss—that he is the real thing in the way of a boss. And now the Evening Oxpress gives half a page to a feeble attempt to prove that Lissner is not a boss. It is plain enough that it galls E. Toopious to see Boss Lissner bossing; but the fact is there is but one boss in the innermost councils of the Goo-Goos, and his name is Lissner—and E. Toopious comes right up to tamely eat out of Lissner's hand when he is called.

CONSIDER THE INTEREST OF LOS ANGELES.

In next Thursday's election there will come before the people of the city a matter of even greater import than the choice of two Councilmen. We refer to the sale of the old City Hall site, with the intention of raising money without the sale of bonds and without additional taxation to put up a new and up-to-date home for the city offices on property already owned by the city. The new site has been purchased deliberately by the city for the purpose of erecting the City Hall thereupon. Manifestly the economical and proper course to follow is to sell the old property as soon as possible at the right price and put the money into the new building so as to provide the city with quarters that will be a credit to the city, an ornament to it and a thing of which all Los Angeles people may be proud.

Now, the voter who does not express his views on Thursday at the election on this point is not patriotic and is not performing his civic duties. Every voter in the city should go to the polls, and whatever he does about the Councilmen he ought to vote "yes" or "no" on the question of selling the property and building a new city building.

To those who do take the trouble to express their opinion upon this matter we would issue a word of warning. We would first ask them to consider with honesty and all gravity the interests of the taxpayers and of the city generally. They should permit no ulterior consideration to arise. If the sale of the old site and the erection of the new building will be an economy in the management of the city's affairs, then vote for the sale. If the new building will be something that every person in this city will be proud of, then vote for this sale.

If the proposition was your own private business, would you not consider it the right financial step to dispose of the comparatively unproductive piece of property known now as the City Hall, and put the money into a new, adequate building for city uses which will house all the city offices of every kind and so save rent? Would you not consider it a wise step to take to convert your unproductive property into a productive shape if it was your own private affair?

Have you any pride in your city? Do you like visitors, strangers, to speak admiringly of Los Angeles? Are you ever offended when a slight is put upon the city for any cause or reason? If you are, will you not be gratifying your own civic pride by helping to erect this beautiful new building for the home of the city offices?

Now we are ready to issue a little word of warning.

There are cold-blooded and selfish interests busily at work in trying to hold up this enterprise. Those Angeles. They are lacking in civic pride. They are not acting in good faith. They are grinding their own axes and asking you to turn the crank.

Observe that persons who have property south of Third street think they are serving their own interests by stopping the sale of the old City Hall property in order to block the building of the new City Hall. It is not only a selfish proposition, but it is a foolish and shortsighted one. There are people in this city just shallow enough to imagine that every improvement that does not go up close to the property they own themselves is detrimental to their interests instead of helpful. They are like an imbecile who should imagine that his head would be healthier if his foot were gangrened, or that his thumb would be a more effective tool to use if a couple of his fingers were cut off.

A broad, patriotic view is the wise view. There is not an improvement that goes up inside of the city of Los Angeles, from the city boundaries up near Tropico to the harbor at San Pedro, which is not an advantage to every other bit of property in the whole city. There is not an improvement blocked anywhere that does not hurt all the rest of the city. The erection of a ten-story building at Sixth and Main would enhance the value of property a mile, two miles, three miles away. It is a stupid conception of things to dream that the erection of a beautiful public building on the site selected by the Council for the City Hall will be a detriment to property at the corner of Seventh and Broadway or at the corner of Main and Sixth.

SEASHORE OR MOUNTAIN?

Where will you spend your vacation—at the seashore or in the mountains? It is time you were knowing. The schools are closed or are closing; the sea calls and the mountains beckon. The children are eager to be off.

"I will buy you brooches and toys for your delight,
Of dewfall at morning and starshine at night,
And I will build a palace fit for you and me,
Of green days in forests and blue days at sea.

"And this shall be for music when no one else is near,
The fine song for singing, the rare song to hear,
That only I remember, that only you admire,
And the broad road that stretches and the roadside fire."

This is the song that is now in many a heart—the gypsy song that was made by the Master Singer. Old and young alike, we long for the broad road that stretches and the roadside fire; for the sweep of the sea and the lure of the hills.

And it is greatly blessed we are who dwell here between the mountains and the sea, the one within reach and call of the other. We have but to go a few miles from home to find some spot that will answer our every need. In the heart of the mountains are the forests and the cañons and deep valleys filled with wild flowers and the songs of birds. In the curves of the sea are cañons also, and wondrous bays and estuaries, where we shall find shelter from the restless and ceaseless noises of the world.

It is best, of course, to go straight to Mother Nature for our day of play and rest. One may take a tent along, or just a pair of blankets; or wander the mountains as John Muir wanders them—a pocket filled with biscuits and another to hold the tea. But if one leans toward luxury, it is to be found at both the mountain and the sea. California is splendidly equipped with inns and hostelries where there are all the comforts of home, and more.

There is no need for any one going outside of the confines of our own California of the South for a vacation. But there is need of the vacation. It is absolutely necessary to cut loose from the environments that have daily hedged us in during the year, and to hie away to new scenes and different surroundings. And the most convenient season in which to do so, as well as the most pleasant, is "the good old summer time."

The King's Mourner.

"I am the King's dog," and when I hear them cry
"Long live the King!" I am bewildered, for I know That he who was my King is dead. The face I loved
Is missing from the throng, yet only I am kingless, Masterless. England has crowned another in his place,
But I have neither King nor master. He is dead.

County Central filed with County requesting him of the primary take the necessary and do all things calling of a county Democratic party on Saturday, Symphony Hall, ." It isn't in political Republican County Committee. Lee informed me yesterday that he would call a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee in a few days to make some arrangements in regard to doing whatever is necessary.

When the Democrats meet under this proposed call, they will first elect 110 delegates to the State convention at Stockton, to be held September 5; adopt and promulgate a party platform; select a County Central Committee, and "transact any other business as may not be inconsistent with said primary act." Just think of a Democratic convention not being permitted to do anything that any delegate wanted to do! The county convention will consist of 783 delegates.

Even the Democrats are now ready to "cuss" the primary election law. Napoleon Norton, the county chairman, declares it is the sum of all political absurdities. He asserts that under its provisions the County Clerk has just ten days in which to check up approximately 225,000 signers to nominating petitions. All these petitions must be filed July 16 and the County Clerk must ten days later notify each candidate that his petition has so many names upon it which he found upon the Great Register, and so many that he did not find thereon. Each county candidate must have not less than 1260 signers, and it is estimated that it will take 2000 to insure against loss from nonregistered voters, voters who have moved, etc. Unlike the city election law, under which the City Clerk may stop checking after he finds a petition has the legal number of signers thereto, the County Clerk must check every name on every petition that is filed with him. "He can't do it with a hundred deputies to save his soul," says Norton.

AMITY REIGNS AMONG MOTHERS.

CALIFORNIA MEMBERS' QUARREL IS PATCHED UP.

New Delegates from Chapters in This State to Meet at Central Point, Settle Differences and Reorganize. Equal Representation for North and South.

Differences between the Northern and Southern delegates representing California at the annual convention of the National Congress of Mothers, held recently in Denver, were adjusted after a hearing of both sides before the national board. The result was the acceptance of the credentials of Mrs. H. Otis Burn of San Francisco, who represented Mrs. O'Neal, the State vice-president. Mrs. Burn was given a seat at the convention, was recognized on the floor and was given a voice in the deliberations of the body.

Mrs. Burn's seat was contested by the Southern delegates, led by Mrs. C. C. Noble of this city. A special committee was appointed by the national board of the congress, composed of Mrs. Mears of New York, Mrs. Bright of Illinois and Mrs. Arenelli of Colorado, to confer with Mrs. Burn, representing the Northern chapters, and Mrs. Noble, representing the Southern chapters. After a conference the committee reported the following recommendations to the national congress, which were adopted:

"We recommend that California select new delegates to meet at some central point in the State to settle differences and reorganize.

"We recommend a central executive, with Northern and Southern branches fully officered, the president alternating each year, one year from the North, the next from the South."

This was adopted unanimously by the national board, and accepted by Mrs. Burn and Mrs. Noble. In the near future representatives will be selected and a conference arranged to meet in San José or Palo Alto and the recommendation of the board for reorganization on this basis will be effected.

On motion of Mrs. Jefferson D. Gibbs of this city, national vice-president of the congress, the National Congress of Mothers withdrew its approval of Miss Jarvis and her special observance of Mothers' Day. It was the sense of the congress that every day should be observed for the honoring of mothers, rather than one special day.

Upon the recommendation of Mrs. Gibbs, Mrs. Chalmers Smith was appointed chairman of the membership committee, and Mrs. D. K. Trask a member of the national publicity committee.

TREE MEN HEAR FORESTRY TALK.

STATE FORESTER HOMANS DISCUSSES EUCALYPTS.

Many Local Growers of California Society Hear Expert's Exposition of Scientific Arboriculture—Plans Made for Active Boom in Tree Growing in This State.

An animated session of the Forestry Society of California was held at the Hollenbeck yesterday afternoon. Among the guests was State Forester Homans, who gave an address on "The Culture of Eucalyptus," and answered many questions which the members of the society desired to be informed upon.

The society has been desirous of personally interviewing the State Forester, who has recently taken office. The office has been besieged in the past to furnish statistics with regard to soil as well as measurements of eucalyptus groves. It is understood that these steps will be taken. Men will be sent out to measure groves and estimate the yield of timber with the view of determining the status of the eucalyptus industry. The State Forester has a very high opinion of the eucalyptus industry in this State, properly managed, and gave valuable information as to the culture of the tree.

In the last three years, the Forestry Society of California has been instrumental in causing the planting of more than 8,000,000 trees in the State, and the members are enthusiastic at the industrial prospect due to the cultivation of the eucalyptus.

The meeting was presided over by M. V. Hartranft, editor of the Western Empire and Fruit World. An election of officers was held for the year, as follows:

Abbot Kinney, Venice, president; Florence L. Pierce, Los Angeles, secretary. Board of directors, M. V. Hartranft, L. M. Pratt, W. H. Cornell, G. B. Lull, former State Forester; T. P. Lukens, former Mayor of Pasadena; W. S. Ennis and A. H. Schwan.

There has been some discussion as to the advisability of changing the name of the society to "The Eucalyptus

While some of the members are interested as growers in eucalyptus, there are others associated with the organization who have no groves. In his report, Chairman Hartranft stated that plans have been made for an active campaign on the part of municipalities, corporate interests and individuals looking to the planting of rapid-growing hardwood, cabinet wood and timber trees.

An exhibit of rare species of trees from Australia will shortly be opened at the office of the society, No. 713 Delta building. R. S. Webb, an associated member of the society, who is in Australia, has sent various specimens grown in that country, and including species not grown on this side of the Pacific.

Why are there [illegible] and so few you so neglected the spiritual interests of my flock and their instruction in righteousness? Why are you so unable to rightly divide my Word?

Instead of coming together as one Church of the Living God whose names are written in heaven you have divided into hundreds of sects and parties! Instead of taking my word as a whole and rightly dividing its teachings as between the different ages and dispensations of my work, you have divided my word in a sectarian manner. One sect has male one selection from my word and another sect has made another section. Thus ye array one part of my work against another part of it, and hence get into confusion and conflict. What have you to answer for these things?

With shame of face we must all acknowledge that "We have done those things which we ought not to have done and have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and there is no help in us." The proper thing for us to do, dear Christian friends, is to get down upon on our knees before the Lord and in contrition of heart to acknowledge that we have wrought no deliverance in the earth, (Isaiah xxvi, 18); that our sectarian differences are our shame; that the ignorance that we have all been in respecting the word of God is humiliating. Now that our eyes are open so that we can comprehend as never before the harmony of God's mesage from Genesis to Revelation, it means a rich feast and blessing to our souls. The word of God becomes more precious to us daily as we become able to comprehend it. Our duty is to fly to the assistance of our dear brethren and sisters in Christ, of all denominations and to call upon them to join with us in a determined stand for righteousness, for Truth, for God and for his word.

We must show them that ignorantly we and they have dishonored our God by misrepresentation of His character and misrepresentations of the real teachings of the Bible. We must point them to the fact that the Bible does not teach that all mankind except the "elect" saints will be consigned to an eternity of torture at the hands of fire-proof demons. We must show them that the election of the church during this age—a saintly little flock—does not mean injury to the non-elect. That, on the contrary, it is the Divine purpose that the elect saints with their great Redeemer in glory shall constitute God's kingdom. That His kingdom, when established, will bind Satan, put down sin, banish ignorance, error and superstition and uplift mankind by "restitution," by resurrection processes, up, up, up, to all that was lost in Eden by disobedience and to all secured for Adam and his race through the great transaction at Calvary (Acts iii:19-21.)

"RIGHTLY DIVIDING THE WORD

Alas, how many intelligent people have turned aside from following Christ and from hearing the voice of God through the Bible! Alas, how many are looking to Theosophy, to Spiritism, to Christian Science, to Higher Criticism, to Evolution—wandering farther and farther daily from the "faith once delivered to the saints" (Jude iii.) We fault them no more than we fault ourselves. As a whole we have been workmen who need to be ashamed. We have dishonored God through misunderstanding and misrepresenting His Word and His character. We have driven away from God and the Bible some of the most intelligent of our fellows, by reason of the contradictory nonsense of our creeds.

The apostle urges, "Study to show thyself approved unto God." We are not to suppose, therefore, that the highest of all science, that which pertains to the Divine purpose and the Divine plan, can be acquired without study. We are not in this claiming that study alone would bring the desired results of proper knowledge. We heartily agree in the scriptural proposition that "the world by wisdom knows not God." We are not, therefore, to study along the lines of worldly wisdom, but along the lines of "that wisdom that cometh from above"—along the lines of the inspired scriptures. We must study! Whoever will not study will not know. "The secret of the Lord is with them that reverence Him." And reverencing Him means the giving of our best thoughts and talents to the study of His Word, that we may "know the things freely given to us of God" (I Corinthians, ii:12.)

We should note further as Bible students that we must not study to be approved of men, but to have the Divine approval. This will bring to us, as it did to the Master and His apostles, the disapprobation of the worldly-wise and nominally religious. It was the chief priests and scribes and Pharisees, and not the common people of the Jews, nor the Roman soldiers, who were guilty of the crucifixion of our Lord. And we must expect similar conditions, because, as the apostle says, "As He was so are we in this world." The class who called the Master Beelzebub is the same class which will oppose his footstep followers.

God permits all this with wise and loving foreintention. Nothing connected with the opposing forces is in any sense of the word interfering with His great programme. He set apart with Divine wisdom this gospel age of nearly nineteen centuries for the sole purpose of selecting from the world "the church of the firstborns"—the antitypical priests and Levites. THE PARABLE OF THE TARES.

Golden Text: Matthew xiii, 43:

"Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the Kingdom of their Father."

The Lesson:

Matthew xiii, 24-30, 36-42.

(24.) Another parable set He before them, saying, the kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man that sowed good seed in his field; (25) but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares also among the wheat, and went away. (26.) But when the blade sprang up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. (27.) And the servants of the householder came and said unto him, sir, didst thou not sow good seed in thy field? whence then hath it tares? (28.) And he said unto them, an enemy hath done this. And the servants say unto him, wilt thou then that we go and gather them up? (29.) But he saith, nay, lest haply while ye gather up the tares, ye root up the wheat with them. (30.) Let both grow together until the harvest; and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, gather up first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my barn. (36.) Then he left the multitudes and went into the house; and His disciples came unto Him, saying, explain unto us the parable of the tares of the field. (37.) And He Answered and said, he that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; (38.) and the field is the world; and the good seed, these are the sons of the kingdom; and the tares are the sons of the evil one; (39) and the enemy that sowed them is the devil; and the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are angels. (40.) As therefore the tares are gathered up and burned with fire; so shall it be in the end of the world. (41.) The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that shall cause stumbling, and them that do iniquity. (42.) And shall cast them into the furnace of fire; there shall be the weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The first value of this parable is discovered by a recognition of its kingdom relation to that of the sower, considered in our previous lesson. It serves to emphasize the application of that parable which shows the value of men in whom, the word being implanted, has produced its results to the kingdom interest in the world at large. Christ's explanation in this case is most explicit. He says with definiteness, which cannot be misunderstood, "The good seed these are the sons of the kingdom." Who then are the sons of the kingdom? is the inquiry which naturally arises. The answer has already been given in our previous lesson. The sons of the kingdom are those who have received the word, and in whom the implanted word has produced kingdom results; or, to quote again from the words of James, the sons of the kingdom are those who, "putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with meekness the implanted word."

This being remembered, the parable has important values, as it reveals matter of supreme moment as to present process and responsibilities, and as to future methods and victories.

It first shows that two processes are going forward coincidently. In the field of the world there is the sowing of the wheat, and there is the sowing of darnel. To remember this is to find an explanation of much which often troubles devout Christian men and women in their outlook upon the world. Discussions are sometimes heard as to whether the world is getting better, or whether, on the other hand, it is getting worse. As a matter of fact, according to the teaching of Christ, the sowing in the world of the sons of the kingdom, who constitute the good seed, is in constant process with the inevitable result of a growth toward harvest. It is equally true that the sons of the evil one are also being sown side by side with the sons of the kingdom with a corresponding growth toward harvest. Therefore the two antagonistic results of good and evil are both increasing.

The parable reveals the method of the enemy in view of the method of the proprietor. This can only be appreciated as we remember that the word darnel. Darnel in its early stages of growth is an almost exact imitation of wheat. Later developments indicate the difference clearly. The method of the enemy referred to here therefore is not that of an attempt to destroy the wheat, but to prevent its complete victory by imitation. Satan's greatest victories in his age have been won not by the more vulgar forms of evil, but by such false presentations of the Christian ideal as have deceived men, and so prevented the more rapid growth of the kingdom principle in the world.

In view of these things the parable distinctly teaches our attitude toward this double sowing and double growth is to be that of patience. We are not to imagine that our work is that of weeding the field of the world. It is not our business to attempt to pluck up the darnel. So close is the resemblance between darnel and wheat that we are unable to very often distinguish between them; and we may make a mistake and, while attempting to pluck up darnel, we may root up wheat. I sometimes think that this is one of the most difficult lessons which Christian men have to learn; and I am growingly convinced, with the process of the years, that whenever a church turns aside to the business of exposing or destroying the things which are out of harmony with its conviction concerning the truth of God, it is in grave danger of doing that against which the Lord specifically warned us, plucking up the wheat. Of course, the devil has other methods, and against all the things which are openly and definitely evil, the church is to make her protest, and is to be forever at war.

The parable foretells a coming crisis, which Christ describes as "the end of the age" and as harvest. That is to be an hour of division. There is absolutely no warrant in this parable, or indeed in any other, for imagining that the present age is to be one in which the word itself, or the word in the lives of the saints, is to result in a harvest in which there will be no admixture of that which is false. The harvest will be the reaping of wheat and darnel and then their separation from each other; the wheat for garnering and the darnel for burning.

Finally, the parable announces a vindication of the righteous, and this is the special thought emphasized in the Golden Text. In that day of harvest the righteous are to shine forth as the sun; that is to say, all misunderstanding and misinterpretation of them will be at end. They will be clearly manifested, and the manifestations will be vindication. Moreover, the figure which the Lord thus employed, of the shining of the sun, is suggestive of a ministry of light and heat; and, while there is no carrying out of the idea here, it may be fairly said to involve the thought of a succeeding age, wholly beneficent, in which the kingdom will be firmly established, and the sowing of the evil one will have ceased.

If our first duty is that of receiving and obeying the word, an equally imperative one is that of exerting the influence of the kingdom positively, leaving the work of discrimination and division to the future, resting assured that our personal vindication is coming, and that when it comes it will be beneficent in its effect on the world.

Thus the interrelation of these two great parables is clearly manifest. Everything begins in the word of God. The next stage in the Divine procedure is the reception of that word in individual lives; which, by such reception, are brought into experimental realization of the kingship of God. Such lives implanted in the world reveal the ideal, and win the victories of the kingdom in the age. This process is accompanied, for the time being, by the work of an enebe harvested and separated; the things of evil committed to burning, and the things of the kingdom established.

THE EXTENDED LIFE.

Terse Comments Upon the Christian Endeavor Topic for June 26: "Money, Men and Prayers: The Three Great Missionary Needs."—[II Cor. viii, 1-9; Matt. ix, 35-38.

By William T. Ellis.

There are various ways of coming into contact with the mission field. Some of us may touch it with our hands, gathering the ripe grain for the King's garner; others of us can touch it only through the contribution box; the point of contact is our gifts; still others reach the regions beyond by way of the Mercy Seat; they are the Christians whose prayers constantly ascend for the cause of missions. The first of these means is a privilege granted only to a few; the other two rest as a duty upon every follower of the Savior of the world.

We may go by sending. Our gifts may represent us on the foreign fields.

Notes.

Who is the missionary? Is it alone the person who journeys to foreign lands, turning his back upon home and loved ones for the gospel's sake? Such a definition excludes those who, perhaps at great sacrifice, surrender son or brother or friend. It shuts out, also, those whose gifts and prayers and labors at home make possible the departure of the workers for foreign fields. Surely, it is not Gods' plan that a few individuals should be chosen out of the ranks of all of God's faithful ones and to them be given the high name of missionaries. Whoever labors, in whatever manner or in whatever place, for the extension of God's kingdom on earth is a missionary. There is hope and cheer and glory for all of Christ's friends in the truth that to his eye there is no difference between those who go and those who stay that others may go. Every true Christian is a missionary.

We may shut the Spirit of God from our heart by shutting our purse to the worlds' needs.

There are many routes to the mission field. One is the prayer route. By it some of the world's best missionaries have entered the field. Another is the intelligence-and-sympathy route. Another is the gift route. Another is the preach-in-person route. These are all divinely appointed, and at least one is open to every disciple.

The missionary church is a praying church, a reading church, and a giving church.

If men gave as much heed to their personalities as they do to their purses, they would be richer for two worlds.

A familiar saying, as true as it is pointed, declares that the main reliance of the cause of foreign missions has been "dead men and living women."

"Send me!" one exclaims. "Why not my brother?" simply because the voice has come to you. If God has called your brother, the honor of giving up his life to the proclamation of the gospel would have been his. Now it is yours. The call is a commission. They who hear God's summons are they whom he would send.

All the church is needed to save all the world.

problem which weighs upon every missionary board and upon every lover of the kingdom is this: How to arouse the church to an intelligent purpose to carry the gospel to the world's unevangelized millions. Once let the great body of Christians become possessed of the conviction that it is their immediate and imperative duty to spread the good news of Jesus everywhere, and in a twinkling all problems will disappear. If the church resolves to do her whole duty in preaching the gospel, the ends of the earth will hear the sweet sound of salvation within a decade.

The work of evangelizing this world, for every man, is a matter of personal, inalienable obligation.—[Robert E. Speer.

FAIR AUTOIST NIPPED.

Arresting Officer Declares She Left Her Machine at Curb Beyond the Ordinance Limit.

Mrs. J. H. Maynard might have pouted a bit and said some airy nothings, as is usual with women in distress, but she laughingly exclaimed, "I'm caught!" when Patrolman Wallace arrested her yesterday for letting her automobile stand at the curb too long. She says it is all on account of the ridiculous number on the machine.

Wallace is the crossing officer at Third and Spring streets. He was on the lookout for violators of the traffic ordinance, and had "spotted" Mrs. Maynard's machine standing at the curb an undue length of time. He was walking up to the car when he saw a daintily-gowned woman approaching. She saw him at the same time and threw up both hands with a pretty gesture.

"Well, now, Mr. Officer, you've caught me—what will you do about it?" she said, laughingly.

"I thought it was a man's automobile," he said apologetically.

"It's mine," said the offender, saucily, evidently amused at the big policeman's embarrassment.

"Well," said Wallace thoughtfully, "if I had seen you first I might have turned my back, but you seem to enjoy it so much I will have to take your name and address and ask you to come to court in the morning."

"Arrested, am I?" warbled the fair prisoner; "what a lark!"

Mrs. Maynard will be obliged to appear this morning in Police Court.

MAN ACCUSED OF LOCAL THEFT CAUGHT IN DETROIT.

Fondness for Sparklers Alleged to Be the Undoing of Patron of Local Brokers, Whose Departure Was Coincident With Disappearance of Diamond.

Traced by means of telegraphic descriptions, R. A. Fisher, an alleged diamond thief, who recently left Los Angeles on the same night that a friend lost a diamond ring valued at $250, was captured yesterday in Detroit, where he will be held pending the arrival of an officer with extradition papers.

Fisher had about $700 worth of diamonds which he had obtained from local brokers, who had frequently intrusted the selling of gems to him. He found business unprofitable and decided to leave town. Before doing so he called on J. P. Flaherty, a former room-mate, who lived at No. 1224 Georgia street, and requested a loan of money under the pretext that his mother was sick and destitute.

Flaherty did not believe the story and said he was unable to raise the money. He was called from his room later by a telephone message and, when he returned, Fisher had disappeared. A big diamond ring had been lying on the bureau prior to Fisher's visit, and this also was gone.

Brokers who had left rings with the elusive salesman saw neither him nor their property again, and Flaherty understands that his pretended friend fled from town after taking his ring.

Detroit officers wired last night that they had arrested Fisher and he will be brought here to stand trial on a charge of grand larceny. Detective Zeigler will start for Detroit tomorrow to bring back the prisoner and his loot.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE TIMES.]

YUMA (Ariz.) June 23.—The vacated Territorial penitentiary, which has been the property of the town of Yuma for nearly a year, is to be temporarily transformed into a high school, and the barred enclosures and corridors in which the worst desperadoes of the Southwest have been confined will be given over to the uses of education. The Town Council has leased the bulk of the penitentiary structures to the trustees of the Yuma Union High School for ten months for $600, and occupancy will begin this fall. Previously the penitentiary has stood unused except that one building has been used as a Mayor's residence.

The town Central Committee of the Republican Central Committee has made arrangements for a banquet on an extensive scale at the Southern Pacific Hotel Saturday evening, to celebrate the passage of the Statehood bill and informally plan for the coming constitutional convention. The Committee on Arrangements—R. A. McPherson, Joe Henry, and James R. Kilgore—have arranged for speeches by Hon. Thomas D. Molloy, Hon. P. T. Robertson, Richard L. King, and others, and resolutions of thanks and congratulation will be prepared to send to Congressman Ralph Cameron. C. D. Baker will be toastmaster.

The Democrats and non-partisan element of Yuma will also celebrate in a public meeting Monday evening, to be presided over by Mayor F. L. Ewing, and speeches will be delivered by Dist.-Atty. W. F. Timons, Attorney J. M. Hess, C. H. Colman, and others.

Witness in Cheyenne Murder Trial Shows Jury by Crap Game How Negro Was Killed.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.]

CHEYENNE, June 24.—In order to show the jury the origin of the trouble which led to the killing of Levi Tracey, a negro, in this city, June 12, a game of craps was played in court today by John W. Mitchell, a witness in the trial of James Henry, charged with the murder of Tracey.

Mitchell was describing the game in which Tracey and Henry participated just before the killing.

"Here," he said, "I've got my 'bones' with me, and I'll just show you all how it happened.

He produced the dice, and illustrated his testimony so vividly that half the crowd in the courtroom began to reach for their money.

BOOST SALE OF CITY HALL.

Councilmen Urge People to Vote for Disposal.

Opposition to Plan Is Based on Selfishness.

Two-thirds Vote Is Needed to Carry Election.

Aroused by opposition to the project for the sale of the City Hall site to provide means for the building of a new municipal building on the Temple block site, the Finance Committee of the Council, at its meeting yesterday, adopted a report, unanimously, stating the position of the Council.

The opposition has been mainly from the organ of E. T. Earl, who is credited with purely selfish motives in fighting the sale. This opposition has sought to create the impression that it will take millions to build the new hall, that the city has no means to do it, and that, in addition, consolidation of the city and county governments is imminent and the building will be useless.

The statement issued by the committee was prepared by Councilman Washburn, its chairman. It is a complete refutation of the misstatements of the opposition and an unimpeachable statement of the necessity and feasibility of the new City Hall project. It is as follows:

"Your committee desires to call serious attention to the City Hall matter. Following out the Mulford Robinson plans for a 'City Beautiful,' the last City Council purchased the Temple block as a site for the new City Hall. In this action they received the support of the Chamber of Commerce and other civic organizations. The location of the municipal building may, therefore, be considered as settled unless the taxpayers wish to consider that property as an investment.

"About the time the city had its plans for the aqueduct under consideration a charter amendment was framed and adopted by the people prohibiting the Council from leasing, selling or otherwise disposing of the power incident to the aqueduct without a two-thirds vote of the people. Through an erroneous wording of this amendment enough doubt was thrown upon the power of the Council to dispose of any real estate belonging to the city to cloud the title of property so transferred, which was never intended.

"The Council, therefore, in obedience to what it believes to have been the expressed wish of the people, is endeavoring to carry out their intention, and as a preliminary it is asking authority at the election, to be held on the 30th inst., to sell the old City Hall property, whenever in its judgment it may deem necessary.

"Its purpose, when such authority is granted, is to sell the same whenever an adequate price can be obtained, possibly this year or next, and then by a tax levy of approximately 3 cents on the $100 for the next two or three years, which can be done without in any way increasing the taxes which the people have heretofore paid, produce enough funds to erect a fireproof office building that will be a credit to the city, and, as before stated, without any increase in taxation.

"The seriousness of the situation is caused by the fact that it requires an affirmative vote of two-thirds of ALL VOTES CAST AT THE ELECTION, and not two-thirds of the votes cast upon that proposition; therefore, a person voting on other proposals, and not on the question of the City Hall site is equivalent to a vote against the measure. Objection has been raised that it is desirable to await the time when a consolidation of the city and county has been completed. This is not a practical suggestion for the reason that such consolidation cannot take place under our present State Constitution.

"It is probable that, should we wait until the necessary amendment is made, the rentals of the city for quarters outside the present City Hall, which are already large, would more than equal the entire cost of the new City Hall.

"The situation, therefore, sums up as follows: A site has been purchased for the new City Hall, and the remainder of the payments must be met. The only way the construction can be carried out without a bond issue is by the method proposed or by the levying of taxes for the next seven or eight years for the purpose of accumulating the funds.

"Under the circumstances, if this vote is unfavorable, the hands of the Council will be tied, and we can see no good reason for the people withholding this authority.

BRISTOL PIER MUSIC.

California Girl Vocalist to Make Debut in Cafe Programme at Ocean Park.

An important theatrical transaction was put throught last evening when Miss Grace Moreno, the California girl vocalist, was contracted for the season at Bristol Pier Café, Ocean Park. Since this artist's appearance as a juvenile singer in private recital more than four years ago, efforts have been made to induce her to travel on the big circuits. Miss Moreno steadfastly refused to leave the State for the professional life.

Messrs. Schneider & Fieber, proprietors of Bristol Pier Café, have secured her services. Miss Moreno is 20 years of age, but her voice has the power and qualities of the operatic soloist. In addition to her vocal qualifications Miss Moreno is a beautiful woman. Her costumes, which include costly Spanish, Italian and American gowns, set off the beauty of the wearer to the utmost advantage.

Miss Moreno will open her first week's engagement at the big café this afternoon, singing thereafter in the Saturday and Sunday matinées, as well as upon each evening. "Love Tales of Hoffman," "Love in Springtime," by Arridi, and the ballad, "Carisimo." In addition to operatic solos, Miss Moreno is under contract to sing duets with Frank Lambert, the baritone of the big cast. She will also sing trios with other stars at the café.

The soubrette and comedy portions of the free vaudeville performances there have not been overlooked. A diversified programme, assisted by the Lancaster Ladies' Orchestra, has been arranged, and many new popular songs will be put on.

TELEGRAPHERS HONOR DYER.

SUPERINTENDENTS NAME LOCAL MAN AS PRESIDENT.

National Association Holds Annual Election, Presents Watch to Los Angeles Girl, and Today Will Visit Catalina as Closing Event in Convention Festivities.

At the business meeting of the Association of Railway Telegraph Superintendents, held at the Alexandria yesterday, the following officers were elected for the year 1910-11:

President—I. T. Dyer, Salt Lake Route, Los Angeles.

First vice-president—J. B. Sheldon, Union Pacific Railway, Omaha.

Second vice-president—William Bennett, Chicago & Northwestern Railway, Chicago.

Secretary and treasurer—P. W. Drew, Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Railway (reëlected.)

Mr. Dyer was given an almost unanimous election, only one vote being cast against him, and that presumably by himself. In introducing Mr. Dyer to the convention the committee, consisting of E. W. Griffith, John B. Sheldon and W. J. Camp, made it a pleasant event, Mr. Griffith remarking: "Appointed by your convention to introduce Mr. Dyer to this body, it behooves me to say that we might as well attempt to introduce the sun rising in the east and setting in the west as to attempt this delicate accomplishment. We have had it shown to us since our arrival in Los Angeles by our new president and his friends, that we made no mistake when we accepted his invitation in behalf of this famous city to come to Los Angeles. He is all to the good—the right man in the right place—and will guide the affairs of this association to the best possible advantage."

An interesting event of the convention was the presentation of a beautiful watch to Miss Adrienne E. Dyer by the association. She was named the California daughter of the association. On the watch was engraved: "From the Association of Railway Telegraph Superintendents to Miss Adrienne E. Dyer, June 21st, 1910."

Miss Dyer is the daughter of I. T. Dyer, superintendent of telegraph of the Salt Lake Route, and a popular young Los Angeles girl.

Resolutions of thanks were passed by the body expressing their obligation to the several corporations, institutions and individuals contributing to the notable success of the convention, and more particularly to President Dyer, to whose efforts the success of the entertainment was chiefly due.

The concluding number of the programme provided for the visitors is a special excursion to Catalina Island. A special train will leave the Salt Lake station at 8:50 o'clock this morning, proceeding to Long Beach, where a short stop will be made. At San Pedro the steamer Cabrillo will be turned over to the railroad men for the trip to Avalon. Dinner will be served at the Hotel Metropole.

Boston has been selected by the association for its next place of meeting.

GREAT WORK DONE.

May Report of Secretary Associated Charities Shows How Unemployed Have Been Helped.

So quietly is the work of the Associated Charities carried on, that were it not for the monthly reports of Secreary Sewell, one might imagine that there was nothing doing at the charity headquarters. The report for the month of may shows that 191 men worked for bed and board in the industrial department; that 707 meals were furnished, and a total of 217 beds; second-hand clothing furnished free, at an estimated value of $216. The free labor bureau found employment for 128 men out of 162 applicants.

The whole has been done at trivial cost, as compared with what the same service cost the association before the industrial department was established, and shows also the wisdom of the plan. In addition, the taking of 128 unemployed men from the streets of the city is of incalculable benefit.

PASADENA.

COMPROMISE IS NOW SUGGESTED.

BOARD OF TRADE COMMITTEE DISCUSSES BRIDGE.

Favors Neither High Nor Low Structure, But Something Between Two—Mayor Alexander of Los Angeles Will Speak at Meeting Called to Consider Light Problem.

Office of The Times, No. 26 S. Raymond Ave.

PASADENA, June 24.—For the first time in several months the bridge committee of the Board of Trade met last night to discuss the proposed structure across the Arroyo Seco at the west end of Colorado street to the San Rafael hills. The bridge will connect Pasadena and the San Gabriel Valley with Eagle Rock, Glendale and the San Fernando Valley.

Three plans were placed before the committee. The first comprehends what is known as the low bridge which, at the middle of the arroyo, will be ninety feet high, with a total length of 453 feet. These plans were submitted by the Highway Commission. The approaches are on an 8 per cent. grade and for that reason did not receive much favor on the part of the committee.

The second plan is for the high bridge, 165 feet above the middle of the arroyo, and with a total length of 1800 feet. The principal objection to this comes from the property owners along Grand avenue overlooking the arroyo, who state that it would greatly obstruct their view. The extra cost was also taken into consideration.

The third set of plans was submitted by Mark E. Williams, a construction engineer, and comprehend a compromise between the high and low, the bridge to be 140 feet above the arroyo and 1020 feet in length.

After much discussion a motion was unanimously adopted favoring the compromise bridge, with instructions to the executive committee to have Mr. Williams reconstruct his plans so as to lower the bridge fifteen feet, making it only 125 feet above the arroyo, and run the east approach for a longer distance, and not to exceed a 4 per cent. grade. The committeemen believe the compromise bridge will not seriously obstruct the view of the residents along the arroyo banks, and yet give an easy grade at both ends. It was stated that the total cost of the bridge will be reduced greatly.

The general opinion expressed was that it will be necessary to buy nearly all the tract belonging to Scoville, at the corner of Colorado street and Grand avenue.

Engineer Williams stated that the west approach will have a much better grade than the east.

The committeemen say the bridge must have an easy grade at both ends in order to make it perfectly feasible for the through travel from one valley to the other. They think that when completed the structure will be a very profitable asset to Pasadena, and will likely help the annexation of San Rafael Heights to this city. It was also pointed out that the great development of the San Fernando Valley, which will take place within the next few years, will be of inestimable value to Pasadena. Another advantage is that with the proposed county boulevard system, Pasadena will be placed within eighteen miles of Santa Monica, which fact alone will be of much advantage to this city from a tourist standpoint.

The establishment of the fine new public park which is now being built by the Huntington interests at Eagle Rock was brought up. It was argued that when that big amusement park is completed Pasadena, with the bridge, will be within a very short distance, and its people will have all the advantages of the park.

LIGHT MEETING.

City Attorney Perry Wood and Manager Koiner of the municipal lighting plant secured Mayor Alexander of Los Angeles for the big municipal meeting tonight at Maccabee Hall. It is proposed to effect a permanent organization to boost city lighting, primarily, and the present administration secondarily.

A tentative set of bylaws will be presented tonight, and officers elected. The exact reason for bringing the Mayor of Los Angeles to Pasadena at this particular time, is not made known openly, although the general opinion is that the electric light trouble, so far as the city is concerned, is essentially a political move. It is stated that Mayor Alexander will be asked to eulogize the people of the Crown City for their stand in the present fight and exhort them to secure the necessary 4000 subscribers which Wood and Koiner state will make the city plant a paying proposition. It is also expected that J. Perry Wood will have a good opportunity to show the Mayor of Los Angeles and his political advisors and committeemen, who will accompany him, how strong he is with his home people.

All the members of the Council, from the Mayor down, as well as the manager of the municipal plant, give Wood absolute credit for starting the present campaign. He insisted and finally demanded that the only way to conquer the Edison company was to meet its rates, and then work up public enthusiasm against the company, and in this manner secure a large number of consumers. As a matter of fact, the members of the Council and the manager of the city plant stood out for a long time for the 7-cent rate, but Wood is said to have demanded his way, and got it.

It is believed that Mayor Earley was averse to the present warfare, and insisted that Wood proceed against the Edison company, on the ground that the loaning of electrical appliances amounted to a rebate, which is a violation of the company's franchise. Wood insisted that he could make a suit stick at law, but when it was put up to him he weakened, stating the easiest method would be to cut rates. Other members of the Council are said to have lost confidence in Wood's legal ability, after they thoroughly investigated the Warrenite patent. Wood insisted that the paving patents of Warren Bros. were run out, that they had no right to ask for royalties, that a suit for infringement would never hold water, and that no other cities in California had recognized his patents. After a little investigation on part of members of the Council, it was found that nearly every other city in California had in some way or other recognized the patents. Therefore, regardless of the advice of Wood to the contrary, the City Council made an agreement with Warren Bros. to buy their patent street-paving dope. It is said the individual members of the Council found out that the Supreme Court of the United States, and of many of the States in the Union, had sustained the legality of the Warren [illegible] rate, Wood got his way so [illegible] for electric juice, and [illegible] a vacation trip.

day in reply to the letter of the preceding day, published by William R. Staats, vice-president of the Edison company. Koiner made no new points, but simply took issue with everything mentioned by Staats.

At the city lighting department office clerks were kept busy taking in new subscribers and entering up three-year contracts. The city has a large force of men out installing new meters.

ALLEGED SMUGGLER HELD.

The police last night arrested José Orena, who was selling Mexican drawn work, opals and other articles which he stated he procured in Mexico. It is said that he has been operating in the city for several days or rather nights, and that he did his selling after dark. It is asserted he told the people where he tried to sell his goods that he had smuggled them over from Mexico and for that reason could afford to sell very cheaply. When arrested the Mexican had quite a bundle of goods under his arm. He stated, however, that he had paid the duty on the goods. Just before being placed behind the bars he offered to give Police Sergent Longley his entire stock of goods as security for appearance tomorrow morning. The police believe they have made a valuable catch and will hold Orena for reports from other cities.

PHILANTHROPIC WOMAN.

When the Santa Fé Overland arrived from Los Angeles about 8 o'clock last night bound for Chicago three men were taken off the top of one of the coaches by the railroad employés and turned over to Chief of Police Wood charged with trying to beat a ride. The men pleaded very hard to be released, stating that they were on their way back to Texas, and were out of money. While putting up their line of talk at the depot their pleas were overheard by a philanthropic old lady. She followed the men to the City Jail and stated to the Chief that if they were allowed to go without being fined she would provide a way for them to get home. She refused to give her name, but stated she would call this morning for the Chief's reply. It was stated late last night that the men are strikers getting away from Los Angeles.

BRIDGE PARTY.

One of the charming society affairs of yesterday was the bridge party given by Miss Ida May Allen at her home on Santa Rosa avenue, Altadena, in honor of her house guest, Miss Catherine Ellis of Sacramento. Five card tables were set for the players. The house was beautifully decorated in light green and red, the latter color being furnished by American Beauty roses. There were twenty guests.

Miss Marjorie Palmer gave a delightful garden party yesterday afternoon at the home of her mother, Mrs. M. L. Gaylord, No. 353 Markham street. The afternoon was spent in garden games of various kinds.

Mrs. J. H. Pearman entertained the Executive Committee of the Shakespeare Club at her home, No. 237 North Marengo avenue, with a "Honolulu afternoon." Those present were Miss Barnaby, president of the club; Mmes. D. D. Kellogg, J. H. Woodworth, Rosenbaum, J. E. Janes, C. C. Machin, Dr. Marcia Gilmore, Dr. Elizabeth Hunt and Miss Booge.

RETURN IN SAFETY.

Los Angeles Men Arrive at San Pedro After Being Detained by Windstorm.

SAN PEDRO, June 24.—With the arrival of the launch Nedra today, with Capt. Hall and party from San Nicolas Island, fears of friends that a grave mishap had occurred proved unfounded. The failure of the craft to return Tuesday evening gave rise to rumors that Officer Willard of the Los Angeles Chinatown squad and those who accompanied him were lost at sea.

The party left here the 4th inst., for a two weeks' camping and fishing trip and intended to leave on the 17th inst. for home. A strong northwesterly gale sprung up and the Nedra had to seek shelter in a cove on San Nicolas Island. The storm did not abate till two days ago. In the party with Willard were Messrs. O. W. Howard, Antone Jay, V. W. Owen and J. S. Appleton.

LONG BEACH.

FIVE THOUSAND SEE EXERCISES.

EIGHTY-TWO SENIORS RECEIVE THEIR DIPLOMAS.

Farmer of Brigham, Who Wooed Girl by Mail, Will Not Only Return to Utah Without Bride-to-Be, But Crooks at San Pedro Rob Him of One Thousand Dollars.

LONG BEACH, June 24.—An audience of 5000 people attended the graduating exercises of the Senior High School class at the auditorium tonight. The big building was prettily decorated in the green and gold colors of the class, while over the stage was the class motto, "Following the light we never look back." On an extra platform were seated the 400 members of the school chorus, which gave several selections under direction of Miss Rogers.

The exercises opened with a selection by the school orchestra of forty pieces, after which Rev. Henry K. Booth gave a brief invocation. Clement Nadeau, president of the class, gave the salutatory and was followed by Howard Berryman, on "Practical Idealism." Miss Edna Lochridge delivered the valedictory, taking as her subject "The Test of Gravity." She was followed by Harry Riley, president of the student body, in an oration on "Patriotism." The programme was a departure from previous years in that the students had entire charge and the usual outside address was omitted.

After the rendition of the "Pilgrim's Chorus," Prof. David Burcham presented the graduating class, which numbers eighty-two, and is the largest in the history of the district. The diplomas were given by Vice-President F. C. Yeomans. The exercises closed with a distribution of the flowers and gifts to the graduates by the girls of the junior class. Here is the list of graduates:

Mary E. Andrews, Ruth Arnold, H. Park Arnold, Julia Asgby, Sara Barbour, Athol Bates, John Bamesbarger, John Bell, Oliver Bell, Frances Bergen, Leone Bill, Francene Bishop, Ruth Bishop, Grace Brady, Carl Brunn, Ruth Berg, Warren Butterfield, Howard Berryman, Laura Caldwell, Edward Carnes, Bertha Carson, Helen Dolley, William Driskill, Faye Edminston, Helen Elston, Francis Flint, Floyd Frazier, George Gautier, Carlisle Galbreath, Winnifred Graham, Dale Griffin, Zay Harding, Carl Hawkins, Daniel Helps, William Herrman, Myrtle Hockett, Mariella Holladay, Julia Howell, Hazel Hutcherson, John Kendall, Flora Kennedy, Pearl Kennedy, Harold Kinman, Antoinette Liedler, Mary Lochridge, Iva Lyle, Robert Lorec, Leona Merrill, Bruce Mason, Pearl McDuff, Margaret Miller, Hazel Mills, Olive Moore, Don Clement Nadeau, Edith Noble, Alice Parker, Nettie Pike, D'Earl Reese, Beulah Reese, Mabelle Richey, Laurelle Riggins, Harry Riley, Jeane Robinson, Walter Robinson, John Ruggs, Osborne Rutherford, Hazle M. FARMER BUNCOED.

George W. Craighead, the Utah farmer who came here yesterday looking for Miss Emma Harwell, who he courted by mail, and sent $100 for her trousseau and railroad ticket, was advised to go to Los Angeles today to tell the police of that city the details of how he fell afoul of a brace of sports at San Pedro Monday and was buncoed out of $1000 on a fake horse race, which is to be run somewhere, sometime. He did not tell this story until last night and was surprised when told that his bank account was probably $1000 shy and that he had been an easy victim. He gives a good description of the crooks, which may lead to their arrest.

FORGETS DATE OF WEDDING.

Miss Harwell was located late this afternoon at a local sanatorium, but her story is somewhat different to that told by the farmer. She says she was jilted a year ago by a Los Angeles man, and while still grieving over it became acquainted with Craighead through a matrimonial paper. She says she made a trip to Brigham City to see her elderly lover and consented to marry him on June 4. He sent her money unsolicited, but when June 4 rolled around she had forgotten all about her engagement. Now since he has made such a row about it she says that it is all off and she will not marry him under any circumstances. Miss Harwell is a patient of Dr. M. A. Schutz at his sanatorium on West Second and is under treatment for a facial trouble. The doctor read the story as told by Craighead. He asked his patient concerning it. She said the story was distorted and she had no fear of court proceedings.

The Salt Lake motor car, on its first trip this morning, struck two empty grain wagons, coupled together, at Fruitland, two miles from Hobart, and reduced them to kindling. The driver saw the danger and leaped to safety. The four-horse team had crossed the track and escaped injury. Engineer Mitchell tried to stop the motor car, but when he saw a collision was certain he put on full speed and hit the rear wagon a heavy jolt. The front end of the motor was damaged and the radiator punched full of holes, necessitating a return to the shop for repairs.

MUCH RED PAINT.

The two-ton granite rock which the senior class placed on the campus yesterday as a remembrance of their gaduation was daubed all over with red paint during the night, and the junior numerals 1911 placed on the rock with an acid, rendering its obliteration impossible. The seniors today are wrathy and the sophomores who were chosen to guard it sacredly are correspondingly chagrined. The juniors are mum on the subject.

HOURLY SCHEDULE.

The first car on the Wilmington branch of the Pacific Electric will leave Long Beach tomorrow morning at 6:30 o'clock and will maintain an hourly schedule to San Pedro during the day. The run will be over the Third-street line to its junction with the new tracks, the local run being abandoned and the service on East First street made half-hourly instead of every hour. The fare to San Pedro will be 25 cents the round trip and the same to Wilmington, but a commutation ticket will be issued to workingmen at the rate of 8 1-3 cents. The new line extends across the flats, traversing the inner harbor district.

Owing to the increased patronage at Hotel Virginia, Clerk Vivian has been relieved of the duties of cashier and will give his full time to the desk. B. V. Roessing, formerly of the Lankershim, began his duties as cashier today.

LAST OF THE EXERCISES.

Santa Monica Concludes Ceremonies in Connection With Graduation of Scholars.

SANTA MONICA, June 24.—The last of the commencement exercises of the public schools of the Santa Monica district were held today, a busy week closing with the graduating exercises of the pupils of the eighth grades. The programme was carried out on the campus of the High School, the presentation of the class of ninety-six being made by Superintendent Rebok. Principal Morris welcomed the graduates on behalf of the High School faculty, and they were addressed by City Superintendent Francis of Los Angeles.

Work was commenced today on a new residence to be built in the Palisades for R. C. Gillis, president of the Los Angeles Pacific Company. The structure, which is to be of hollow tile, will cost $4000. Operations have also been commenced on a fine new residence in Brentwood Park, to cost $7400, for Herman Janss. It is to be located at the intersection of Florida avenue and Terrace Drive.

C. B. Walker, a traveling salesman from Los Angeles, was arrested on Pier avenue last night while drunk, and paid a fine of $10 when arraigned before Police Judge Carrillo this morning. The charge was disturbing the peace, but according to the arresting officer, Walker seemed to have been suffering an attack of the love germ. While walking along the street his eye fell upon two natty-looking young ladies. They were strangers to him, but before they knew what was taking place he had taken the pair into his fond embrace. It was then that the officer interrupted the proceeding.

CATALINA.

LAUNCH PARTY KNOCKED ABOUT.

BOTH ON LAND AND SEA LONG BEACH FOLK SUFFER.

While Camping on San Clemente Two Tents Are Blown Down and While Gasoline Sloop Is in Channel the Engine Breaks Down and Craft Drifts for Hours.

AVALON, June 24.—With a party of eight weary and seasick pleasure-seekers on board, the gasoline sloop Dorothy L of Long Beach was towed into this port today by a smaller launch. In the party were Capt. and Mrs. J. H. Paschall, Earl Coffee and wife, Howard Judson and wife, and E. J. Carner and wife. All are residents of Long Beach.

Ten days ago the Dorothy L and a small launch left Long Beach for a two weeks' cruise around San Clemente Island. Supplied with ample provisions all went well until the boats reached Mosquito Harbor. At this point, the party intended to take their outfits ashore and camp for several days. They were unaware that they must obtain written camping privileges before they would be permitted to land. Those in charge refused to accept any verbal statements of the party, and would not allow them to land on the east side of the island.

In a raging storm, which prevailed last Sunday, the pleasure-seekers made for the shore on the west side of the island. Two of their tents were blown to ribbons. On the sixth day out an effort was made to replenish their supply of water, but none was found pure enough for drinking.

Yesterday the party left the island of San Clemente for this port. When half way across the channel the engine of the sloop stopped and nobody on board could locate the trouble. For several hours the vessel drifted around, buffeted and tossed by the high seas and prevailing winds. By using the smaller launch to keep the sloop head on so that it could be propelled with a small sail, harbor was at last reached. The supply of water was used up several hours before the boats tied up in the bay.

ROOSEVELT TO FISH.

Preparations are being made here by "Mexican Joe," Catalina's oldest and most noted boatman, for a ten days' cruise to San Clemente, with Col. Roosevelt, Gifford Pinchot, Dr. Garrett Newkirk, Prof. C. F. Holder and Maj. Frederick Burnham of South Africa. The chartered boats will leave Avalon or or about September 20. The party will encamp at Mosquito Harbor, San Clemente Island, making this headquarters and supply center.

Capt. Al Shade who came over from Mosquito Harbor yesterday, said: "If Col. Roosevelt doesn't get all the fun out of Clemente fishing which ought to come to him next September, I'll miss my guess. When I left the island the sea was almost black with fish. Coming over I had two swordfish strikes while trolling with a piece of white rag for bait."

R DRUGGIST.

GRADUATE IS NEAR DEATH.

While Riding Home from Picnic Fullerton Youth Is Thrown from Motorcycle.

FULLERTON, June 24.—Lincoln Good, a member of the graduating class of the High School, and prominent in the younger social set of this city, is unconscious in the hospital, as the result of injuries sustained in a motorcycle accident last evening. Good, in company with Tel Salveson, was riding home about 6 o'clock last evening on the latter's tandem motorcycle, after having spent the day at a picnic at Newport Beach.

Salveson, who was driving, says they were not running more than twenty miles an hour. In attempting to take a narrow bicycle path between Anaheim and Fullerton, the machine struck a soft place and both boys were thrown. Salveson landed in plowed ground at the side of the path and was unhurt. He ran to help Good, who fell in a crumpled heap some distance away, after having struck a protective frame built around a young tree, but found his companion unconscious. The injured boy was placed in an automobile and hurried to the hospital, but has not recovered consciousness. The doctors entertain little hope of his recovery.

It seems hard to tell, even after examination, just how badly Good is injured. His skull does not appear to be fractured, but one shoulder is dislocated.

DESIRE FOR PASTRY CAUSES MAN TO STEAL.

After Being Once Released on Probation Santa Anan Renews His Pilfering, Is Caught in Act and Is Sentenced to Serve Three Months in County Jail.

SANTA ANA, June 24.—An overweening love of pie is responsible for William Smith's troubles. Pie has twice caused his arrest. The second time was this morning, and Smith pleaded guilty to petty larceny and was sentenced to three months in jail. Smith's first offense was about a month ago. His room-mate ran a tamale and pie wagon. After the wagon was closed for the night, Smith made many visits to it on the sly to partake of pastry. He was caught in the act. He promised Justice Smithwick to keep his fingers off other people's pies, and was allowed to go without sentence. Today's arrest followed raids made by Smith upon the pie-wagon of William McDonald.

COMPROMISE EFFORTS FAIL.

Efforts to reach a compromise agreement between the Santa Ana Valley Irrigation Company and the Anaheim Union Water Company on the one hand and the Gage Canal Company of Riverside on the other, have so far failed. An all-day meeting of committees and directors at Anaheim yesterday failed to bring terms. The two water companies rejected the proposal of the canal company, and delivered what is thought to be their last offer. This will be considered soon. The matter concerns the settlement of a water rights suit in which the Gage Canal Company is one of the defendants. If compromise fails, it will be left to the courts.

IS FREAK OF NATURE.

Old Dame Turns Oranges Green, But Redlands Men Sweat 'Em Back to Yellow Again.

REDLANDS, June 24.—The freak of nature by which the ripe Valencia oranges have turned so green as to make them unmarketable, has been something of a puzzle to the growers and shippers. Never before in the history of orange culture in this section has such a thing happened. After turning the customary deep yellow, the fruit gradually began to assume a greenish hue, and finally returned to its original green as deep as the leaves. When cut open the fruit is yellow, juicy and sweet.

The appearance of an orange means so much in regard to sale that one enterprising packer experimented in sweating the fruit to get back its natural yellow color. So successful was he that the Redlands Fruit Association has constructed two large rooms in connection with its packing house, and here two carloads can be sweated at a time. It is needless to say that the rooms are full all the time, and other packers are constructing similar additions to their houses. The temperature in the sweatroom is kept at 90 degrees, and about two weeks is required to complete the sweating process, the fruit emerging a deep luscious yellow.

With the end of the school year in both the University of Redlands and the local High School, come some important changes in the faculty of each. Rev. George L. Melton, dean of the university, and head of the departments of history and political science, has resigned and with Mrs. Melton left early in the week for Pasadena en route east, where he will spend the summer in Washington making a special study of the Far Eastern situation. In the fall he and Mrs. Melton will sail for Europe, and he will continue his studies in political science in London. Later they will return to Redlands to look after their business interests in this section, but Dr. Melton does not intend to connect himself with any school. Mrs. P. L. Evans has received a telegram from her husband, Prof. Evans, saying he has been made head of the commercial department of the Berkeley High School.

TROUBLE COMES TO RICH WOMAN.

SHE MARRIED HIRED MAN, NOW GOES TO COURT.

Although She Made Hubby Sign an Agreement Renouncing All Claim to Her Property She Has Asked the Intercession of the Superior Bench at Ventura.

VENTURA, June 24.—Mrs. John Montgomery, a wealthy woman residing on the Las Posas, has, through her attorney, asked the intercession of the Superior Court to prevent her husband selling her property, or any portion of it. Mrs. Montgomery was the widow of the late James Evans when she married Montgomery in 1908. The latter was working on the ranch when Cupid pierced the heart of the rich widow. She arranged a wedding with Montgomery, but at the same time she had him sign an agreement renouncing all claim to any share of the Evans property which came to her or her children.

The two Greeks, Louis Nel and James Papas, who were recently found catching trout in Ventura River in a trap built of reeds, pleaded guilty and were fined $100 each by Superior Judge Clarke.

Robert Strathearn of the Simi, yesterday was awarded $430 damages by a jury in a suit he brought against the Southern Pacific for the killing of four horses on his ranch two years ago.

In the case of Snow vs. Holst, tried yesterday in the Superior Court before Judge Conrey of Los Angeles, sitting for Judge Clarke, a verdict was returned in favor of the defendant. The suit was the outcome of a business transaction between the two Oxnard citizens.

Carrie Rodriguez has filed suit for divorce from Frank Rodriguez.

Mrs. L. G. Hare, a prominent Native Daughter of Salinas, is the guest here of her relative, Mrs. Julia Hare.

Dr. Ross Neel of Long Beach is visiting here with his parents.

The Chamber of Commerce, in session here last night, decided to supply a first-class float for the Oxnard Fourth of July parade.

S. L. Archer, United States Surveyor General in California, has written County Surveyor Everett asking information as to the unsurveyed government land in Ventura county. He has been informed that it amounts in all to 58,240 acres, all of a hilly and mountainous character.

GET LICENSE, BUT WITHDRAW AT LAST MOMENT.

San Bernardino Detective and Los Angeles Girl Nearly Become One, But Dramatically Pause on the Threshold—Queen of Bootleggers Is Jailed.

SAN BERNARDINO, June 24.—Detective H. F. Bunkers of the bureau of this city, and Miss Orvie C. Malkus, cornetist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Malkus of Los Angeles took up a marriage dare, secured a license, and at the City Hall threw those who had put up their coin into consternation by suddenly declaring the nuptials off, and that they were merely joking.

The couple had been seen together on several occasions, and Monday night were showered with rice. This afternoon they strolled into police headquarters together, and one of the officers dared them to marry, promising to pay the officiating judge. Building Inspector Florey added to the dare by promising to pay for the license.

"We take you up," said the girl, to which Bunkers assented.

Accompanied by the Building Inspector they visited the County Clerk's office, where the license was issued, and they retraced their steps to the City Hall, ostensibly to have the knot tied.

On arriving at the hall they went into a conference, and soon sent out the statement that the marriage was off. Mr. Florey confiscated the license, and despite the couple's bidding high figures for the parchment he refused to surrender it to any one but a judge, justice or clergyman, who will perform the ceremony on the spot.

A fire of unknown origin this forenoon destroyed the home of F. A. Paddock at No. 1375 West Seventh street. The loss is estimated at $2500. The residence was located within a short distance of the Pennsylvania avenue fire station, which the city built many months ago, but never equipped. Paddock has repeatedly been before the City Council, heading a committee of citizens, to urge that fire apparatus be purchased for the new station, but a lack of finance prevented the request being granted.

"QUEEN OF BOOTLEGGERS."

Roda Flores, queen of the bootleggers, was locked up in the County Jail this morning to serve eight months for furnishing intoxicants to Indians. Her husband was taken north today to serve ten years for a murder committed at Colton. The woman for months did a rushing business selling liquor to the Indians, using a local lodging house as her headquarters. Yesterday she lured an Indian who had $125 to her room and after getting him intoxicated she took the money.

Escondido Citrus Fruit Growers Sell Some Lemons at Better Than Two Cents Apiece.

ESCONDIDO, June 24.—Escondido citrus fruit growers are sharing in the fancy prices of lemons in the east. Within a week several carloads have brought the shippers $6 and $6.50 per box, or better than 2 cents per lemon.

J. L. Vanderveer, for several years city treasurer, city justice and clerk of the Mutual Water Company, will leave on Monday for Anaheim, where he will assume the duties of principal of the grammar schools. Mr. Vanderveer was for three years a teacher in the grammar school here.

Mrs. Nellie B. Herbold of Winchester has bought the R. E. Gipps place, west of the city, consisting of twenty acres. The property adjoins that recently purchased by her brother, H. M. Howell of Colton, which is to be set out to citrus orchard.

Electric Concerns Propose a Compromise Reduction.

Submit a Statement to the Citizens' Committee.

Figures Presented Showing Comparative Cost.

The Citizens' Committee, which numbers among its members every clearinghouse bank in the city, together with merchants, brokers and real estate men, will recommend that the proposed 7-cent ordinance for electric lighting be defeated at the polls next Thursday to permit an 8-cent compromise rate, which has been offered by the companies to go into effect.

Resolutions to this effect have been passed and every voter in the city will be notified at once of the action taken.

The offer of compromise made by the lighting companies follows, and copies of this letter also will be mailed by the companies to the 100,000 consumers of electric light in the city:

"To the Citizens' Committee: Acknowledging the receipt of copies of your resolution, in which is expressed a desire to adjust the differences between the city and ourselves in relation to the electric lighting rates, we beg to hand you the following proposition to accept a compromise base rate of 8 cents, with a sliding scale of rates as shown herewith, and to guarantee that the same shall be continued in effect for one year from July 1, 1910, if the ordinance reducing the lighting rates is defeated on June 30.

"SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA EDISON COMPANY,

"By R. H. Ballard, Secretary and Assistant General Manager.

"PACIFIC LIGHT AND POWER CORPORATION,

"By A. C. Balch, General Manager."

Yesterday morning A. C. Balch, general manager of the Pacific Light and Power Corporation, the concern that furnishes power for the Huntington lines, issued a signed statement for the benefit of the two retail companies showing that through the constant use of power by the railways the Pacific Light and Power Corporation, upon the Mayor's estimate of ¾ cents per kilowatt hour, is making more money than the retail companies at 9 cents. His statement follows:

"It has been stated by the Mayor that the sale of electric power to railroads at ¾ cents per killowatt hour works a hardship on the small consumers of current for lighting.

"It is obvious that those making these statements did not take into consideration the fact that the railroads use current almost constantly for eighteen hours per day, while residences us their whole number of lamps an average of not more than thirty-five minutes per day.

"The customary usage in residences is 50 per cent. of the total number of lamps installed, which would give a comparison of one hour per day at 9 cents per kilowatt hour for residences as against eighteen hours per day at ¾ cents per kilowatt hour for railroads.

"This is a simple mathematical calculation which shows that the gross revenue to the company on railroad business for one kilowatt would be 13½ cents per day, upon the Mayor's estimate of charge, while from residences but 9 cents per day.

"Taking this on a large scale, it can veary easily be seen that the gross income to the electric company from a 10,000-horse-power plant devoted exclusively to railroad use would be 50 per cent. greater at ¾ cents per kilowatt hour than the gross income to the electric company of a plant of exactly the same size devoted exclusively to residence lighting at 9 cents per kilowatt hour.

"In this comparison the investment in the generating plant would be identical in each case. Following this further it is a fact that the railroads receive their power at the generating station so that no pole lines or distributing system are necessary. In the case of residence lighting, this investment is enormous, and in addition to the investment, there is a loss of current between the generator and the residence of approximately 25 per cent.

"Another feature which enters largely into the cost of furnishing service is the fact that the monthly charge to the railroad company is 10,000 times as much as the average monthly charge to the residence. In residence lighting, therefore, the investment in meters, care and attendance, billing, collecting and all such expenses, must be incurred for 10,000 accounts, as against one for the railroad.

"As a matter of fact, there is a great deal more profit in furnishing current to railroads at ¾ cents per kilowatt hour than there is in furnishing residences at 9 cents per kilowatt hour for lighting purposes.

[Signed] "A. C. BALCH."

HUNTINGTON BEACH.

HUNTINGTON BEACH, June 24.—The City Trustees have fixed July 25 as the date for holding an election to decide whether to issue bonds to the amount of $40,000 for the establishment of a municipal gas plant. Sentiment is strongly in favor of the bond issue and there is little doubt of the result of the election. The Trustees are relying on the estimates of the cost of the plant furnished by Engineer Thompson of Los Angeles, who performed the same service for the city of Banning several years ago.

The work of paving Main street is nearing completion and bids have been submitted by the B. R. Davisson Contracting Company of Monrovia for improving Orange, Walnut and Olive avenues.

was the anniversary of St. John's , one of the historic occasions in sonry, which hereafter will be no- le in the annals of the Los Ange- lodges because of the greatest and gest gathering ever held under the spices of the local members. Long efore the appointed hour for the ormal beginning of festivities, the tream of people began pouring into he Coliseum, until by 8:30 o'clock every seat was occupied and standing room was at a premium. A mile or more of automobiles ornamented Jefferson street after having discharged occupants who attended the reception.

The official reception was in the nature of a "Get Together Party," as it was termed in recognition of the brotherly association of all the lodges for the occasion. MARCH TO PLATFORM.

Headed by Al Malaikah Band, the members of the escort, in full evening dress, ornamented with Masonic regalia, preceded the guests of the evening. With military precision the procession marched the length and breadth of the hall, finally forming in two rows of fours facing each other, through which the grand officers marched to the platform, where they

John's Day and touched briefly upon the grandeur and growth of Freemasonry. He stated that this was the largest gathering of the kind ever held in Southern California, and that one of its purposes was to show the Most Worshipful Grand Master the esteem in which he is held by the Masons of Los Angeles and vicinity, and also to exhibit to him evidences of the progress made by the craft in this locality. As members of a great brotherhood bound together by sacred ties, they extended greeting. Freemasonry, said Judge Hervey, is the republic of humanity, the commonwealth of justice. He paid eloquent tribute to the Grand Master as one distinguished in Masonry.

In his brief response, Mr. Pierce referred to the precepts and principles of the great organization of which he is the California head, and called attention to its absolute loyalty to country and to the principles of the Golden Rule. He expressed his appreciation of the honor and homage paid him, and extended his thanks to the immense assemblage for its presence.

CARES BANISHED.

"All cares and troubles must be forgotten, and for the hour pleasure and love shall reign supreme," said he in concluding his remarks.

The suggestion of the eminent guest of honor was accepted with full appreciation by the crowd, which later in the evening enjoyed an extended dance programme. Prior to this feature of the entertainment, there were varied selections from the Shrine Band, Philharmonic Male Quartette, and Masonic Home Mandolin Quartette. The Philharmonic singers were Leroy Jepson, Sheldon Ballinger, Harold Ostrom, and Dr. J. Lester Adams; the mandolin performers were Miss Loleta Charles, Miss Grace Haensel, Miss Lizzie Haensel, and Miss Josephine Clairville. The dance music was by Laletsky's Orchestra. Refreshments were served.

The members of the General Committee of Arrangements consisted of Motley H. Flint, Dana R. Weller, Frederick T. Purdy, Irving J. Mitchell, William M. Humphreys, Walter F. Haas, Benjamin F. Kierulff, Jr., and Dr. John M. Dunsmoor. The chairman of the Reception Committee was Harry C. Bowers, and James B. Gist was chairman of the Floor Committee.

JURY DISAGREES.

Body in the Case of Dentist Accused of Felony Reports in Evening and Is Discharged.

The jury in Judge Willis's department of the Superior Court in the case of Dr. Clarence C. Jarvis, who for several years has conducted a dental parlor at the corner of Third and Broadway, returned to court last night. The jury reported a disagreement and was discharged.

The charge against Dr. Jarvis was that on May 30, 1909, he committed rape upon Miss Hazel Nickels, who is less than 16 years of age. The testimony was but slightly corroborated involving the accused, who made a strenuous denial of the charge, alleging that he was in charge of a batallion of the Knights of Pythias at Venice the day the crime was said to have been committed.

DIGGING INTO DIXON DOINGS.

New Blood Infused in Case of Police Captain.

Prosecutor Eddie Sidetracks, Deputy Takes Place.

Officers Assigned by Chief to Make Inquiries.

Capt. Dixon, crafty and complacent, is to have a real trial next Monday, when the Police Commission meets again to hear testimony concerning his career as a policeman, and as other things. When the commission adjourned last Wednesday it invited all who had accusations against the wily captain to make them before Monday.

A real effort for a real prosecution was begun yesterday. Acting under instructions from City Attorney Hewitt, Sidney Reeve, Deputy City Prosecutor, began the investigation of all the accusations against Dixon and will prepare himself to prosecute the case thoroughly next Monday. If further time be required it undoubtedly will be granted by the Police Commission, which wants all the facts brought out.

Not only this, but Chief Galloway assigned Sergt. Sebastian and half a dozen plain-clothes officers to the work of running down all the allegations against Dixon and to procuring the testimony that is needed to throw light on them. If necessary, other officers will be assigned to work under the direction of the Chief and Reeve.

EDDIE ON OTHER SIDE.

When the Dixon case was set for trial it was expected by the Police Commission that Guy W. Eddie, City Prosecutor, would, as usual, present the testimony against the captain. He was detained that night, however, and asked Reeve to appear and examine the witnesses. Reeve was unprepared for any presentation of the Gage case and was unfamiliar with the collateral matters. To the surprise of everybody, Eddie appeared Wednesday as a witness for Dixon, at which time he explained that he had not talked to any one about the case, as he had expected to prosecute it.

Eddie was questioned at that time as to any unfriendliness between himself and Dixon, but he said there is none and he branded as false the statement that Dixon and he had quarreled over affidavits concerning Eddie's conduct. The failure of Eddie to prosecute Dixon led to a belief that good reason prevented such a course. It is possible a further inquiry into the affidavits may be made, as Eddie testified he understood they were in the possession of Champ the work of preparing the case against Dixon so that the facts may be brought out and that the hearing may not be a jug-handle defense for the accused captain. Had such provision not been made, the charges of Chief Galloway and others as brought out Monday night by the questioning of Commissioner Wellborn would have become reduced to mere insinuations and Dixon would have witnesses for defense, but practically none to sustain the charges.

The action yesterday in assigning enough experienced men to ferret out the witnesses, especially those that the Dixon "purity squad" has lost track of, is understood to mean that the Mayor and the commission want all the facts.

There no longer is concealment of the fact that the commission does not place confidence in Dixon. So much has been said about him and his methods that members of the body want no mistake made this time. If the presentation of all the testimony on both sides exonerates Dixon, well and good, but a real prosecution is deemed desirable, not one in which Dixon would have everything his own way.

Reeve sent for and interrogated yesterday many witnesses whose names were furnished him, and the plain-clothes men visited many who are said to have knowledge of the things charged against Dixon.

NINE LIVES IN FOUR PUPS.

MAN WHO TRIED TO KILL DOGS NOW HAS REPENTED.

Souses Them for Long Time in Water, Then Buries 'Em, But Canines Kick and Yowl and Arrest of the Would-Be Executioner Follows. He Is Sorry.

After making an unsuccessful attempt to drown four infant pups, then to bury them alive, and having been arrested on charges of cruelty to animals, Albert Linde has decided that he is fond of the doggies and will rear them on the best food he can buy.

Linde was disappointed when his pet dog presented him with a litter of pups. He thought the easiest way out of the difficulty was to kill four of the animals, and he cast about for an easy manner of inflicting death. He decided that drowning was the way.

The little canines were placed in a bag, which had been partially filled with rocks, and the top was tied. They were submerged for about fifteen minutes. Linde had no idea that any living thing could survive such treatment. The animals gave no sign of life when they were taken out of the sack. Their executioner carried them to a vacant lot and interred them in one grave.

Persons residing in the neighborhood are accustomed to walking across the strip of ground where the dogs were buried. Passersby heard whining thought was that they had discovered a coyote's nest and that the sounds were made by the whelps. With picks and shovels they began tearing up the ground, with the intention of killing the animals. They
